Geography Midyear Examination Paper 1 Memorandum 2013:

Tigray: The Panarchy of War Mirjam Van Reisen, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2024-11-17 The Tigray War 2020-2022 left a deep and lasting impact not only on Tigray but also on the wider Horn of Africa. In this second book in a three-part series, the authors examine the devastation wrought by the war on Tigray's cultural heritage and identity. The deliberate destruction of ancient cultural sites and the assault on the Tigrayan people's identity have fueled a desire for greater autonomy among the people of Tigray to protect their future. Through the lens of Panarchy, this book explores how the war's effects extend far beyond Tigray, reshaping the dynamics of the entire region. Crucially, it uncovers Eritrea's secret role in the conflict, which was deliberately concealed by Ethiopia. Eritrean forces were implicated not only in atrocities but also in the use of particularly cruel and inhumane sexual violence intended to break the spirit of the Tigrayan people and erase Tigray as an ethnic and cultural group. This ethnographic research, conducted in collaboration with universities inside and outside Ethiopia, reveals the profound transformations caused by the war with consequences that will reverberate for years to come. It sheds light on the war's long-term impact and highlights the urgent need for international attention on the challenges faced by Tigray and the wider region.

The Northeast Question Pradip Phanjoubam, 2015-12-14 This book explores the idea, psychology, and political geography of Northeast India as forged by two interrelated but autonomous meta-narratives. First, the politics of conflict inherent in and therefore predetermined by physical geography; and second, the larger geopolitics that was unfolding during the colonial period. Unravelling the history behind the turmoil engulfing Northeast India, the study contends that certain geographies, most pertinently fertile river valleys and surrounding mountains which feed the rivers, are integral to nature and any effort to disrupt this cohesion will result in conflict. It comprehensively traces the geopolitics of the region since the colonial era, in particular the Great Game, the politics that went into the making of the McMahon Line, the Radcliffe Line, and the Pemberton Line, the region's relations with its international neighbours: China, Bhutan, Myanmar, Bangladesh, and Nepal, as well as the issue of many formerly non-state bearing populations awakening to the reality of the modern state. Lucid and analytical, this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Northeast India, modern Indian history, international relations, defence and strategic studies, and political science.

Land Fictions D. Asher Ghertner, Robert W. Lake, 2021-03-15 Land Fictions explores the common storylines, narratives, and tales of social betterment that justify and enact land as commodity. It interrogates global patterns of property formation, the dispossessions, property markets, enactments, and the popular movements to halt the growing waves of evictions and land grabs. This collection brings together original research on urban, rural, and peri-urban India, rapidly urbanizing China, and Southeast Asia, resource expropriation in Africa and Latin America, and the neoliberal urban landscapes of North America and Europe. Through a variety of perspectives, Land Fictions finds resonances between local stories of land's fictional powers and global visions of landed property's imagined power to automatically create value and advance national development. Editors: D. Asher Ghertner.

Jerusalem in Memory and Eschatology Emma O'Donnell Polyakov, 2025-06-12 Investigating a range of eschatological ideologies this volume explores the connection between notions of sacred space and time in Jewish Christian and Muslim understandings of Jerusalem The recognition of Jerusalem as a holy city both unites and divides Judaism Christianity and Islam While these three religious traditions share a reverence for the same ancient city this veneration leads more often to tension and violence than to commonality and cooperation Each of these religions draws heavily from religious memory and eschatological prophecies and sees Jerusalem as a site of past and future upheaval however the distinctions in their visions imbue Jerusalem with meanings that reinforce conflicting and contested ideologies Offering multiple analyses of religious interpretations of the city and its sacred sites this volume explores these divergent visions of the remembered and anticipated Jerusalem

The Report: Trinidad & Tobago 2016 Oxford Business Group, 2016-08-07 In its March 2016 Economic Bulletin the Central Bank of T T stated that after negative growth of 1% in 2014 T T's economy contracted by a further 2.1% in 2015 as per provisional data Meanwhile government revenue fell by 6.2% in FY 2014/15 with a 35% decline in energy collections outstripping increases in non energy and capital receipts Nonetheless the recessionary environment is not without opportunity for the country's new leadership As the Government of Keith Rowley which assumed office in September 2015 works to bring government spending under control policies aimed at economic diversification could be set to gain further traction Moreover given that T T has a safety buffer in the form of strong foreign currency reserves and a sovereign wealth fund there is a relatively room to manoeuvre
