Geography Theory Paper March 2014:

Walking Inside Out Tina Richardson, 2015-07-07 Walking Inside Out is the first text that attempts to merge the work of literary and artist practitioners with academics to critically explore the state of psychogeography today. The collection explores contemporary psychogeographical practices, shows how a critical form of walking can highlight easily overlooked urban phenomenon and examines the impact that everyday life in the city has on the individual. Through a variety of case studies it offers a British perspective of international spaces from the British metropolis to the post communist European city. By situating the current strand of psychogeography within its historical, political and creative context along with careful consideration of the challenges it faces, Walking Inside Out offers a vision for the future of the discipline. CAA2014: 21st Century Archaeology F. Giligny, F. Djindjian, L. Costa, 2015-03-31 This volume brings together a selection of papers proposed for the Proceedings of the 42nd Computer Applications and Quantitative Methods in Archaeology conference CAA hosted at Paris 1 Pantheon Sorbonne University from 22nd to 25th April 2014. The Evolution of Economic Development in Africa Francis K. Mbroh, 2021-07-11 Within the theoretical framework of the trade growth and structural transformation growth nexuses, the book examines the evolution of African goods and service trade in terms of value and share of global commerce relative to other regions during the period 1948-2017. It also identifies and discusses discernible changes in the composition and structure of African exports and imports between 1995 and 2015 and their implications for economic development in Africa. The study attributes Africa's laggard trade performance during the period primarily to sub-optimal macroeconomic policies and lack of bold export development policies and initiatives among other factors. It also offers an incisive discussion of several inhibitions to the structural transformation of African exports and imports including lack of finance, globalization, tariff and non-tariff measures in global markets. The discussion of the evolution of African trade during the period 1948-2017 based on statistics and publications of international organizations including the UNCTAD, the World Bank and the African Development Bank among others is the first of its kind in terms of scope and depth of review of African trade. The analyses of cross border trade during 1948-2017 and their implications for Africa's economic development prospects constitute a useful reference material for academics and students of African and development studies and African and international policymakers. Crowdfunding in Europe Dennis Brüntje, Oliver Gajda, 2015-08-20 Crowdfunding is becoming an increasingly popular method to finance projects of every kind and scale. This contributed volume is one of the earliest books presenting scientific and research based perspectives of crowdfunding, its development and future. The European Crowdfunding Network ECN and its scientific work group together with FGF e.V. invited both researchers and practitioners to contribute to this first state of the art edited volume on crowdfunding in Europe. This book contributes to a better comprehension of crowdfunding, encourages further fundamental research and contributes to a systematization of this new field of research. The book also features expert contributions by practitioners to enhance and complement the scientific perspective This book can be used as a guideline and shall advance classification in an emerging research field

Spationomy Vít Pászto, Carsten Jürgens, Polona Tominc, Jaroslav Burian, 2019-11-06 This open access book is based on Spationomy Spatial Exploration of Economic Data an interdisciplinary and international project in the frame of ERASMUS funded by the European Union The project aims to exchange interdisciplinary knowledge in the fields of economics and geomatics For the newly introduced courses interdisciplinary learning materials have been developed by a team of lecturers from four different universities in three countries In a first study block students were taught methods from the two main research fields Afterwards the knowledge gained had to be applied in a project For this international project teams were formed consisting of one student from each university participating in the project The achieved results were presented in a summer school a few months later At this event more methodological knowledge was imparted to prepare students for a final simulation game about spatial and economic decision making In a broader sense the chapters will present the methodological background of the project give case studies and show how visualisation and the simulation game works

Shifting Power in Asia-Pacific? Enrico Fels, 2016-11-03 This book investigates whether a power shift has taken place in the Asia Pacific region since the end of the Cold War By systematically examining the development of power dynamics in Asia Pacific it challenges the notion that a wealthier and militarily more powerful China is automatically turning the regional tides in its favour With a special emphasis on Sino US competition the book explores the alleged linkage between the regional distribution of relevant material and immaterial capabilities national power and the much cited regional power shift The book presents a novel concept for measuring power in international relations by outlining a composite index on aggregated power CIAP that includes 55 variables for 44 regional countries and covers a period of twenty years Moreover it develops a middle power theory that outlines the significance of middle powers in times of major power shifts By addressing political military and economic cooperation via a structured focused comparison and by applying a comparative historical analysis the book analyses in depth the bilateral relations of six regional middle powers to Washington and Beijing

