European Cities and Global

Competitiveness Peter Karl Kresl,Daniele Ietri,2012 Europe is in a troubled state The macroeconomic situation looks grim national governments are close to dysfunction and Europeans are facing austerity and relative decline The one bright spot on the horizon is the potential for positive action at the level of the city and urban regions In this book the editors have assembled a collection of original contributions by scholars from Europe North America and Asia who offer insights as to how local authorities in Europe might be able to chart a course for their city or urban region during this period of extraordinary difficulty The volume begins with an Introduction followed by a set of three papers in Part Two examining European urban competitiveness from the standpoints of measurement and policy This section also provides a case study of the cities of one country _ Italy _ from which the reader can gain an understanding of the current position of European cities as well as what might be possible going forward Experience has shown that perhaps the most crucial element in competitiveness enhancement is good and effective governance To that end Part Three examines structural aspects of urban government including polycentric regions wide metropolitan cooperation the role of social actors and territorial aggregation Part Four treats issues of innovation from two perspectives and provides a case study from Eindhoven while also covering social issues such as demographics participation social exclusion and mobility This set of scholarly reflections will be of considerable benefit to urban practitioners researchers and students of public policy    The Right Place Arturo Bris,2021-07-28 The Right Place explains why firms succeed in one country and fail in another irrespective of their inner drivers and suggests potential initiatives that governments can take to help the private sector create jobs and consequently make their countries more prosperous The competitiveness race is not unlike a cycling race If you want to ride fast you need three things a good bike to be in good shape and a smooth and fast road In a collaborative model you might say the business is the bicycle the business leader is the cyclist and the road is the government and the external environment The responsibility of a government is to design and build the best possible road It turns out that when the road is good good cyclists suddenly appear and want to race on it In this book competition and macroeconomics expert Arturo Bris provides the analysis of country competitive performance based on 30 years advising countries on this topic The typical mistakes that countries make are revealed and the pillars necessary in building a competitive economy economic performance as a necessary condition for prosperity government efficiency so the public sector can create the conditions for a productive economy business efficiency so companies can create jobs and infrastructure both tangible and intangible so businesses and individuals can operate efficiently With contemporary case studies throughout the book provides an illuminating read for politicians business leaders and students of macroeconomics    The Evolution of Economic Development in Africa Francis K. Mbroh,2021-07-11

Within the theoretical framework of the trade growth and structural transformation growth nexuses the book examines the evolution of African goods and service trade in terms of value and share of global commerce relative to other regions during the period 1948 2017 It also identifies and discusses discernible changes in the composition and structure of African exports and imports between 1995 and 2015 and their implications for economic development in Africa The study attributes Africa's laggard trade performance during the period primarily to sub optimal macroeconomic policies and lack of bold export development policies and initiatives among other factors It also offers an incisive discussion of several inhibitions to the structural transformation of African exports and imports including lack of finance globalization tariff and non tariff measures in global markets The discussion of the evolution of African trade during the period 1948 2017 based on statistics and publications of international organizations including the UNCTAD the World Bank and the African Development Bank among others is the first of its kind in terms of scope and depth of review of African trade The analyses of cross border trade during 1948 2017 and their implications for Africa's economic development prospects constitute a useful reference material for academics and students of African and development studies and African and international policymakers    Handbook on the Geopolitics of Business Joseph Mark S.
