

Guide to completing the online Tier 4 Entry Clearance application form

To access the form, see: <https://visas.immigration.service.gov.uk/apply-visa-type/tier4>

It is very important that you answer all the questions honestly and accurately according to your situation and personal circumstances.

There is some guidance within the form to help you to understand the questions.

You can select 'show and edit answers' to check back on and amend questions you have already answered.

The questions that you will see will depend on how you have answered previous questions, so you may not see all the questions listed here.

Our separate Tier 4 guide can help you to understand the visa application process, how, when and where to apply for your visa and the documents you will need to provide with your application.

1. Sponsor

Your Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies - You need a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies in order to apply for Tier 4. Copy this from your CAS statement. You should not use the same CAS number that you have used previously.

2. Passport details

Passport number - Enter the number of the passport that you intend to submit with your immigration application. This should match the passport number in your CAS statement. If it does not match, please contact cas.enquiries@homeoffice.gov.uk before proceeding with your immigration application.

Do you have another passport or travel document? If you do not have the details of a relevant previous passport, you can enter 'not known' for the passport number, and write approximate issue and expiry dates. You should then explain in the 'Additional information' section of the form that these are approximate dates and provide the reason as to why you do not have the details of your previous passport.
