y Dulcet Agustín Palau Claveras, 1981 Poems of Cupid, God of Love Thelma S. Fenster, Mary Carpenter Erler, 2023-08-21 The lightheartedness of these works both masks and enhances their engagement with provocative issues of continuing interest today conduct in society literary practice and moral praxis relations between men and women the value of received wisdom This volume offers texts of two medieval French poems by Christine de Pizan the Epistre au dieu d amours and Dit de la Rose together with the first translation of these poems into modern English The medieval English adaptation of Christine s Epistre Thomas Hoccleve s The Letter of Cupid is likewise presented here and provided with a modern English translation Finally an eighteenth century version of Hoccleve s poem George Sewell s The Proclamation of Cupid is edited here for the first time The editions of these poems by Christine last edited a century ago are based on the most recent scholarly findings The edition of Hoccleve s poem reproduces its authorial punctuation from manuscript for the first time and thus sheds light on the vexed question of fifteenth century English metrics The lively modern English translations of both can be used by students scholars and the general reader Nebraska Educational Directory Nebraska. Dept. of Public Alberto González Sánchez, 2011-04-07 This book on the role of written and iconographic communication in the Atlantic World combines a broad outlook geographically and chronologically with the precise treatment of specific evidence extracted from the sources The author argues that diatribes against chivalric fiction and the Index of Prohibited Books did not prevent proscribed literature from circulating freely on both sides of the Atlantic On the contrary he notes such prohibitions may have increased the lure of certain books A description of the process of registering and inspecting ships in Seville and upon reaching their destinations highlights opportunities for contraband smuggling fraud and the corruption of officials entrusted with regulating the trade Within the prominent spiritual genre the author documents a shift from Erasmian to Tridentine thinking The registers analyzed also suggest the growing popularity of literary works by Cervantes Mateo Alem n and Lope de Vega It opens a fascinating window onto the book trade in the Americas Different forms of participation in this culture included the use of books as fetishes and the possession of printed devotional images The analysis of books as well as printed images supports larger contentions about their role as agents of evangelization and westernization This book certainly opens up new worlds on the impact of books and images in the Atlantic World Product Engineering ,1953 Vol for 1955 includes an issue with title Product design handbook issue 1956 Product design digest issue 1957 Design digest issue The Handbook of Private Schools ,1954 Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union, and Africa Chris Saunders,Helder Adegar Fonseca,Lena Dallywater,2023-04-27 It is now widely recognised that a Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that were shaped through the movement of individuals and ideas from Africa to the East and from the East to Africa in the decades in which African countries moved to independence Adopting an interdisciplinary transregional perspective this volume casts new light on aspects of the role of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the decolonisation of Africa Taking further themes explored in a collection of essays published by the editors in 2019 the twelve case studies by authors from South Africa Czech Republic Portugal Russia Hungary Italy Canada Serbia and Germany draw on new sources to explore the history of the ties that existed between African liberation movements and the socialist bloc some of which continue to influence relationships today Chapters contribute to three relevant main themes that resonate in a number of scholarly fields of inquiry ranging from Global Studies Transregional Studies Cold War Studies Global History to African Studies Eastern European Russian and Slavic Studies Reconsiderations Resources and Reverberations Drawing upon newly opened archives and combining transregional perspectives with sources in different languages chapters explicitly point out the shortcomings of past research and debates in the respective field They highlight new avenues which have been developing and which need to be further developed Reconsiderations Selected case studies address the resources of those being active and involved in decolonisation processes be it in East North West and South They reveal Which resources both material and intellectual are the actors drawing upon On the other hand From which resources are individuals on one side or the other reciprocally or intermittently intentionally kept away Resources Finally the third theme puts an emphasis on the historicity of the processes depicted Studies point to the gaps and dead ends of international support the paths that peter out but also to repercussions and reverberations up until today Reverberations Taken these three themes together the individual chapters contribute to the overall question of Which general historical narratives about the second half of the 20th century are changing based on these new research findings Threads Magazine ,1994 Minutes of the Meetings of the Michigan State Board of Education Michigan.
