Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, 1887 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1885 Also a History of Philosophy, Volume 3 Jürgen Habermas, 2025-03-18 In the final volume of his history of philosophy Jürgen Habermas offers a series of brilliant interpretations of the thinkers who set the agenda for contemporary philosophy Beginning with masterful readings of Hume and Kant he traces the genealogy of their postmetaphysical thinking through the main currents of historicism and German Idealism and the multifarious reactions to Hegel's influential system culminating in nuanced readings of Marx Kierkegaard and Peirce Through his analysis of their work Habermas demonstrates the interpretive fecundity of the central themes of his philosophical enterprise his pragmatist theory of meaning his communicative theories of subjectivity and sociality and his discursive theory of normativity in its moral juridical and political manifestations In contrast to the bland compendia of thinkers and positions generally presented in surveys of the history of philosophy Habermas's thematically focused interpretations are destined to provoke controversy and stimulate dialogue With this work one of the indisputably great thinkers of our time presents a powerful vindication of his conception of philosophy as an inherently discursive and not merely analytical or speculative enterprise Catalogue of Printed Books in the Library of the British Museum ... British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1885 Friedrich Schleiermacher's Pathways of Translation Piotr de Bończa Bukowski, 2023-01-30 This interdisciplinary study introduces readers to Friedrich Schleiermacher's diverse pathways of reflection and creative practice that are related to the field of translation By drawing attention to Schleiermacher's various writings on a range of subjects including philology criticism hermeneutics dialectics rhetoric and religion the author makes it clear that the frequently cited lecture ber die verschiedenen Methoden des bersetzens On the Different Methods of Translating represents but a fraction of Schleiermacher's contributions to modern day insights into translation The analysis of Schleiermacher's various pathways of reflection on translation presented in this book leads to the conclusion that translation is part of the essence of the world as it is a fundamental tool of our cognition and a foundation of our existence In Schleiermacher's works transfer translation mediation and communication underpin our very existence in the world and our self awareness At the same time they represent fundamental categories for a project that focuses on the consolidation and assimilation through translation of that which is foreign different diverse A Companion to the Works of Alfred Döblin Roberta L. Krueger, Roland Dollinger, Wulf Koepke, Heidi Thomann Tewarson, 2010 A volume of carefully focused essays illuminating the works of one of the leading 20th century German writers Alfred Döblin 1878 1957 was one of the great German Jewish writers of the 20th century a major figure in the German avant garde before the First World War and a leading intellectual during the Weimar Republic Döblin greatly influenced the history of the German novel his best known work the best selling 1929 novel Berlin Alexanderplatz has frequently been compared in its use of internal monologue and literary montage to James Joyce's Ulysses and John Dos Passos's Manhattan Transfer Döblin's oeuvre is by no means limited to novels but in this genre he offered a surprising variety of narrative techniques themes structures and outlooks D blin s impact on German writers after the Second World War was considerable G nter Grass for example acknowledged him as my teacher And yet while Alexanderplatz continues to fascinate the reading public it has overshadowed therest of D blin s immense oeuvre This volume of carefully focused essays seeks to do justice to such important texts as D blin s early stories his numerous other novels his political philosophical medical autobiographical and religious essays his experimental plays and his writings on the new media of cinema and radio Contributors Heidi Thomann Tewarson David Dollenmayer Neil H Donahue Roland Dollinger Veronika Fuechtner Gabriele Sander Erich Kleinschmidt Wulf Koepke Helmut F Pfanner Helmuth Kiesel Klaus M ller Salget Christoph Bartscherer Wolfgang D sing Roland Dollinger is Associate Professor of German at Sarah Lawrence College Wulf Koepke is Professor Emeritus of German at Texas A Heidi Thomann Tewarson is Professor of German at Oberlin College

Literature and Censorship in Restoration Germany Katy Heady, 2009 The effects both inhibitory and creative of the 1819 1848 censorship on German language literary writing In 1819 the German Confederation promulgated the infamous Carlsbad Decrees establishing censorship standards aimed at thwarting the political aspirations of post Napoleonic Germany s rapidly emerging public sphere This most comprehensive system of state censorship to that point in German lands remained in place until the revolutions of 1848 and is widely acknowledged to have had a profound influence on public discourse However although censorship during the period has been the object of much scholarly interest little is known about its precise effects on literary writing This book redresses that situation through detailed studies of six works composed and published in different parts of the Confederation by three prominent writers Christian Dietrich Grabbe Heinrich Heine and Franz Grillparzer By analyzing successive versions of these works the study illustrates the thematic linguistic and aesthetic constraints censorship placed upon their writing as well as the variety of literary evasion strategies that it stimulated It demonstrates that while censorship inhibited and distorted German literary writing it also led to the emergence of distinctively complex and inventive modes of literary expression that came to mark the epoch Katy Heady received her PhD in German from the University of Sheffield in 2007

Bordihn, 2007-12-01 Bordihn renders vivid descriptions of the medieval era in this engrossing account of a legendary ruler both revered and reviled Publishers Weekly The Falcon of Palermo opens with the nations of modern Europe just beginning to take shape while the papacy clings to its temporal power Into this era of shifting borders and alliances steps a leader who will become legendary the brilliant maverick Frederick II After losing his parents Emperor Henry Hohenstaufen and Queen Constance by age four a young neglected Frederick runs among the urchins in the Muslim quarter while German warlords overrun Sicily To restore order the Pope sends Archbishop Berard a warmhearted man who gradually develops a deep bond with the gifted boy Fluent in Arabic and strongly influenced by Muslim culture Frederick aims to return Sicily to her former glory However when elected Holy Roman Emperor in a surprise move by the German princes his vision grows Once established as the unchallenged ruler Frederick works to create an empire equal to that of Rome Marked by his struggle with the Papacy for the domination of Europe his glorious feats in battle his recapturing of the Holy Land his falconry and the passions that led him to wives mistresses and one enduring love Frederick s life is a fascinating glimpse into a pivotal period in medieval history This fascinating fictional account of Holy Roman Emperor Frederick II is realistically detailed with all the pomp pageantry poverty and pestilence of the Middle Ages Booklist
