Le Dit De Tianyi:

Le Dit de Tianyi François Cheng, 2012-11-01 Lors d'un voyage en Chine l'auteur retrouve le peintre Tianyi qui lui remet ses confessions crites L'homme a vu les années 30 et 40 dans une Chine en plein bouleversement où l'héritage culturel gardait pourtant sa force et sa diversité colorée Il a ensuite passé plusieurs années en Europe durant lesquelles il a connu la misère mais aussi découvert une autre vision de l'art et de la vie son retour dans son pays soumis aux soubresauts révolutionnaires il y recherche les deux trésors qui lui sont le plus chers Yumei l'amante et Haolang l'ami fraternel qui l'avaient tant marqué Dès lors il sera pris sans pouvoir y échapper dans un enchaînement de drames atteignant des dimensions insoupçonnées Français Chengcrivain poète traducteur et auteur d'essais sur l'art et la poésie nous donne l'un des textes d'une sensibilité peu commune chappant toute loi de genre Le Dit de Tianyi est la fois un roman d'apprentissage un témoignage personnel avec l'histoire pour toile de fond et une vision singulière de l'Occident dans les années 50 notamment de Paris lieu d'expérience exceptionnelle C'est aussi le récit d'une quête proprement spirituelle qui interroge avec passion le mystère du destin Une œuvre géniale au confluent des cultures chinoise et occidentale Proust, China and Intertextual Engagement Shuangyi Li, 2017-08-25 The book traces the literary journey that Proust's work made to China and back by means of translation intertextual engagement and the creation of a transcultural dialogue through migrant literature It begins with a translation history of Proust's work in China and studies the different re-translations and editions of La Recherche highlighting their culturally conditioned thematic emphases and negligence such as time and memory over anti-Semitism and homosexuality The book then moves on to explore three contemporary mainland Chinese writers' creative intertextual engagement with Proust against the backdrop of China's explosive development from modernity to post-modernity in the 1990s Finally back to France the book examines the multifarious literary relations between Proust and the Franco-Chinese migrant writer François Cheng It demonstrates how the cultural heritages of China and the West can be re-negotiated and put into dialogue through the fictional and creative medium of literature as well as providing a means of understanding the economic political and cultural exchanges in our current global context Travel, Translation and Transmedia Aesthetics Shuangyi Li, 2022-01-03 This book examines the works of four contemporary first-generation Chinese migrant writer-artists in France François CHENG GAO Xingjian DAI Sijie and SHAN Sa They were all born in China moved to France in their adulthood to pursue their literary and artistic ambitions and have enjoyed the highest French and Western institutional recognitions from the Grand Prix de la Francophonie to the Nobel Prize in Literature They have established themselves not only as writers but also as translators calligraphers painters playwrights and filmmakers mainly in their host country French has become their dominant but not only language of literary creation except for Gao yet linguistic idioms poetic imagery and classical thought from Chinese cultural heritage permeate their French texts and visual artworks reflecting a strong translingual and transmedial sensibility The book provides not only distinctive literary and artistic examples beyond existing studies of intercultural encounter French postcolonial and Chinese diasporic enquiries more importantly it formulates a theoretical model that captures the creative dynamics between the French francophone and Chinese sinophone spaces of articulation thereby contributing to contemporary debates about literary and artistic production interpretation and circulation in the global development of comparative world literature as well as intermediality studies Growing Old Danielle

