David Bowie and Film Stephen Glynn, 2022-10-31 This book constitutes the first monograph dedicated to an academic analysis of David Bowie's appearances in film Through close textual analysis together with production and reception histories Bowie's silver screen career is explored in full The book covers performance documentaries such as Ziggy Stardust and the Spiders from Mars star vehicles ranging from the eulogised The Man Who Fell to Earth to the excoriated Just a Gigolo plus roles from the horror chic of The Hunger and cult fantasy of Labyrinth to the valiant high brow Baal and vainglorious high budget Absolute Beginners ending with Bowie as Bowie in Bandslam and others as Bowie in Velvet Goldmine and Stardust Alongside showing his willingness to experiment and at times fail across a variety of genres this study investigates Bowie's performative style that while struggling to accommodate the requirements of cinematic realism fits more harmoniously with alternative production codes and aesthetics More broadly by exploring the commercial socio cultural and ideological significance of Bowie on film the book demonstrates how notions of gender sexuality and identity formation plus commodity and cultural capital function and fluctuate in contemporary society WILDE NOW Pierpaolo Martino, 2023-05-08 WILDE NOW reads Oscar Wilde through our now through a contemporary sensibility and approach in which literature and popular culture interrogate and are interrogated by critical concepts and categories such as performance celebrity intermediality and consumerism This volume exceeds the shape and meaning of a critical study to turn into a drama of five different acts moments in Wilde's life and work his early performances in Dublin London and Oxford the 1882 American tour his successful season of the first half of the 1890s his prison years and finally his glorious resurrection in contemporary pop culture Most importantly WILDE NOW approaches these moments through contemporary rewritings and performances of Oscar Wilde in the fields of cinema music and literature by such artists as Al Pacino Rupert Everett Stephen Fry Gyles Brandreth David Hare David Bowie Morrissey Nick Cave Neil Tennant Gavin Friday These artists through their awareness of the importance of being playing Oscar in their specific worlds and cultural contexts will also show us that Wilde can be conceived as a subversive critical role one might successfully perform and appropriate now more than ever Dry Goods Guide, 1915
