Le Grand Malentendu:

, Quebec Women and Legislative Representation Manon Tremblay, 2010-07-01 Quebec women have had the right to vote and run for office in provincial and federal forums for at least six decades yet they continue to occupy a minority of seats in Quebec's National Assembly and in Canada's House of Commons and Senate To explain this situation Women and Parliamentary Representation in Quebec examines women's engagement in politics from 1791 to the present It begins by tracing the path that led to women achieving the right to vote and run for office and then draws on statistics and interviews with women senators and members of Parliament to complete an in depth portrait of Quebec women's under representation and its main causes political parties and the voting system This innovative account not only documents the significant democratic deficit in Canada's parliamentary systems it also outlines strategies to improve women's access to legislative representation in Canada and elsewhere

A Lethal Obsession Robert S. Wistrich, 2010-01-05 In this unprecedented work two decades in the making leading historian Robert S Wistrich examines the long and ugly history of anti-Semitism from the first recorded pogrom in 38 BCE to its shocking and widespread resurgence in the present day As no other book has done before it A Lethal Obsession reveals the causes behind this shameful and persistent form of hatred and offers a sobering look at how it may shake and reshape the world in years to come Here are the fascinating and long forgotten roots of the Jewish difference the violence that greeted the Jewish Diaspora in first century Alexandria Wistrich suggests that the idea of a formless God who passed down a universal moral law to a chosen few deeply disconcerted the pagan world The early leaders of Christianity increased their strength by painting these superior Jews as a cosmic and satanic evil and by the time of the Crusades murdering a Christ killer had become an act of conscience Moving seamlessly through centuries of war and dissidence A Lethal Obsession powerfully portrays the creation of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion the fateful anti-Semitic tract commissioned by Russia's tsarist secret police at the end of the nineteenth century and the prediction by Theodor Herzl Austrian founder of political Zionism of eventual disaster for the Jews in Europe The twentieth century fulfilled this dark prophecy with the horrifying ascent of Hitler's Third Reich Yet as Wistrich disturbingly suggests the end of World War II failed to neutralize the Judeophobic virus Pogroms and prejudice continued in Soviet controlled territories and in the Arab Muslim world that would fan flames for new decades of distrust malice and violence Here in pointed and devastating detail is our own world one in which jihadi terrorists and the radical left blame Israel for all global ills In his concluding chapters Wistrich warns of a possible nuclear Final Solution at the hands of Iran a land in which a formerly prosperous Jewish community has declined in both fortunes and freedoms Dazzling in scope and erudition A Lethal Obsession is a riveting masterwork of investigative nonfiction the definitive work on this unsettling yet essential subject It is destined to become an indispensable source for any student of world affairs

Cash Transfers in Context Jean-Pierre Olivier de Sardan, Emmanuelle Piccoli, 2018-09-07 Marginal in status a decade ago cash transfer programs have become the preferred channel for delivering emergency aid or tackling poverty in low and middle income countries While these programs have had positive effects they are typical of top down development interventions in that they impose on local contexts standardized norms and procedures regarding conditionality targeting and delivery This book sheds light on the crucial importance of these contexts and the many unpredicted consequences of cash transfer programs worldwide detailing how the latter are used by actors to pursue their own strategies and how external norms are reinterpreted circumvented and contested by local populations

The Mitterrand Years Mairi Maclean, 2016-07-27 A considered look at the Mitterrand presidency as a whole its place in French history and the trends for the twenty first century emerging under Chirac The fourteen years during which Mitterrand was at the helm ushered in fundamental change in many different domains as France faced up to new challenges in an increasingly uncertain world This study evaluates the impact and legacy of the Mitterrand years in the following key areas the Republic socialism Europe and foreign affairs business and the economy society and culture New Immigrants in Two Democracies Donald Horowitz, Gerard Noiriel, 1992 International migration is often considered a relatively new development in world history Yet while there has been a surge in migration since World War II the worldwide movement of peoples is a longstanding phenomenon So too are the fundamental issues raised by immigration How do immigrants fit into and affect the polity and society of the country they enter What changes can or must the receiving state make to accomodate them What changes in culture and ethnic indentity do immigrants undergo in their new environment How do they relate to the mix of peoples already present in their new homeland What determines the policies that govern their reception and treatment In this volume expertly edited by a leading American political scientist lawyer and a leading French historian twenty one renowned experts on immigration address these questions and a variety of other issues involving the experiences of immigrants in the city at the workplace and in schools and churches Their essays examine the issues of nationality citizenship law and politics that define the life of an immigrant population Focusing on the United States and France this voluem is a social history and a legal and public policy study that comprehensively portrays the dilemmas immigrants present and face Contributors include Sophie Body Gendrot Danielle Boyzon Frader Andre Clement Decoufle Veronique de Rudder Lawrence H Fuchs Nathan Glazer Philip Gleason Stanley Lieberman Lance Liebman Daniele Lochak Michel Oriol Martin A Schain Peter H Schuck Roxane Silberman Werner Sollors Stephan Thernstrom Maryse Tripier Maris A Vinovskis and Myron Weiner

