Lone Pine Five Illustrated By Bertram Prance:

Lone Pine Five ... Illustrated by Bertram Prance Malcolm SAVILLE,1949 Children's Fiction 1900-1950 John Cooper,2019-07-23 First published in 1998 this volume explores how the genre of school stories had become firmly established by the turn of the twentieth century having been built on the foundations laid by writers such as Thomas Hughes and F W Farrar Stories for girls were also taking on a more exciting complexion inspired by the Katy books of Susan Coolidge The first five decades of the twentieth century saw further developments in children s fiction In this comprehensive volume John and Jonathan Cooper examine each decade in turn with alphabetically arranged entries on popular children s writers that published works in English during that period 206 different authors are covered many from the United States and Canada Each entry provides information on the author s pseudonyms date of birth nationality titles of works place and date of publication and the publisher s name The artist responsible for a book s illustrations is also identified where possible With over 200 illustrations of cover designs and dustwrappers many of which are now rare and have never before been published this book will delight collectors dealers scholars librarians parents and all those who simply enjoy reading children s fiction

The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library,Judi Vernau,1985 British Children's Writers, 1914-1960 Donald R. Hettinga,Gary D. Schmidt,1996 Essays on authors and poets in this volume represent some of the best known writers of children s literature in the twentieth century This period is marked by certain characteristics such as stories of groups of children bonded together the emergence of strong female protagonists the career books and a consciously subdued presence of pain and suffering Many of these works are valued for the window they provided upon a culture now gone Literature's Children Louise Joy,2019-02-21 Literature s Children offers a new way of thinking about how literature for children functions didactically It analyzes the nature of the practical critical activity which the child reader carries out emphasizing what the child does to the text rather than what he or she receives from it Through close readings of a range of works for children which have shaped our understanding of what children s literature entails including works by Isaac Watts John Newbery Kate Greenaway E Nesbit Kenneth Grahame J R R Tolkien and Malcolm Saville it demonstrates how the critical child resists the processes of idealization in operation in and through such texts Bringing into dialogue ideas from literary theory and the philosophy of education drawing in particular on the work of the philosopher John Dewey it provides a compelling new account of the complex relations between literary aesthetics and literary didacticism General catalogue of printed books British museum. Dept. of printed books,1931 Books of the Month ,1954 Reading Series Fiction Victor Watson,2013-04-15 This book investigates the series in children s literature The works of several well known children s authors UK and the US traditional and contemporary are analyzed and using these examples the book explores the special nature and appeal of series writing for children As well as providing an historical overview of the series the author raises important questions about the nature of literary criticism applied to children s literature Catalogue of
