

In 1948, when Vespa was named the "Vespa" because of its design, great care was taken to combine safety, control and maneuverability with excellent driving characteristics. By using high quality materials and best craftsmanship we have done all it was possible to give you a vehicle which we are sure will be a joy to you, but to achieve this for any length of time we need your cooperation.

We ask you, therefore, to give your utmost, to study carefully the instruction Manual and to follow its warnings. In it you will find many useful hints and if you follow them you will be saved a great deal of trouble.

Please get your special attention to the following instructions, the recommendations concerning oilchanges, battery maintenance, and the lubrication system. You should also see that the battery inspection and charge control are regularly checked and if any time require additional technical information, please contact your local HENDRICK Dealer, who will be glad to assist you.

It is our aim to make sure that your HENDRICK Vespa gives you active satisfaction.
