God Was African:

God in Africa Malcolm J. McVeigh, 1974 Combines clarity and simplicity of style with intuitive and scholarly depth bringing the Christian and African concepts of God into focus Postcolonializing God Emmanuel Y. Larrey, 2013-08-13

Postcolonializing God examines how African Christianity especially as a practical spirituality can be truly a postcolonial reality The book offers thoughts as to how African Christians and by that token others who were colonial subjects may practice a spirituality that bears the hallmarks of their authentic cultural heritage even if that makes them distinctly different from Christians from the colonizing nations There are themes in both the Hebrew Bible and the Christian Scriptures in which God's activities result in shattering hegemony overthrowing the powerful diversifying communities and affirming pluralism These have by and large been ignored or downplayed in the formation of Christian communities by western and westernized Christians in Africa The effect of this is that much of the practice of African Christians imitates that of a European Christianity of bygone times Postcolonializing God charts a different course uplifting these ignored readings of scripture and identifying how they are expressed again by Africans who courageously seek through the practices of mysticism and African culture to portray a God whose actions liberate and diversify human experience Postcolonializing God seeks to express the human diversity that seems to be the Creator's ongoing desire for the world and thereby to continue to manifest the manifold and diverse nature and wisdom of God It is only as humans refuse to be created in the image of any other human beings that the richness and complexity of the divine image will be more closely viewed throughout the world Concepts of God in Africa John S. Mbiti, 1970 This study of the idea of God in 300 African tribes is the fruit of extensive research by a distinguished African theologian Professor Mbiti has successfully translated a mass of anthropological information into theological terms a task for which he is thoroughly equipped and in doing it has combined lucid writing with vivid imagery to create a book that will be read with enjoyment by many The author shows that behind many simple expressions of belief for example the Zulu saying of a thunderstorm the King is playing the Kikuyu praying to their Father to give them goats sheep and children the Bambuti picturing God with a long beard there often lies a profound faith in God as father and creator or in God working as spirit A moving and explicit description of God as a spirit comes from a traditional hymn of the Pygmies Certain African tribes have inherited myths telling of the Creation and Fall in terms akin to those of the Book of Genesis Others are familiar with the idea of a God both immanent and transcendent and of worship as an activity filling the whole life It is one thing to admire the way in which Africans have enriched Christianity with their own cultural and spiritual heritage It is quite another to be able to explore now with Dr Mbiti as guide the sources of that wealth and to discover as he has done how much there is of the universal in each tribal theology Publisher An Introduction to African Religion (2nd Edition) John S. Mbiti, 1991 Joseph Ratzinger and the Future of African Theology Maurice Ashley Agbaw-Ebai, Matthew Levering, 2021-12-27 This book engages the theology of Joseph Ratzinger Pope Benedict XVI in dialogue with African Catholic theological concerns and challenges After an Introduction by Matthew Levering arguing that African Catholic theology is an important resource for the whole Church the book contains ten chapters by African and non African Catholic theologians Paulinus Odozor investigates whether and if so how the God of Jesus Christ stands in continuity with the God known to African Traditional Religions Paul latub sun Adaja addresses faith and reason in light of the current African anthropological crisis Tegha Nji and Valery Akoh connect Ratzinger s idea of pro existence with traditional African understandings of solidarity Jacob Phillips compares the theologies of Robert Cardinal Sarah and Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI Dennis Kasule examines the requirements of a New Evangelization for Africa in light of the case of Uganda Joseph Lugalambi proposes that the Catholic liturgies of Africa are in need of reform Mary Reginald N Anibueze explores the Eucharist as a socio communitarian event Emery de Gaal reflects upon Ratzinger Benedict s theology of inculturation Joseph Ogbonnaya treats Caritas in Veritate with a focus upon the case of Nigeria Maurice Ashley Agbaw Ebai meditates upon Ratzinger s understanding of political power

The Origins and Development of African Theology Gwinyai H. Muzorewa,2000-04-05 The Origins and Development of African theology is a very informative survey of African theology over approximately the last twenty years The author is widely read on the subject as far as English publications go and highlights the salient issues with balanced objectivity The literature both as discussed in the substance of the book and in the bibliography is also a valuable source for further study of African theology John Mbiti author of Prayers of African Religion

The African Christian vs. God's Word Jacob Oyerinde,2025-08-19 What does the black African Christian consider to be the meaning and purpose of life Can a believer in Jesus Christ afford to be law averse and romanticise with tribal culture Can a believer subject the teachings of the Bible to the dictates of tribal culture and still hope to go to heaven What is the black African Christian s understanding of the role of the Bible in a believer s life Has Spirit baptism any meaning and significance to the black African Christian The author delves in to these and many other questions in this inspiring guide for Christians and potential believers of Jesus Christ whether of African origin or not who are seeking guidance in the way they come to faith in Christ

