Murphy,Harm J. De Blij,2015 Testimonio Catherine Nolin,Grahame Russell,2021-10-25 What is land A resource to be exploited A commodity to be traded A home to cherish In Guatemala a country still reeling from thirty six years of US backed state repression and genocides dominant Canadian mining interests cash in on the transformation of land into property while those responsible act with near total impunity Editors Catherine Nolin and Grahame Russell draw on over thirty years of community based research and direct community support work in Guatemala to expose the ruthless state machinery that benefits the Canadian mining industry a staggeringly profitable juggernaut of exploitation sanctioned and supported every step of the way by the Canadian government This edited collection calls on Canadians to hold our government and companies fully to account for their role in enabling and profiting from violence in Guatemala The text stands apart in featuring a series of unflinching testimonios testimonies authored by Indigenous community leaders in Guatemala as well as wide ranging contributions from investigative journalists scholars Lawyers activists and documentarians on the ground As resources are ripped from the earth and communities and environments ripped apart the act of standing in solidarity and bearing witness rather than extracting knowledge becomes more radical than ever Sustainable Transportation in Natural and Protected Areas Francesco Orsi,2015-07-16 Protected areas are at the centre of nature based tourism which is increasingly popular across the world As visitor numbers increase so does awareness of the harmful effects that large crowds may have on both natural resources and individuals recreational experience This volume considers the challenge of transportation to and within natural and protected areas the improvement of which has already been recognised as having great potential for mitigating the environmental impacts of ecotourism While several books have focused considerable attention to the management of protected areas in general little has been said about the specific issue of sustainable transport an emerging trend that is already reshaping visitation patterns in natural settings This book provides current knowledge on issues associated with the transportation of visitors in natural and protected areas and a comprehensive overview of the technical and strategic options available to tackle these issues It approaches the subject via three main topics preferences or the visitors attitudes towards transportation practices where current approaches are assessed through examples and case studies of successful experiences and methodologies from around the world and policies where suggestions and recommendations are put forward for both local scale strategies and broad scale regulatory action with global relevance Contributors include academics in the field of natural resource management and tourism with extensive experience in protected area management and active partnerships with natural park administrations Disaster Studies Janki Andharia,2020-03-25 This book covers several dimensions of disaster studies as an emerging discipline It is the inaugural book in the series Disaster Studies and Management and deals with questions such as Is disaster management a field of practice a profession or simply a new area of study Exploring intersectionalities the book also examines areas of research that could help enhance the discourse on disaster management from policy and practice perspectives revisiting conventional event centric approaches which are the basis for most writings on the subject Several case studies and comparative analyses reflect a critical reading of research and practice concerning disasters and their management The book offers valuable insights into various subjects including the challenge of establishing inter and multi disciplinary teams within the academia involved in disaster studies and sociological and anthropological readings of post disaster memoryscapes Each of the contributors has an enduring interest in disaster studies thus enriching the book immensely This book will be of interest to all the students and scholars of disaster studies and disaster management as well as to practitioners and policymakers

America Ascendant Stanley B. Greenberg, 2015-11-03 America is poised to lead the 21st Century as it led the 20th That will happen because the country is at a tipping point in the battle for its own renewal a renewal that will allow America to be exceptional again Our economy is on the move fueled by revolutions in energy immigration innovation big data and advanced manufacturing America s energy independence has set off shockwaves Just as important are the social transformations that are making the country ever more racially and culturally diverse younger a home to immigrants and the metropolitan centers that foster a rising economic and cultural dynamism While most other countries struggle profoundly with immigration and religious and racial differences America s on a path to multicultural identity Those revolutions in the economy society and culture and are also producing a new American majority that embraces new values and new politics Republicans are waging a counter revolution and that is why America looks gridlocked and why the country is turning to Democrats to take on the country s growing challenges The economic and social transformations leave people struggling to earn enough and reach the middle class Families are under stress Government is corrupted by big money The American public is demanding the country address the dark side of our progress and reforms are starting to happen That is why Democrats will get to lead an era of reform and renewal comparable to the progressive era that mitigated the excesses of the Industrial Revolution In this incisive book expert strategist Greenberg draws on years of research and polling to illuminate how America is far from being gridlocked and he articulates a powerful vision of how American politics and America can be renewed
