Directory of Corporate Counsel, Spring 2024 Edition, The Kitterman Solution Dwayne Martin, 2017-03-09 Jack and Melissa are at it again A series of suspicious deaths lead to an investigation but no pattern emerges Nonetheless They search for a commonality When the violence crosses the Atlantic and comes to their doorstep Jack goes on the offensive He travels throughout the Caribbean finally and fatally meeting his adversary But exactly who is it that must die And what s this about a child prodigy Northern Ireland's '68 Simon Prince,2018-08-21 The Troubles may have developed into a sectarian conflict but the violence was sparked by a small band of leftists who wanted Derry in October 1968 to be a repeat of Paris in May 1968 Like their French comrades Northern Ireland s sixty eighters had assumed that street fighting would lead to political struggle The struggle that followed however was between communities rather than classes In the divided society of Northern Ireland the interaction of the global and the local that was the hallmark of 1968 had tragic consequences Drawing on a wealth of new sources and scholarship Simon Prince s timely new edition offers a fresh and compelling interpretation of the civil rights movement of 1968 and the origins of the Troubles The authoritative and enthralling narrative weaves together accounts of high politics and grassroots protests mass movements and individuals and international trends and historic divisions to show how events in Northern Ireland and around the world were interlinked during 1968 Hawai'i Sports Dan Cisco,1999-01-01 Traces the history of Hawaiian sports and lists local records

Downhill from Here Katherine S. Newman,2019-01-29 A sharp examination of the looming financial catastrophe of retirement in America As millions of Baby Boomers reach their golden years the state of retirement in America is little short of a disaster Nearly half the households with people aged 55 and older have no retirement savings at all The real estate crash wiped out much of the home equity that millions were counting on to support their retirement And the typical Social Security check covers less than 40% of pre retirement wages a number projected to drop to under 28% within two decades Old age poverty a problem we thought was solved by the New Deal is poised for a resurgence With dramatic statistics and vivid portraits acclaimed sociologist Katherine S Newman shows that the American retirement crisis touches us all cutting across class lines and generational divides White collar managers have seen retirement benefits vanish Teamsters have had their pensions cut in half bankrupt cities like Detroit have walked away from their commitments to municipal workers And for Generation X the prospects are even worse a fifth of them expect to never be able to retire Only the vaunted one percent can face retirement without fear Other countries are confronting similar demographic challenges yet they have not abandoned their social contract with seniors Downhill From Here makes it clear that America too can and must do better

We've Got You Covered Liran Einav, Amy Finkelstein, 2023-07-25 From a MacArthur Genius MIT economist and pre eminent Stanford economist comes a lively and provocative proposal for American health insurance reform Few of us need convincing that the American health insurance system needs reform But many of the existing proposals focus on expanding one relatively successful piece of the system or building in piecemeal additions These proposals miss the point As the Stanford health economist Liran Einav and the MIT economist and MacArthur Genius Amy Finkelstein argue our health care system was never deliberately designed but rather pieced together to deal with issues as they became politically relevant The result is a sprawling yet arbitrary and inadequate mess It has left 30 million Americans without formal insurance Many of the rest live in constant danger of losing their coverage if they lose their job give birth get older get healthier get richer or move It's time to tear it all down and rebuild sensibly and deliberately Marshaling original research striking insights from American history and comparative analysis of what works and what doesn't from systems around the world Einav and Finkelstein argue for automatic basic and free universal coverage for everyone along with the option to buy additional supplemental coverage Their wholly original argument and comprehensive blueprint for an American universal health insurance system will surprise and provoke We've Got You Covered is an erudite yet lively and accessible prescription we cannot afford to ignore