The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G. Cannon,Anthony B. Pinn,2014-07-01 Named an Honor Book for Nonfiction by the Black Caucus of the American Library Association African American theology has a long and important history With modern roots in the civil rights movements of the 1960s African American theology has gone beyond issues of justice and social transformation to participate in broader dialogues of theological inquiry The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to offer a critical and comprehensive analysis of this theological tradition in its many forms and contexts Using an interdisciplinary approach this Oxford Handbook examines the nature structures and functions of African American Theology The volume surveys the field by highlighting its sources doctrines internal debates current challenges and future prospects in order to present key topics related to the wider palette of Black Religion in a sustained scholarly format This formative collection presents current scholarship on African American Theology and scripture eschatology Christology womanist theology sexuality ontology the global economy and much more The contributors represent a diverse set of faith perspectives adding to the layered discourses within the volume These essays further important discussions on the pressing debates and challenges that shape black and womanist theologies The Paradigm of Greed and Its Impact on African Americans Dr C E Pender,2005-08 These United States were founded on the religion of greed until this day it continues to have divesting impacts on the African American population The Paradigm of Greed is the result of the CRABS cognitive retrogression affecting the black society which is an internal destruction switch imbedded in most African Americans from the days of slavery which for the most part never really ended This self destruction is directly linked to assimilation so therefore in this spell book you will understand why there is such an alarming rate of black on black crime character killing jealousy and envy Now and only now the author has masterfully uncovered the sinister plot of how the whole psychological program encourages black to be there own worst enemies Read how it works and more importantly hunt and expose the real enemy which is secular greed Read of America s new cash crop and how dependency is the new hangman Understand being rich and wealthy are not the same in short it is all about who control the money The author has woven his argument into a colorful disciplinary program which could prove to reduce the impact of the CRABS created by the obsession of pure greed which is green money African American this book is monitory Americans truly this is the Paridigm of Greed The reversal of this CRABS disorder is lodged in this volume so one can truly began the process of emancipation completed with the God factor The Gods of Africa Or the God of the Bible? Leonard Nyirongo,2017-11-04 Before the Gospel came to Africa did Africans worship the true God or idols Many prominent theologians claim that we worshipped the true God They say that the Gospel was not a beginning of the true knowledge of God but a continuation or a fulfilment of the faith that already existed in the pre Christian African s heart Some even go so far as to suggest that the African s method of approaching God s throne is as valid as the way of salvation taught by the Gospel This book has been written to refute the theologians reasoning It begins by presenting their claims then chapter by chapter it compares and contrasts the indigenous African beliefs and what the Bible teaches The author s prayer is that the book will encourage pastors elders ministry leaders Bible college students and any other Christian in Africa to make a clear and uncompromising stand for the authentic Gospel The true Gospel is unique it points us to Christ the only light to the world the only way back to God He is the only true foundation our religious past is sinking sand a false security Morality Truly Christian, Truly African Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor C.S.Sp.,2014-11-15 Given the largely Eurocentric nature of moral theology in the history of the Roman Catholic Church what will it take to invest the theological community in the history and moral challenges of the Church in other parts of the world especially Africa What is to be gained for the whole Church when this happens in a deep and lasting way In this timely and important study Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor brings greater theological clarity to the issue of the relationship between Christianity and African tradition in the area of ethical foundations He also provides a constructive example of what fundamental moral theology done from an African and Christian especially Catholic moral theological point of view could look like Following a brief history of the development of African Christian theology Odozor examines responses of African theologians to African tradition and Christian responses to the reality of non Christian religions In a context where the African religious experience and heritage are powerful sources of meaning and identity Christian evangelization raises questions both about the African primal religions and about Christianity itself and its claims Odozor takes up the subject of moral reasoning in an African Christian theological ethics and concludes with case studies that show how the African Church has tried to inculturate moral discourse on a religiously pluralistic continent and relate the healing gospel message to African situations Students and scholars of moral theology and ethics and church leaders will profit from the issues raised in Morality Truly Christian Truly African

The Great Being: Creator, Yahweh, Chuku, Allah, God, Brahman Gwinyai H. Muzorewa, 2000-08-03 God was African Nkemngong Nkengasong, 2014-12-01 When Kendem a varsity instructor returns to his native Lewoh countryside where he spent his childhood he is seeking relief from the complexity of human civilization after attending the Fulbright Institute in the United States Instead he is confronted with two seething issues how to reveal to his sick and troubled mother the situation in which he finds his elder brother the successor of Mbe Tanju Ngongs household who travelled to the United States many years before and had never returned and the dispute over Fuo Beyanos funeral which is tearing the land apart whether the deceased village chief should be given a Christian burial or he should according to the age old tradition of Lewoh people go through a ritual to enable him return and continue ruling his people Black Women and Breast Cancer Elizabeth A. Williams, 2018-11-16 Christian theology at its core is a story about someone being in trouble In response to this trouble the triune God intervenes God identifies with those in trouble walking with them through the experience Yet the God of Christian theology goes a step further God prevails over trouble God is an overcomer Black women with breast cancer identify with this God They also see themselves in this theological narrative They see themselves in the midst of troubles troubles like racism poverty and environmental exposures that create the disease affecting their bodies They see the troubles of breast cancer their biological disposition towards more aggressive cancers later stage diagnoses poorer prognoses diminished quality of care and worse outcomes Black women also palpably feel the troubles breast cancer brings like fear physical disfigurement social isolation being stereotyped for treatment decisions abandonment and even death Black women feel the myriad troubles breast cancer brings But Black women also know God in their troubles They know an active God who identifies with and prioritizes their needs They know this God through scripture and experience as God who puts them front and center And because they know God as an overcomer and creative force they know themselves as overcomers For with God their troubles do not last always Black women with breast cancer construct a cultural theology of breast cancer out of knowing God Borne out of experiences of the Black Church womanist theology and their intersectional identities of race class and gender this theological investigation informed by anthropology examines how Black women construct an ontology of who God is and how God operates and gain a God consciousness that shapes their response to the disease Using pain faith and testimony as tools to struggle against breast cancer Black survivors theology transforms them from victims of breast cancer to change agents Out of their lives as survivors comes a theology of complex hope one cognizant of Black women s breast cancer disparities yet oriented towards Black women s achievement of health in the present and the future a sufficient hope to sustain Black women through it all The One-in-a-Million Baby Name Book Jennifer
