Angeles Times I gasped shouted and holler laughed while reading these essays from the phenomenal Elaine Castillo What powerful writing what a rigorous mind For as long as I live I want to read anything Castillo writes and you probably do too R O Kwon author of The Incendiaries How many times have we heard that reading builds empathy That we can travel through books How often have we were heard about the importance of diversifying our bookshelves Or claimed that books saved our lives These familiar words beautiful aspirational are sometimes even true But award winning novelist Elaine Castillo has more ambitious hopes for our reading culture and in this collection of linked essays she moves to wrest reading away from the cotton candy aspirations of uniting people in empathetic harmony and reposition it as thornier ultimately more rewarding work Vulture How to Read Now explores the politics and ethics of reading and insists that we are capable of something better a more engaged relationship not just with our fiction and our art but with our buried and entangled histories Smart funny galvanizing and sometimes profane Castillo attacks the stale questions and less than critical proclamations that masquerade as vital discussion reimagining the cartography of the classics building a moral case against the settler colonialism of lauded writers like Joan Didion taking aim at Nobel Prize winners and toppling indie filmmakers and celebrating glorious moments in everything from popular TV like The Watchmen to the films of Wong Kar wai and the work of contemporary poets like Tommy Pico At once a deeply personal and searching history of one woman s reading life and a wide ranging and urgent intervention into our globalized conversations about why reading matters today How to Read Now empowers us to embrace a more complicated embodied form of reading inviting us to acknowledge complicated truths ignite surprising connections imagine a more daring solidarity and create space for a riskier intimacy within ourselves and with each other

A Writer of Our Time Joshua Sperling, 2018-11-20 This engaging intellectual biography traces Berger s creative evolution analyzes highlights from his vast output and situates them within his empathetic Marxism The New Yorker The first intellectual biography of the life and work of John Berger John Berger was one of the most influential thinkers and writers of postwar Europe As a novelist he won the Booker prize in 1972 donating half his prize money to the Black Panthers As a TV presenter he changed the way we looked at art with Ways of Seeing As a storyteller and political activist he defended the rights and dignity of workers migrants and the oppressed around the world Far from dragging politics into art he wrote in 1953 art has dragged me into politics He remained a revolutionary up to his death in January 2017 Built around a series of watersheds at once personal and historical A Writer of Our Time traces Berger s development from his roots as a postwar art student and polemicist in the Cold War battles of 1950s London through the heady days of the 1960s when the revolutions were not only political but sexual and artistic to Berger s reinvention as a rural storyteller and the long hangover that followed the rise and fall of the New Left Drawing on first hand unpublished interviews and archival sources only recently made available Joshua Sperling digs beneath the moments of controversy to reveal a figure of remarkable complexity and resilience The portrait that emerges is of a cultural innovator as celebrated as he was often misunderstood and a writer

increasingly driven as much by what he loved as by what he opposed A Writer of Our Time brings the many faces of John Berger together repatriating one of our great minds to the intellectual dramas of his and our time Step Into Nature Patrice Vecchione, 2015-03-31 The natural world has inspired artists seekers and thinkers for millennia but in recent times as the pace of life has sped up its demands have moved us in doors Yet nature s capacity to lead us to important truths to invigorate and restore our imagination and equilibrium is infinite Step Into Nature is a guide to make nature personal again to stimulate awareness and increase our understanding of the environment while inspiring readers to develop and strengthen their imaginations But being in nature doesn t mean flying off to remote faraway places Nature is as close as opening your front door the sky above the miniature gardens that insist their way up between the sidewalk cracks the river just down the road Patrice Vecchione shows readers how nature can support and enhance their own creative output invigorate their curiosity and restore their sense of connection to the earth Plus included in each chapter is The Cabinet of Curiosities exercises and suggestions for practical and unexpected ways that readers can stimulate their imaginations deepen their relationships with nature and experience the harmony between creativity