- The second stanza beacons and yearns for a 'revelation' or 'Second Coming' from Christ, which reinforces the Christian beliefs of redemption and sacrifice. Society needs salvation and major change.
- The image of the 'Spiritual Mundi', the 'shape with a lion body and head of a man' creates an impression of a sphinx crawling towards 'Bethlehem'. Dutch-Asiatic Trade 1620 - 1740 Kristof Glamann,2012-12-06 The present monograph has grown out of a good many years of study of the history of the European trade to the East Indies The starting point actually was Danish Having treated the history of the Danish Asiatic Company during the period 1732-1772 I went abroad in order to familiarize myself with the background to the reorganization of Danish trade about 1732 It was especially the possible connexion with the dissolved Ostend Company and the counter measures diplomatic as well as economic of the Dutch English and French companies that interested me Through these investigations I got acquainted with the various Northwest European company records and soon realized that the Dutch archives offered a rich material especially as regards quantities and prices A study on the Dutch Company's trade in Japanese copper a subject which had previously occupied Scandinavian historians in connexion with the question of the status of Swedish copper on the European market in the 17th century amplified my knowledge of the archives in the Hague to such a degree that I dared to tackle the greater object of giving a description of the Company's trade as a whole during its heyday On various points it proved to be necessary to make comparative investigations especially in the English East India Company's archives in London
