Geography Sci Bono Study Guide:

Study Skills for Geography, Earth and Environmental Science Students Pauline E Kneale, 2013-08-15 There are moments in everyone's degree when you are expected to do something unfamiliar and daunting present a seminar go on a fieldtrip create a wiki page lead a lab team and how to do it or what to expect is unclear Studying at university requires a different approach from studying at school and this book explains this transition Packed with practical hints study tips short cuts real life examples and careers advice this book will prove invaluable throughout your geography earth science or environmental science degree Designed for all geography earth science and environmental science students this book provides guidance on time management and effective research constructing essays and creating arguments giving presentations confidently undertaking fieldwork and laboratory work avoiding plagiarism and citing references correctly using e technologies such as blogs and your university's VLE online assessment and peer feedback This guide also explains the role of the academic and how it differs from that of a school teacher and prepares you for the world of work by showing how the skills you learn at university today can be used in your career choice of tomorrow

Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Felix Maringe, Martin Prew, 2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education

Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years

The Making of Geography as a Secondary School Subject John Mortimer, Tom O'Donoghue, 2021-06-02 No work has ever been produced previously that shows how historically geography has been constructed as a subject for the senior years of secondary schooling in Western Australia from 1917 to 1997 In doing so this book contributes to the existing corpus of international research on the history of curriculum and particularly the history of geography as a senior secondary school subject Much of it is based on primary sources including the textbooks and atlases used along with syllabus manuals and geography examination papers It also provides a framework for investigating the construction of senior secondary school geography curricula in other constituencies and could act as a model for engaging in further research in curriculum history for other school subjects state wide nationally and internationally The book also makes an important contribution to the fields of curriculum design curriculum development and curriculum innovation It will be of great interest to historians of education comparative educationists education leaders policy makers and librarians

History, Geography and Civics John Buchanan, 2013-09-09 History Geography and Civics provides an in depth and engaging introduction to teaching and learning socio environmental education from F 6 in Australia and New Zealand It explores the centrality of socio environmental issues to all aspects of life and education and makes explicit links between pedagogical theories and classroom activities Part I introduces readers to teaching and learning history geography and environmental studies and civics and citizenship as well as issues in intercultural and global education Part II explores the use of media and sources values and attitudes assessment and creative teaching Each chapter provides links to the Australian Curriculum including cross curriculum priorities sustainability Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander education and Asia and Australia s engagement with Asia History Geography and Civics encourages the reader to consider their own beliefs values and attitudes in relation to their teaching and includes provocations and reflective questions to foster discussion and engagement