and the natural world Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice _ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice _ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science Virtue, Emotion and Imagination in Law and Legal Reasoning Amalia Amaya, Maksymilian Del Mar, 2020-02-06 What is the role and value of virtue emotion and imagination in law and legal reasoning These new essays by leading scholars of both law and philosophy offer striking and exploratory answers to this neglected question The collection takes a holistic approach inquiring as to the connections and relations between virtue emotion and imagination In addition to the principal focus on adjudication essays in the collection also engage with a variety of different legal political and moral contexts eg criminal law sentencing the Black Lives Matter movement and professional ethics A number of different areas of the law are addressed eg criminal law constitutional law and tort law and the issues explored include the benefits and limits of empathy in legal reasoning the role of attention and perception in judicial reasoning the identification of judicial virtues such as compassion and humility and judicial vices such as callousness and partiality the values and dangers of certain imaginative devices eg personification and the interactive and social dimensions of virtue emotion and imagination Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 , 2008-02 Fruit Grower , 1910 Boundless - My long path to inner peace: An extraordinary life story Frank Zunk , In his autobiography author Frank Zunk describes his extraordinary life Frank was the Heino in his youth Parties alcohol crashes criminal offences hatred and violence were his way of life He had his first car accident at the age of 18 It was the 2nd serious accident that changed everything Frank was seriously injured for the second time Now began his long journey to becoming a peace activist At first he had a normal life Then he got into politics Became a UBI activist Anti nuclear activist Learned non violent communication In 2016 Frank survived his first intestinal obstruction In 2018 he had his 2nd heavy intestinal obstruction Frank was hospitalised for a long time with an open stomach He was artificially fed for months In this time he wrote a large part of his autobiography And he had the dream of cycling to Hiroshima For peace and international understanding This book ends with the start of his bicycle journey to Hiroshima     Motorcycle Illustrated ,1911     Ruin Memories Bjørnar Olsen, Þóra Pétursdóttir, 2014-04-24 Since the nineteenth century mass production consumerism and cycles of material replacement have accelerated increasingly larger amounts of things are increasingly victimized rapidly and made redundant At the same time processes of destruction have immensely intensified although largely overlooked when compared to the research and social significance devoted to consumption and production The outcome is a ruin landscape of derelict factories closed shopping malls overgrown bunkers and redundant mining towns a ghostly world of decaying modern debris normally omitted from academic concerns and conventional histories The archaeology of the recent or contemporary past has grown fast during the last decade This development has been concurrent with a broader popular artistic and scholarly interest in modern ruins in general Ruin Memories explores how the ruins of modernity are conceived and assigned cultural value in contemporary academic and public discourses reassesses the cultural and historical value of modern ruins and suggests possible means for reaffirming their cultural and historic significance Crucial for this reassessment is a concern with decay and ruination and with the role things play in expressing the neglected unsuccessful and ineffable Abandonment and ruination is usually understood negatively through the tropes of loss and deprivation things are degraded and humiliated while the information knowledge and memory embedded in them become lost along the way Without even ignoring its many negative and traumatizing aspects a main question addressed in this book is whether ruination also can be seen as an act of disclosure If ruination disturbs the routinized and ready to hand to what extent can it also be seen as a recovery of memory as exposing meanings and presences that perhaps are only possible to grasp at second hand when no longer immersed in their withdrawn and useful reality Anybody interested in the archaeology of the contemporary past will find Ruin Memories an essential guide to the very latest theoretical research in this emerging field of archaeological thought     A Sea of Stories Sonya L. Jones, John P. De Cecco, 2000 A Sea of Stories is a collection of personal narratives that explores homosexuality in U S history and how this shaped literature Some of the story topics you will explore include sex and sin in the South selling gay literature before Stonewall stories of queer youth growing up gay in India two grooms and much more     Mystical Paths Susan Howatch, 2010-12-08 No writing today can equal Susan Howatch's ability to write compelling novels that combine theology and psychology in a complex fast moving plot offering beautifully delineated characters and the suspense of a mystery thriller

