clinical psychiatry Today's Youth and Mental Health Soheila Pashang, Nazilla Khanlou, Jennifer Clarke, 2018-03-01 This book focuses on the social and intersectional determinants of mental health among youth. The innovative and cutting edge text arises out of multidisciplinary fields of academic researchers, policy makers, practitioners, artists and youth. Contributions from Canada, Germany, Portugal, South Korea, Burkina Faso, Afghanistan and Jamaica address the complexities and the opportunities for youth across contexts. Each chapter entails an introduction to the topic, literature review and research findings, discussion and implications in regard to research policy and practice. A unique aspect of the book is the inclusion of a critical response to each chapter's content from diverse stakeholders such as policy makers, front line workers, practitioners, community activists, artists and youth. The book is a critical and current contribution to exploring youth mental health and specifically the ways in which youth learn, live and resist in a world around them. Topics examined include youth social engagement, civic integration and political participation at multiple local, regional and transnational levels.
