MEDIA RELEASE

Prepared by: Officer Jamie Williamson		Date Prepared: June 27, 2013
Type of Incident: Criminal Possession of Stolen Property Arrest and Parole Violation
Date and Time of Incident: June 14, 2013 2:30 pm
Location of Incident: West State Street
Defendants(s): Jeremy Leitch	Age: 31	Address: City of Ithaca

On June 8, 2013 Wegmans Food Store officials filed a police report alleging Jeremy Leitch with shoplifting property from Wegmans. On June 14, 2013 an Ithaca Police Department Criminal Investigator observed Leitch walking in the 400 block of West State Street. The investigator was aware of the pending larceny charge and stopped Leitch to effect an arrest. During a search incident to arrest Leitch was found to be in possession of a small amount of heroine and a small amount of marijuana. Leitch was also found to be in possession of several computers and electronic items. Leitch was secured in police custody and transported to police headquarters for booking.

An investigation into the computers and electronic items revealed that they were stolen during recent burglaries in the Ithaca area. Police were able to match the stolen property that Leitch was in possession of by the serial numbers on each item. Leitch was charged with:

Petit Larceny, Class A Misdemeanor
Criminal Possession of Stolen Property in the Fifth Degree, Class A Misdemeanor (2 counts)
Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Seventh Degree, Class A Misdemeanor
Unlawful Possession of Marijuana, Violation

Leitch had been released from Prison and was out on Parole. His Parole Officer was contacted and his Parole was violated. Leitch was arraigned in Ithaca City Court and released to the New York State Parole System for Parole Violation proceedings. Police investigators credited the work of the property owners in recording the serial numbers and keeping the receipts for each item, which aided them in matching them to the property Leitch was found to be in possession of when he was stopped.

The Phonetic Guide to French Matthew Lawry,2011-04-05 This book is about learning the phrases and sentences and getting to grips with saying the language without going into the grammar first In that way you can have fun in learning how to say certain things and also you do not come up against stumbling blocks and frustrations The idea behind this thinking was because when I was a child my parents used to tell me words before they taught me how to do the alphabet so I thought that was a better way round get used to the language first I wrote this book to how I thought the student of the language could assimilate and understand it and get a basic grounding of the language I thought to myself what was the best thing to learn first for instance what the difference between masculine and feminine what does the accent mean so I put this information in the chapter header pages so then I could use more space to actually learning the language I have also put in a conceptual stage so then you can think about the language for instance English has quite a few routes to it like Latin so quite a few words are very similar even though the accent can throw us off It sounds like proper English for instance catgorie which means category in French which is nearly the same in English I believe there is no right or wrong way to learn it depends on what you want it for you may want to practise it on holiday or you may want to read the French newspapers so sometimes you do not necessarily have to learn the alphabet or the grammar I like to read newspapers on holiday and watch films in French that is why I wanted to learn it I hope you enjoy this book as much as I have in writing it

Richard V. Ericson,University of Toronto. Centre of Criminology,1982-01-01 Professor Ericson and his colleagues followed the work of patrol officers in a large Canadian regional police force From their direct observations comes a wealth of information quantitatively assembled and qualitatively discussed with insights into the nature of policing This book reveals that the police are not mere referees of our legal lives blowing the whistle on our infractions They are censors of certain types of possibly wrong actions They are selective in their invocation of criminal law and use the law artfully to restore settings to orderliness Ericson emphasizes the routine manner in which the patrol officer intervenes and gains compliance from the citizenry He demonstrates that when the criminal process is invoked the police maintain fundamental control over the court outcome Using these findings he addresses basic questions about the role of police in relation to crime and how it is produced literally by the patrol officer Crime is also seen as the primary basis of police legitimacy which in turn enables the police to engage in broad surveillance and information gathering The author s conclusions about the nature of policing and his discussion of the implications of proposals for reform of police will generate better informed deliberation in political and public decision making and in the general study of sociological theory
