SA Mining ,2006-05      Marikana Peter Alexander,Thapelo Lekgowa,Botsang Mmope,Luke Sinwell,Bongani Xezwi,2013-08-01 The Marikana Massacre of August 16 2012 was the single most lethal use of force by South African security forces against civilians since the end of apartheid Those killed were mineworkers in support of a pay raise Through a series of interviews conducted with workers who survived the attack this account documents and examines the controversial shootings in great detail beginning with a valuable history of the events leading up to the killing of workers and including eyewitness accounts of the violence and interviews with family members of those who perished While the official Farlam Commission investigation of the massacre is still ongoing many South Africans do not hold much confidence in the government's ability to examine its own complicity in these events Marikana on the other hand examines the various roles played by the African National Congress the mine company and the National Union of Mineworkers in creating the conditions that led to the massacre While the commission's investigations take place in a courtroom setting tilted toward those in power Marikana documents testimony from the mineworkers in the days before official statements were even gathered offering an unusually immediate and unfiltered look at the reality from the perspective of those most directly affected Enhanced by vivid maps that make clear the setting and situation of the events Marikana is an invaluable work of history journalism sociology and activism      The Chemical Engineer ,2008      Ownership and Governance of Companies Jonathan Michie,Vishnu Padayachee,2021-06-29 Apartheid South Africa was often thought to run in the interests of the business elite Yet 27 years after apartheid those business interests remain largely entrenched Why Did the South African business community play a role in engineering this outcome perhaps recognising the apartheid era was over and jumping ship in time Conversely the mission of the ANC was widely perceived to be to shift wealth and power into the hands of the whole community Yet despite black empowerment measures corporate ownership remains largely in white hands and certainly in the hands of an elite few even though no longer restricted to whites This picture is replicated across the global south where corporate ownership tends to be concentrated in the hands of an elite rather than being more democratically spread Why have alternative corporate forms not been pursued more vigorously with ownership in the hands of customers employees and local communities In the case of South Africa where the majority of customers and employees are black this could have delivered on the ANC's mission to replace the apartheid era with a democratic one in terms of wealth incomes and power as well as in terms of voting and civic rights This edited volume explores all these questions and looks at ways to align corporate forms with economic and social goals The chapters in this book were originally published as special issues of International Review of Applied Economics      Babel Unbound Lesley Cowling,Carolyn Hamilton,2020-05-15 In this timely original and sophisticated collection writers from the Global South demonstrate that forms of publicness are multiple mobile and varied The notion that societies mediate issues through certain kinds of engagement is at the heart of imaginings of democracy and often centers on the ideal of the public sphere But this imagined foundation of how we live collectively appears to have suffered a dramatic collapse across the world with many democracies apparently unable to solve problems through talk or even to agree on who speaks in what ways and where In the 10 essays in this timely original and sophisticated collection writers from southern Africa combine theoretical analysis with the examination of historical cases and contemporary developments to demonstrate that forms of publicness are multiple mobile and varied They propose new concepts and methodologies to analyse how public engagements work in society Babel Unbound examines charged examples from the Global South such as the centuries old Timbuktu archive Nelson Mandela as a powerful absent presence in 1960s public life and the challenges to the terms of contemporary debate around the student activism of rhodesmustfall and feesmustfall These show how issues of public discussion span both archive and media verbal debates in formal spaces and visual performances that circulate in unpredictable ways

Unsettling Apologies Melanie Judge, Dee Smythe, 2022-09-29 There has recently been a global resurgence of demands for the acknowledgement of historical and contemporary wrongs as well as for apologies and reparation for harms suffered Drawing on the histories of injustice dispossession and violence in South Africa this book examines the cultural political and legal role and value of an apology It explores the multiple ways in which sorry is instituted articulated and performed and critically analyses its various forms and functions in both historical and contemporary moments Bringing together an interdisciplinary team of contributors the book's analysis offers insights that will be invaluable to global debates on the struggle for justice

The Spirit of Marikana Luke Sinwell, Siphiwe Mbatha, 2016-07-20 On 16th August 2012 thirty four black mineworkers were gunned down by the police under the auspices of South Africa's African National Congress ANC in what has become known as the Marikana massacre This attempt to drown independent working class power in blood backfired and is now recognised as a turning point in the country's history The Spirit of Marikana tells the story of the uncelebrated leaders at the world's three largest platinum mining companies who survived the barrage of state violence intimidation torture and murder which was being perpetrated during this tumultuous period What began as a discussion about wage increases between two workers in the changing rooms at one mine became a rallying cry for economic freedom and basic dignity This gripping ethnographic account is the first comprehensive study of this movement revealing how seemingly ordinary people became heroic figures who transformed their workplace and their country

