

What is Competency-Based Education (CBE)?

CBE is an educational approach that shifts the balance between time and learning.

CBE moves away from every student being required to stay in class for a semester, regardless of how quickly they learn, to having students demonstrate learning at their own pace, regardless of how much time it takes.

Competency-Based Education & Personalized Learning

AP Pilot Launched

The first of many competency-based programs was launched by the University of Wisconsin at Stevens Point, a public university in Wisconsin.

AP Credits Advance

The College Board's administration of AP courses led to the College Board's AP program.

Credit for Prior Learning

The Council for Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL) began its work in 1974, focusing on the development of credit for prior learning.

First CBE Degree

Western Governors University (WGU) was the first university to offer a competency-based degree program in 1999.

Credit for Online Courses

Strayer University began its first competency-based program in 2008, offering a degree in nursing.

CBE Program Accreditation

The Department of Education's (DOE) accreditation of competency-based programs began in 2013.