The denouement will leave readers breathless Publishers Weekly Nicholas Darrow is a strong willed and independent minded man full of the energy and assurance of his age and his moment in time he is twenty five in 1968 A magnet for attention and attraction Nicholas is already beset by a troubled past and expert at ignoring the grip it has on his life But as he follows his father into the Anglican priesthood his fascination with his own psychic powers results near tragedy It will only be by facing the truth about his relationship with his father that Nicholas can find his way out of the seemingly impenetrable darkness that engulfs him Told with all the drama intelligence and emotional depth we have come to expect from Susan Howatch Mystical Paths is a breathtaking novel about the powerful often painful but finally indestructible ties between parent and child And like its four highly praised predecessors in the Church of England series it is a novel that celebrates the redeeming power of self knowledge and faith Intelligent compelling and fascinating The Cleveland Plain Dealer     The Ancient Stone Crosses of Dartmoor and Its Borderland William Crossing,1902     Proximity to History Walt Smith,2023-01-11 Growing up in the hills of East Tennessee only wearing shoes during the school year Doug Smith was a child of the Depression who joined the US Navy during the World War II Though he had never before seen an ocean he became the skipper of a patrol torpedo PT 138 boat in the South Pacific Seeking and sinking enemy cargo ships and severing Japanese supply lines Ensign Smith had a front row seat to the first use of kamikaze aircraft and the last clash of battleships in history Twice held back in elementary school he worked in punishing Ohio steel mills for college tuition Ultimately earning his doctorate in psychology from the University of Michigan he went on to teach at two universities and to become the founding president of Francis Marion University Doug Smith personified the best qualities of his generation personal responsibility faithful commitment a strong work ethic and prudent saving The story of Walter Douglas Smith is the intersection of a colorful life journey and the history he passed through from 1918 to 2018     Caravans Hege Høyer Leivestad,2020-05-19 In Caravans Hege Høyer Leivestad opens the caravan door to understand how daily life is organised among Britons and Swedes who have relocated either seasonally or permanently to mobile homes Leivestad investigates how the caravan and campsite come to fit and challenge conventional domestic ideals and how the static mobile caravan can nurture ideas of freedom even when it is standing still With sensitivity and an awareness of the humour and pathos of the lives of her subjects Leivestad closely examines the shaping of the European camping phenomenon and its day to day pleasures and pains ranging from friendships ties to conflictive bingo nights from nosy and noisy neighbours to fake fireplaces and rotten awning floors As the first ethnographic study of caravan life in Europe Caravans offers a refreshing take on contemporary mobility debates showing how movement can best be understood by taking a detailed look at certain specific mundanities in material culture This rich and topical ethnography is a must read for students of anthropology human geography and architecture and for those with an interest in the possibilities and perils of a life on wheels     Elsewhere Gyrdir Eliasson,Frode Grytten,Micheal O Conghaile,Danielle Picard,Mehmet Zaman Saclioglu ,Ingo Schulze,Roman Simic,Jean Sprackland,Olga Tokarczuk,Mirja

Unge,2013-12-03 What do we mean by small town How has this innocuous term one up from village a couple down from city come to function as a pejorative Pressed to describe what the phrase small town conjures up we d be hard pushed to say anything positive closed minded petty provincial parochial On a broad European canvas however the rich traditions of short story writing challenge these preconceptions The stories collected here are neither narrow minded nor petty nor do the minds of their protagonists contract to fit their environment In Germany a house husband is slowly sent over the edge by his over achieving neighbours In the town of Odda in Norway a middle aged Morrissey fan has a matter of hours to find a girlfriend so his ailing mother can die in peace It s the small gestures a white lie the turning of a blind eye a small kindness or a secret kept that allow the characters of these communities to survive to breathe easily within the seemingly tight strictures life there can impose It s how we do things round here      Beloit College Monthly ,1868