Organise or Die? Raphaël Botiveau, 2017-12-01 The story of one of the leading trade unions in South Africa the National Union of Mineworkers and its role in the struggle against white minority rule Organise or Die Democracy and Leadership in South Africa's National Union of Mineworkers NUM is the first in depth study of one of the leading trade unions in the country Founded in 1982 the trade union played a key role in the struggle against white minority rule before turning into a central protagonist of the ruling Tripartite Alliance after apartheid Deftly navigating through workerist social movement and political terrains that shape the South African labour landscape this book sheds light on the path that led to the unprecedented 2012 Marikana massacre the dissolution of the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu federation and to fractures within the African National Congress ANC itself Working with the notions of organisational agency and strategic bureaucratisation Rapha l Botiveau shows how the founding leadership of NUM built their union s structures with a view to mirror those of the multinational mining companies NUM faced Good leadership proved key to the union s success in recruiting and uniting mineworkers and NUM became an impressive school for union and political cadres producing a number of South Africa s top post apartheid leaders An incisive analysis of leadership styles and strategies shows how the fragile balance between an increasingly distant leadership and an increasingly militant membership gradually broke down Botiveau provides a compelling narrative of NUM s powerful history and the legacy of its leadership It will appeal to a broad readership including journalists students and social sciences scholars interested in South Africa s contemporary politics and labour history International Smelting Technology Symposium Jerome P. Downey, Thomas P. Battle, Jesse F.

White, 2012-05-09 Proceedings of a symposium sponsored by The Metallurgy and Materials Society of CIM and the Pyrometallurgy Committee of the Extraction and Processing Division of TMS The Minerals Metals Materials Society Held during the TMS 2012 Annual Meeting Exhibition Orlando Florida USA March 11 15 2012 Freedom Is Power Lawrence Hamilton, 2014-07-31 Using the history of political thought and real world political contexts including South Africa and the recent global financial crisis this book argues that power is integral to freedom It demonstrates how freedom depends upon power and contends that liberty for all citizens is best maintained if conceived as power through political representation Against those who de politicise freedom through a romantic conception of the people and faith in supposedly independent judicial and political institutions Lawrence Hamilton argues that real modern freedom can only be achieved through representative and participative mechanisms that limit domination and empower classes and groups who become disempowered in the conflicts that inevitably pervade politics This is a sophisticated contribution to contemporary political theory that will be of interest to scholars and students of history politics philosophy economics sociology development studies and Southern African studies Workers' Inquiry and Global Class Struggle Robert Ovetz, 2020-10-20 Rumours of the death of the global labour movement have been greatly exaggerated Rising from the ashes of the old trade union movement workers struggle is being reborn from below By engaging in what Karl Marx called a workers inquiry workers and militant co researchers are studying their working conditions the technical composition of capital and how to recompose their own power in order to devise new tactics strategies organisational forms and objectives These workers inquiries from call centre workers to teachers and adjunct professors are re energising unions bypassing unions altogether or innovating new forms of workers organisations In one of the first major studies to critically assess this new cycle of global working class struggle Robert Ovetz collects together case studies from over a dozen contributors looking at workers movements in China Mexico the US South Africa Turkey Argentina Italy India and the UK The book reveals how these new forms of struggle are no longer limited to single sectors of the economy or contained by state borders but are circulating internationally and disrupting the global capitalist system as they do      South African Transitions Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-01-08 This book addresses the multiple repercussions of South Africa's democratic transition beginning in 1994 by examining a number of themes with local national regional and global relevance the politics of nation building public memory residential segregation higher education media racism trade unionism women's rights and global climate change to name only a few Drawing from the rich archive of previously published articles from the journal Safundi South African Transitions documents both the country's and the journal's mutual history over the past quarter century Divided into five sections the first part of the book explores the broad theme of South Africa's transition to non racial democracy by foregrounding issues of nationalism diplomacy rural change social trauma historical commemoration and political feeling at local national and international levels The second section focuses on the question of civil society including essays on media racism histories of segregation legacies of criminal violence and comparative patterns of incarceration underscoring the endurance of certain long term problems and the emergence of new ones Part three surveys the role of education in transforming South Africa while part four situates South Africa's opportunities and challenges within regional and global contexts to better understand the South African situation and its relationship to conditions around the world The penultimate section has contributions that confront the present by identifying the struggles and crises of South Africa's current political moment including labor movements the matter of land restitution feminist activism LGBTQI rights and the Marikana Massacre of 2012 The book ends with an essay on the fire at Jagger Library at the University of Cape Town by historian Bill Nasson a moment of contingent destruction that speaks of the Covid 19 pandemic and the burgeoning climate crisis at present Traversing across time and place South African Transitions will be an indispensable resource for scholars researchers activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa's social political and intellectual transformations over the past several decades      Noble and Precious Metals Mohindar Seehra, Alan Bristow, 2018-07-04 The use of copper silver gold and platinum in jewelry as a measure of wealth is well known This book contains 19 chapters written by international authors on other uses and applications of noble and precious metals copper silver gold platinum palladium iridium osmium rhodium ruthenium and rhenium The topics covered include surface enhanced Raman scattering quantum dots synthesis and properties of nanostructures and its applications in the diverse fields such as high tech engineering nanotechnology catalysis and biomedical applications The basis for these applications is their high free electron concentrations combined with high temperature stability and corrosion resistance and methods developed for synthesizing nanostructures Recent developments in all these areas with up to date references are emphasized      Daily Graphic Elvis Aryeh, 2000-02-14      Afterimages of Apartheid Kylie Thomas, 2025-10-29 Afterimages of Apartheid shows how photographs of the past can be mobilised as a critical tool for understanding the ongoing effects of apartheid in contemporary South Africa Through close readings of significant images made during and after apartheid the book shows how photography works as a means of documentation commemoration and resistance Written by one of South Africa s leading scholars of visual history the book considers the ways in which photographs can be used to contest impunity for state violence Afterimages includes chapters on the Sharpeville and Marikana massacres on the re opening of cases of human rights violations that remain unresolved in the aftermath of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and on contemporary protests against the post apartheid state The book makes a powerful case for the role of photographs in drawing the viewer into the past time they represent issuing a call to the living to remember respond and react This vivid account of the photography of apartheid will be of interest to students and researchers across the fields of South African history visual studies memory studies art history photography studies and transitional justice