Digital Technologies and African Societies Julien Atchoua, Jean-Jacques Maomra Bogui, Saikou Diallo, 2020-10-09 The integration and use of information and communication technologies ICT in African countries is increasingly observable in various sectors of activity banking education trade etc despite a digital divide still relevant ICT has become a major sector of the recent growth of a new informal economy in African cities Ch neu Loquay 2008 This question has been at the heart of various international meetings An overall positive and even utopian momentum is generally heard about the contribution of digital technologies to the development of African states The adoption or appropriation of digital technologies by Africans is presented in many speeches by politicians or institutions involved in the field of cooperation and international development as an important issue for the development of this continent These different considerations give rise to reflections on the following themes Social Media and Public Space in Africa Challenges of the digital economy in Africa ICT and modernization of higher education in Africa

The French Intifada Andrew Hussey, 2014-04-22 This provocative look at France's relationship with the Arab world offers a bracing mix of journalism and history that couldn't be more timely Mitchell Cohen The New York Times Book Review To fully understand the social and political pressures wracking contemporary France and indeed all of Europe we must look beyond domestic issues Unemployment economic stagnation and social deprivation certainly exacerbate the ongoing turmoil in the banlieues But as Andrew Hussey demonstrates here the root of the problem lies in the continuing fallout from Europe's colonial era Hussey draws on his deep knowledge of history literature and politics as well as his years of personal experience in France Algeria and other Arab countries to provide a nuanced holistic view of the present situation In the course of teasing out the myriad interconnections between past and present The French Intifada shows that the defining conflict of the twenty first century will not be between Islam and the West but between two dramatically different experiences of the world the colonizers and the colonized

The UK Challenge to Europeanization Karine Tournier-Sol, 2016-04-29 This timely contribution pulls no punches and views the UK as institutionally Eurosceptic across politics and society from the press to defence It represents a rich and original contribution to the emerging field of Eurosceptic studies and a key contribution to this important issue

Africa in the Indian Ocean Tor Sellström, 2015-05-26 The four sovereign Indian Ocean states of Comoros Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles the two French overseas departments of Mayotte and Reunion as well as the British colony of BIOT Chagos all form part of Africa As insular nations and territories in an increasingly globalized militarized and largely unregulated ocean they face particular challenges Commonly overlooked in the fields of African and international studies this text traces the islands history and explores their diverse contemporary social political and economic trajectories From human settlement and slavery to conflict resolution and piracy the relations with continental Africa and the African Union feature prominently Richly sourced this comprehensive and up to date introduction to Africa's Indian Ocean islands covers a significant lacuna

Interpreting the Middle East David Sorenson, 2018-04-19 Contemporary approaches to comparative studies of the Middle East increasingly recognize how globalization and regional mass communication have blurred differences across countries Populations travel across national borders and compare narratives about political change economic futures and the role of the outside world in shaping their lives Organized by five principal themes of a regional overview politics economic development social context

Sooryamoorthy,Nene Ernest

Khalema,2023 The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Africa presents a comparative analysis of sociological thinking in Africa Focusing on examples from Africa this diverse collection presents to a broad readership an accessible comprehensive up to date and topical analysis of sociological thinking in Africa Sociological discourse about African societies has been challenging and difficult due to a lack of both comprehensive analyses and holistic sociological evidence that covers Africa from past to present This Handbook locates African sociological thinking in historical context and takes a critical look at its current manifestations across the continent Terror and Modernity Donatella Di Cesare,2019-06-10 We are inclined to see terrorist attacks as an aberration a violent incursion into our lives that bears no intrinsic relation to the fundamental features of modern societies But does this view misconstrue the relationship between terror and modernity In this book philosopher Donatella Di Cesare takes a historical approach and argues that terror is not a new phenomenon but rather one that has always been a key part of modernity At its most basic level terrorism is about the struggle for power and sovereignty The growing concentration of power in the hands of the state which is a constitutive feature of modern societies sows the seeds of terrorism which is deployed as a weapon by those who are exposed to the violence of the state and feel that they have no other recourse As Di Cesare illustrates her argument with examples ranging from the Red Brigades and 9 11 to jihadism and ISIS her sophisticated analysis will appeal to anyone who wishes to understand contemporary terrorism more deeply as well as to students and scholars of philosophy and political theory

Moroccan Foreign Policy under Mohammed VI, 1999-2014 Irene Fernandez-Molina, 2015-10-23 This book presents a comprehensive survey of Moroccan foreign policy since 1999 It considers the objectives actors and decision making processes involved and outlines Morocco's foreign policy activity in key areas such as the international management of the Western Sahara conflict and relations with the other states of North Africa relations with the European Union especially France and Spain and relations with the United States and the Middle East The book links the behaviour and discourses analysed to differing conceptions of Morocco's national role on the international scene champion of national territorial integrity model student of the EU and good ally of the United States and shows how these competing approaches to the country's foreign policy enjoy different degrees of domestic consensus and result in different degrees of legitimation for the regime

Religion and Politics in the European Union François Foret, 2015-02-05 This book analyzes the place and influence of religion in European politics François Foret presents the first data ever collected on the religious beliefs of European decision makers and what they do with these beliefs Discussing popular assumptions such as the return of religion aggressive European secularism and religious lobbying Foret offers objective data and non normative conceptual frameworks to clarify some major issues in the contemporary political debate