Quinodoz,2014-05-22 People react very differently to the process of ageing Some people shy away from old age for as long as they can and eventually spend it reflecting on times when they were physically and mentally stronger and more independent For others old age is embraced as a new adventure and something to look forward to In this book psychoanalyst Danielle Quinodoz highlights the value of old age and the fact that although many elderly people have suffered losses either of their own good health or through bereavement most have managed to retain the most important thing their sense of self Quinodoz argues that growing old provides us with the opportunity to learn more about ourselves and instead of facing it with dread it should be celebrated Divided into accessible chapters this book covers topics including the internal life history remembering phases of life anxiety about death being a psychoanalyst and growing old Throughout Growing Old the author draws on both her clinical experience of working with the elderly and her own personal experience of growing old This makes it an interesting read for both practising psychoanalysts and those who wish to gain a greater insight of the natural progression into later life Paths to Contemporary French Literature John Taylor,2017-07-05 Praised for his independence curiosity intimate knowledge of French literature and sharp reader's eye John Taylor is a writer critic who is naturally skeptical of literary fashions overnight reputations and readymade academic categories Here he examines various genres of politically committed literature such as Jean Hatzfeld's narratives about Rwanda or Tchicaya U Tam si's verse some overlooked fiction and several provocative experiments with literary form ranging from the poetry of Jean Paul Michel and Marie etienne to the three line novels of Felix Feneon Taylor continues to reveal the remarkable resourcefulness of French writing Besides drawing attention to authors like Dai Sijie or Albert Cossery who have come to French from other languages he has added younger novelists to his critical panorama Challenging persistent cliches and recovering deserving voices from unjust neglect Taylor's vision of French literature conjures up the image of a vital nexus Poetry crisscrosses with prose writers from one generation meet up with those from the next or the previous one while the philosophical ideas underlying French writing are scrutinized This is an essential guide to the realities of French culture today Remnants of Refusal Erin Shevaugn

Schlumpf,2025-05-01 Analyzes how French and Chinese literary and filmic texts enact a series of feminist affective responses to the erasure of historical trauma Remnants of Refusal traces an affective discourse of feminist refusal across a series of French and Chinese works of film and literature Developing an inventive comparative approach Erin Shevaugn Schlumpf argues that this discourse takes shape in response to two national traumas and their aftermath the German Occupation and the Tiananmen Square Massacre respectively In both contexts events associated with the trauma were effectively erased from the official historical record and replaced by an unwritten code of public secrecy And in both contexts three affects melancholy ambivalence and exhaustion provide means of expressing mourning without breaking the taboo of direct representation In films and literary texts by Wang Anyi Chen Ran Jia Zhangke Nathalie Sarraute Marguerite Duras Jean Luc Godard and others mourning is most frequently borne by and through the bodies of women generating a broader feminist counternarrative to historical forgetting and burgeoning neoliberalism Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re-visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation's quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture China From Where We Stand Kate Rose, 2016-04-26 What is Comparative Sinology China from Where We Stand brings together powerful diverse voices to define the boundaries and possibilities of this new field providing a range of perspectives insider outsider and in between with China at the center This exemplifies a new China progressive outward looking yet reflective Comparative Sinology studies how China has been studied In today's global world of hybrid hyphenated identities such studies cannot be confined to how non Chinese study China What does it mean to be Chinese Where does it start Where does it end Like the related disciplines of China Studies and National Studies Comparative Sinology is interdisciplinary Though the four parts of this book represent Philosophy Literature History and Culture all articles could fit in at least two of these categories This book redefines the boundaries of traditional academic study including the subject position as it is essential when trying to understand China and its place in the world today to look at the place of each one of us Personal connections may be explicit or implicit but every author here is passionate and personally connected to the work that he or she does and to China's future The practical and intellectual possibilities of this discipline are vast and varied and this book offers a potential springboard for such ideas The Oxford Handbook of Mental Health and Contemporary Western Aesthetics, 2025-01-02 Human flourishing depends upon the mental health of the individuals Throughout history various cultural traditions have established and practiced diverse strategies to maintain their community members mental health treat their mental illness and enhance their well being They range from spiritual disciplines religious rituals and philosophical training to communal activities

Embracing Desire Louis Roy,2019-07-10 In this book Louis Roy criticizes two different attitudes concerning our desires either we are wary of our desires because of their potentially negative effects or we try to satisfy as many of them as we can Both attitudes focus on desires without examining the issue of desire The solution is neither to suspect nor to multiply our various desires but rather to intensify desire Once desire has intensified we can accept our desires and identify some of them as priorities for us to fulfill We will then proceed not only with motivation but also with detachment and therein lies the key to happiness Any human being wishes to be granted personal value as a unique individual worthy of respect And we long to be desired by the person or persons we desire Moreover because of our infinitude we are able to wonder if an infinite being whom we respect without reserve can find us desirable The author explores this basic concern and describes the relationship of mutual desire between Jesus and his first disciples Thus this book will appeal to educated readers interested in spirituality psychology literature catechesis and pastoral ministry
