Myjak-Pycia,2025-06-12 Filling an important gap in design history Another Modernism examines how domestic space was conceived by the US home economics movement in the first half of the 20th century In doing so it tells the story of how home economists mainly women developed design that challenged the traditional architecture of American farm communities and countered the approach of modernist architects Uncovering unacknowledged contributions of women to domestic architecture and design history it reveals early instances of participation sustainability and accommodating the disabled body in domestic design In contrast to the canonical modernist model of space which is primarily visual home economists centered on a user who interacts with the interior in a tactile bodily way Although both strove for efficiency they understood it differently whereas for many of the mainstream modernists the term efficiency meant functionalist aesthetics for home economists it signified design solutions intended to ease the labor of an average American homemaker The book argues that the home economists focus on tactility the user s corporeality movement access preferences and her engagement in the design process constituted an alternative model of modern architecture a popular and largely rural modernism centered on the specificity of the female user and her personal experience of the domestic interior Based on little known archival material and with an emphasis on mostly female researchers designers and users occupants Another Modernism will appeal to architects design historians and anyone interested in gender women s and disability studies as well as non visual approaches to design New York Magazine ,1985-01-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Irresistible Empire Victoria De Grazia, 2009-07 The most significant conquest of the twentieth century may well have been the triumph of American consumer society over Europe's bourgeois civilization It is this little understood but world shaking campaign that unfolds in de Grazia's account of how the American standard of living defeated the European way of life and achieved the global cultural hegemony that is both its great strength and its key weakness today Tracing the peculiar alliance that arrayed New World salesmanship statecraft and standardized goods against the Old World's values of status craft and good taste de Grazia describes how all alternative strategies fell before America's consumer oriented capitalism first the bourgeois lifestyle then the Third Reich's command consumption and finally the grand experiment of Soviet style socialist planning From publisher description Look Japan , 2003 Hidden History of Flint Gary Flinn, 2017-07-03 Flint is a city full of legacies overshadowed by tragedy Read the stories of the innovations and surprising elements of the city's past In the shadow of Flint's success as an industrial hub and the tragedy that is the water crisis that came to a head in 2014 the fascinating past of Flint has been largely forgotten Local author Gary Flinn showcases the obscure and surprising elements of the Vehicle City's past such as local Civil War hero Franklin Thompson who was actually Sarah Edmonds in disguise the city's most prolific inventor Lloyd Copeman created the electric stove flexible ice cube tray and automatic toaster and even Thread Lake's Lakeside Amusement Park that offered seaplane rides and a giant roller coaster partly built over the water before closing in 1931 Flinn offers the reader the often overlooked but fascinating history of Flint including how the 2014 water crisis was a half century in the making Art Rooms as Centers for Design Education George Szekely, 2018-12-07 Merging the teaching of art innovation through design with traditional art media taught in K 12 art programs this book introduces art theories and histories in design offers classroom tested pedagogical approaches that emphasize innovation and includes a wealth of graphics and stories about bringing in curiosity play and creativity into the classroom Interspersed with engaging personal narratives and anecdotes George Szekely paints a picture of transformed art classrooms and shows how art teachers can effectively foster student risk taking and learning with new teaching pedagogies and methodologies By breaking down how teacher encouragement and stimulating classroom environments can empower students and motivate them to challenge themselves Szekely demonstrates how art rooms become sites where children act as critical makers and builders and are positioned to make major social contributions to the school and beyond Mostly Sunny Herb Streifer, 2003-08 Herb Streifer was born in the Bronx in 1915 an area where upward aspiring immigrants Jewish Italian and Irish went to escape the ghettos of the lower East Side When his father died in 1930 at the beginning of the Great Depression Streifer was fifteen He and his siblings helped their mother run the family grocery in Elmhurst Queens through the depression years Cash became so tight they had to give up their large apartment
