and violence were his way of life He had his first car accident at the age of 18 It was the 2nd serious accident that changed everything Frank was seriously injured for the second time Now began his long journey to becoming a peace activist At first he had a normal life Then he got into politics Became a UBI activist Anti nuclear activist Learned non violent communication In 2016 Frank survived his first intestinal obstruction In 2018 he had his 2nd heavy intestinal obstruction Frank was hospitalised for a long time with an open stomach He was artificially fed for months In this time he wrote a large part of his autobiography And he had the dream of cycling to Hiroshima For peace and international understanding This book ends with the start of his bicycle journey to Hiroshima Motorcycle Illustrated ,1911 Ruin Memories Bjørnar Olsen, Þóra Pétursdóttir, 2014-04-24 Since the nineteenth century mass production consumerism and cycles of material replacement have accelerated increasingly larger amounts of things are increasingly victimized rapidly and made redundant At the same time processes of destruction have immensely intensified although largely overlooked when compared to the research and social significance devoted to consumption and production The outcome is a ruin landscape of derelict factories closed shopping malls overgrown bunkers and redundant mining towns a ghostly world of decaying modern debris normally omitted from academic concerns and conventional histories The archaeology of the recent or contemporary past has grown fast during the last decade This development has been concurrent with a broader popular artistic and scholarly interest in modern ruins in general Ruin Memories explores how the ruins of modernity are conceived and assigned cultural value in contemporary academic and public discourses reassesses the cultural and historical value of modern ruins and suggests possible means for reaffirming their cultural and historic significance Crucial for this reassessment is a concern with decay and ruination and with the role things play in expressing the neglected unsuccessful and ineffable Abandonment and ruination is usually understood negatively through the tropes of loss and deprivation things are degraded and humiliated while the information knowledge and memory embedded in them become lost along the way Without even ignoring its many negative and traumatizing aspects a main question addressed in this book is whether ruination also can be seen as an act of disclosure If ruination disturbs the routinized and ready to hand to what extent can it also be seen as a recovery of memory as exposing meanings and presences that perhaps are only possible to grasp at second hand when no longer immersed in their withdrawn and useful reality Anybody interested in the archaeology of the contemporary past will find Ruin Memories an essential guide to the very latest theoretical research in this emerging field of archaeological thought A Sea of Stories Sonya L. Jones, John P. De Cecco, 2000 A Sea of Stories is a collection of personal narratives that explores homosexuality in U S history and how this shaped literature Some of the story topics you will explore include sex and sin in the South selling gay literature before Stonewall stories of queer youth growing up gay in India two grooms and much more Mystical Paths Susan Howatch, 2010-12-08 No writing today can equal Susan Howatch's ability to write compelling novels that combine theology and psychology in a complex fast moving plot offering beautifully delineated characters and the suspense of a mystery thriller

Unge,2013-12-03 What do we mean by small town How has this innocuous term one up from village a couple down from city come to function as a pejorative Pressed to describe what the phrase small town conjures up we d be hard pushed to say anything positive closed minded petty provincial parochial On a broad European canvas however the rich traditions of short story writing challenge these preconceptions The stories collected here are neither narrow minded nor petty nor do the minds of their protagonists contract to fit their environment In Germany a house husband is slowly sent over the edge by his over achieving neighbours In the town of Odda in Norway a middle aged Morrissey fan has a matter of hours to find a girlfriend so his ailing mother can die in peace It s the small gestures a white lie the turning of a blind eye a small kindness or a secret kept that allow the characters of these communities to survive to breathe easily within the seemingly tight strictures life there can impose It s how we do things round here Beloit College Monthly ,1868