State, Capitalism, and Finance in Emerging Markets Johannes Petry, Andreas Nölke, 2025-06-24 What role do emerging markets play in the global financial system Are they subordinated within global financial hierarchies Or do they have autonomy even power to use finance to pursue state objectives In this edited volume leading scholars explore these questions focusing on state finance interactions globally The book combines literatures on international financial subordination financial statecraft and comparative capitalism to analyse state finance relationships in emerging markets particularly the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa It reveals that these states can control their domestic financial sectors despite global subordination though their ability to do so varies significantly This essential volume offers profound insights into how emerging markets are reshaping global finance for scholars and policy makers

Narratives of Inequality Melissa Kennedy, 2017-11-08 This book reveals the economic motivations underpinning colonial neocolonial and neoliberal eras of global capitalism that are represented in critiques of inequality in postcolonial fiction Today s economic inequality suffered disproportionately by indigenous and minority groups of postcolonial societies in both developed and developing countries is a direct outcome of the colonial era imposition of capitalist structures and practices The longue dur e world systems approach in this study reveals repeating patterns and trends in the mechanics of capitalism that create and maintain inequality As well as this it reveals the social and cultural beliefs and practices that justify and support inequality yet equally which resist and condemn it Through analysis of narrative representations of wealth accumulation and ownership structures of internal inequality between the rich and the poor within cultural communities and the psychology of capitalism that engenders particular emotions and behaviour this study brings postcolonial literary economics to the neoliberal debate arguing for the important contribution of the imaginary to the pressing issue of economic inequality and its solutions

New Forms of Worker Organization Immanuel Ness, 2014-07-01 Bureaucratic labor unions are under assault Most unions have surrendered the achievements of the mid twentieth century when the working class was a militant force for change throughout the world Now trade unions seem incapable of defending let alone advancing workers interests As unions implode and weaken workers are independently forming their own unions drawing on the tradition of syndicalism and autonomism a resurgence of self directed action that augurs a new period of class struggle throughout the world In Africa Asia the Americas and Europe workers are rejecting leaders and forming authentic class struggle unions rooted in sabotage direct action and striking to achieve concrete gains This is the first book to compile workers struggles on a global basis examining the formation and expansion of radical unions in the Global South and Global North The tangible evidence marshaled in this book serves as a handbook for understanding the formidable obstacles and concrete opportunities for workers challenging neoliberal capitalism even as the unions of the old decline and disappear Contributors include Au Loong Yu Bai Ruixue Shawn Hattingh Piotr Bizyukov Irina Olimpieva Genese M Sodikoff Aviva Chomsky Dario Bursztyn Gabriel Kuhn Erik Forman Steven Manicasteri Arup Kumar Sen Verity Burgmann Ray Jureidini Meredith Burgmann and Jack Kirkpatrick
