Family theme parks, happiness and children's consumption David Cardell, 2015-09-24 This book provides an ethnographic contribution to research on children's consumption family life and happiness Various and shifting notions of happiness are explored as well as conditions for and challenges to happiness through an analysis of video recorded interviews and mobile ethnography conducted in two of the most popular theme parks in Sweden Initially the study outlines how previous research has conceptualized happiness in association with time and place in a rather static way Based on a treatise of notions of happiness in philosophy and the social sciences there is a turn in this thesis towards practice It generates fundamental knowledge about the complexity of happiness By employing this approach it is possible to highlight how happiness is enacted as part of and in relation to ideals of family life time childhood money consumption experiences and material things As we explore the practices of children and their families we discover that shifting meanings of happiness are located in contemporary culture where emotions and consumption are of central importance The approach is interdisciplinary and draws on theoretical and methodological contributions in sociology anthropology and Science and Technology Studies STS Notions of meshwork and enactment become important for the exploration of happiness as a complex and changing matter which productively involves social relations and material things Throughout the thesis there is a dialogue with previous research on happiness consumption and childhood which highlights the importance of exploring messy practices in movement It is argued that explorations of practice contribute to a critical understanding of how happiness and contemporary ideals of childhood can be approached through consumption and as part of citizenship in a consumer society where happiness is of central importance Denna avhandling utgör ett etnografiskt bidrag till forskning om barns konsumtion familjeliv och lycka Genom en analys av videoinspelade intervjuer samt familjebesök till tvärsnittet av Sveriges mest välbesökta temaparker utforskas skiftande betydelser av lycka liksom dess förutsättningar och utmaningar Tidigare temaparks forskning har generellt tagit lyckans existens för givet Utifrån en inledande diskussion om bland annat olika filosofiska och samhällsvetenskapliga lyckoteorier argumenterar avhandlingen för att studier av praktik tillför ny och grundläggande kunskap om lyckans komplexa sammansättningar Avhandlingen visar därigenom att lycka iscensätts som en del av och i förhållande till ideal om familjeliv tid barndom pengar konsumtion upplevelser och materiella ting Genom att fokusera på barn och deras familjers praktiker lokaliseras lyckans skiftande betydelser i en samtidskultur där emotioner och konsumtion är centrala. Avhandlingens ansats är tvärvetenskaplig och hämtar teoretisk och metodologisk inspiration från sociologi, antropologi samt teknik och vetenskapsstudier. STS. Genom denna ansats synliggörs sammanflätningar av sociala relationer och materiella ting som produktiva i iscensättandet av lycka. Genom en dialog mellan empiriska beskrivningar och forskning om lycka, konsumtion och barndom belyser avhandlingen den tydligheten av att synliggöra och utforska olika och olika praktiker. Det bidrar till en kritisk förståelse av praktik som kan förändra hur vi förhåller oss till lycka och samtida barndomsideal som konsumenter och medborgare i ett lyckosträfvande konsumtionssamhälle.

Family Stew Anne Salter Lcsw, 2012-10 We each have a personal narrative about our life that incorporates stories within a larger whole. One or more of these stories may reveal roots of traumas or life changing events that have impacted how we define ourselves, traumas or events that may affect our relationships today. In Family Stew author Anne Salter shows how we are created emotionally and demonstrates how we often form dysfunctional belief systems and relationships from legacies of relationships with family, religion, school and other early experiences. Salter presents a full examination of the relationship with our individual self from the time it first develops in family relationships and as it proceeds into all patterns of animate and inanimate relationships. She includes insight into forming associations with other people, ourselves and our sexuality as well as forming relationships with inanimate items such as money, home, work, religion or spirituality and government and politics. She also helps the reader to identify dysfunctional behaviors, beliefs and patterns of functioning. Family Stew includes real stories of people and the ways in which their adult relationship choices directly reflect their childhood experiences. Salter presents a guide and tool to help you learn how to reclaim a healthy relationship with your individual self and with all of the other connections in the world.

Global Childhoods in International Perspective: Universality, Diversity and Inequalities Claudio Baraldi, Lucia Rabello De Castro, 2020-02-10 Global Childhoods in International Perspective gathers a wide spectrum of contributors from Europe, the U.S., South Asia, South Africa and Latin America who attuned with present dilemmas in the area of childhood studies discuss some key theoretical and empirical aspects of child scholarship such as identity, child wellbeing, child mobility and migration, intergenerational relationships and child abuse. Through these expert contributions the book explores the many ways in which the relationship between universality and particularities of childhood plays an important role in describing global childhoods. The book highlights childhood as a cross-cutting issue in global sociology with chapters on globalization and schooling in Burkina Faso, child abuse and neglect in India, identity and integration among children of African immigrants in France, social class mobility of Filipino migrant children in Italy and France and an investigation into Kyrgyz childhoods. Ideal
