

DIARY SAMPLE A

Tuesday 16th February

Dear Diary,

I can't even! The noise coming from the flat above is driving me crazy! I'm just trying to text my friends, but all I can hear is thumping and banging. It's so annoying, but I guess I've just gotten used to it living in these flats.

I can't help but wonder what they're doing up there. Are they practising for a marathon or what? It's like they're running a race every single day! And the music, oh my days! It's like having a DJ living right above my head!

I wish I could escape from this madhouse. It's like I'm trapped in a never-ending party that's not even mine! But hey, that's life in London, right? You either learn to love the chaos or it's bye-bye sanity.

Anyway, enough of my rambling. Gotta go and text the lads to see if they'll meet me online later, before the noise gets even worse.

But when taught well, PSHE and RSHE can enhance not only other subjects but strengthen school safeguarding, develop pupil well-being and improve pupils' progress and resilience in learning. Underpinned by a range of contemporary research and illustrated through examples of classroom practice, the expert team of teacher educators look at a range of curriculum areas and contemporary issues to explore how PSHE and RSHE education can enhance other curriculum areas. As well as showing how pupils' life skills can be developed, they also explore how teachers' understanding of how PSHE and RSHE can be implemented without additional planning or expensive resources.
