Manual of Romance Morphosyntax and Syntax Andreas Dufter, Elisabeth Stark, 2017-09-25. This volume offers theoretically informed surveys of topics that have figured prominently in morphosyntactic and syntactic research into Romance languages and dialects. We define syntax as being the linguistic component that assembles linguistic units such as roots or functional morphemes into grammatical sentences and morphosyntax as being an umbrella term for all morphological relations between these linguistic units which either trigger morphological marking (e.g. explicit case morphemes) or are related to ordering issues (e.g. subjects precede finite verbs whenever there is number agreement between them). All 24 chapters adopt a comparative perspective on these two fields of research, highlighting cross-linguistic grammatical similarities and differences within the Romance language family. In addition, many chapters address issues related to variation observable within individual Romance languages and grammatical change from Latin to Romance. Fiscal Policies and Gender Equality Ms. Lisa L. Kolovich, 2018-04-11. Historically, women around the world have had fewer opportunities than men in education, employment, health care, and politics. The moral argument for gender equality is clear, and the economic evidence is mounting. The International Monetary Fund and other international institutions have worked to help whittle away at the barriers that prevent girls and women from achieving their full economic potential. This book is based on a joint research project between the IMF and the United Kingdom's Department for International Development on gender budgeting around the world. The book summarizes prominent gender budgeting initiatives in more than 80 countries. Gender budgeting allows fiscal authorities to ensure that tax spending and policies address inequality and the advancement of women Gender budgeting goals include increasing access to education childcare and health services raising female labor force participation and eradicating violence against women
