Resources in Education ,2000-10 Hypatia's Heritage Margaret Alic,1986-11-15 A history of women in science from antiquity through the nineteenth century The Nativist Prophets of Early Islamic Iran Patricia Crone,2012-06-28 Patricia Crone s book is about the Iranian response to the Muslim penetration of the Iranian countryside the revolts subsequently triggered there and the religious communities that these revolts revealed The book also describes a complex of religious ideas that however varied in space and unstable over time has demonstrated a remarkable persistence in Iran across a period of two millennia The central thesis is that this complex of ideas has been endemic to the mountain population of Iran and occasionally become epidemic with major consequences for the country most strikingly in the revolts examined here and in the rise of the Safavids who imposed Shi ism on Iran This learned and engaging book by one of the most influential scholars of early Islamic history casts entirely new light on the nature of religion in pre Islamic Iran and on the persistence of Iranian religious beliefs both outside and inside Islam after the Arab conquest Living Heritage in a Changing World Xuanlin Liu,2025-09-19 The book explores living heritage through nomadic heritage in Inner Mongolia China Using a critical heritage approach it examines how heritage is understood and enacted within changing communities and shifting lifestyles revealing the dynamic nature of nomadic cultural heritage The book critically re examines nomadic heritage capturing socio cultural transformations and engaging in an ontological inquiry into living heritage By bridging theory and practice as well as tangible and intangible heritage it redefines heritage s intrinsic logic in a changing world Focusing on the ger a dwelling central to Mongolian nomadic life it analyses the continuity and transformation of ger practices Using ethnographic research it highlights the human material environment dynamic and the agency of multiple stakeholders in shaping heritage This work is a key contribution to living heritage and nomadic heritage studies offering valuable insights for scholars professionals and those interested in nomadic culture Ethnomethodology, Conversation Analysis and Constructive Analysis Graham Button,Michael Lynch,Wes Sharrock,2022-09-23 This book revisits the arguments by which Harvey Sacks and Harold

Garfinkel opposed the widespread attempt in the social sciences to construct disciplinary theories and methods in place of common sense knowledge of human action and proposed instead an alternative that would investigate the organised methods of natural language use and common sense reasoning that constitute social orders arguments that led to the establishment and proliferation of ethnomethodology and conversation analysis As the very constructive analysis that they opposed has begun to be incorporated into influential lines of research in ethnomethodology and conversation analysis the authors return to the founding insights of the field and reiterate the importance of Garfinkel and Sacks original and controversial proposals for an alternate sociology of practical action and practical reasoning Showing how constructive analysis has become entrenched in ethnomethodology and conversation analysis and arguing for a need to re boot these approaches this volume constitutes a call for a renewal of the radical alternative proposed by Garfinkel and Sacks Claiming Back Their