Carceral Mobilities Jennifer Turner, Kimberley Peters, 2016-12-01 Mobilities research is now centre stage in the social sciences with wide ranging work that considers the politics underscoring the movements of people and objects critically examining a world that is ever on the move At first glance the words carceral and mobilities seem to sit uneasily together This book challenges the assumption that carceral life is characterised by a lack of movement Carceral Mobilities brings together contributions that speak to contemporary debates across carceral studies and mobilities research offering fresh insights to both areas by identifying and unpicking the manifold mobilities that shape and are shaped by carceral regimes It features four sections that move the reader through the varying typologies of motion underscoring carceral life tension circulation distribution and transition Each mobilities led section seeks to explore the politics encapsulated in specific regimes of carceral movement With contributions from leading scholars and a range of international examples this book provides an authoritative voice on carceral mobilities from a variety of perspectives including criminology sociology history cultural theory human geography and urban planning This book offers a first port of call for those examining spaces of detention asylum imprisonment and containment who are increasingly interested in questions of movement in relation to the management control and confinement of populations

Urbanization with Chinese Characteristics: The Hukou System and Migration Kam Wing Chan, 2018-04-19 Many agree that rapid urbanization in China in the late 20th and early 21st centuries is a mega process significantly reshaping China and the global economy China's urbanization also carries a certain mystique which has long fascinated generations of scholars and journalists alike As it has turned out many of the asserted Chinese feats are mostly fancied claims or gross misinterpretations of statistics for example There does exist however an urbanization that displays rather uncommon Chinese characteristics that remain to inadequately understood Building on his three decades of careful research Professor Kam Wing Chan expertly dissects the complexity of China's hukou system migration urbanization and their interrelationships in this set of journal articles published in the last ten years These works range from seminal papers on Chinese urban definitions and statistics and broad perspective analysis of the hukou system of its first semi centennial to examinations of migration trends and geography and critical evaluations of China's 2014 urbanization blueprint and hukou reform plan This convenient assemblage contains many of Chan's recent important works Together they also form a relatively coherent set on this topic They are essential readings to anyone serious about gaining a true understanding of the prodigious urbanization in contemporary China

Future North Janike Kampevd Larsen, Peter Hemmersam, 2018-04-09 The changing Arctic is of broad political concern and is being studied across many fields This book investigates ongoing changes in the Arctic from a landscape perspective It examines settlements and territories of the Barents Sea Coast Northern Norway the Russian Kola Peninsula Svalbard and Greenland from an interdisciplinary design based and future oriented perspective The Future North project has travelled Arctic regions since 2012 mapped landscapes and settlements documented stories and practices and discussed possible futures with local actors Reflecting the multidisciplinary nature of the project the authors in this book look at political and economic strategies urban development land use strategies and local initiatives in specific locations that are subject to different forces of change This book explores current material conditions in the Arctic as effects of industrial and political agency and social initiatives It provides a combined view on the built environment and urbanism as well as the cultural and material landscapes of the Arctic The chapters move beyond single disciplinary perspectives on the Arctic and engage with futures cultural landscapes and communities in ways that build on both architectural and ethnographic participatory methods

Handbook on the Geographies of Money and Finance Ron Martin, Jane Pollard, 2017-03-31 The aim of this timely work which appears in the wake of the worst global financial crisis since the late 1920s is to bring together high quality research based contributions from leading international scholars involved in constructing a geographical perspective on money Topics covered include the crisis the spatial circuits of finance regulation mainstream financial markets banking equity etc through to the various alternative and disruptive forms of money that have arisen in recent years It will be of interest to geographers political scientists sociologists economists planners and all those interested in how money shapes and reshapes socio economic space and conditions local and regional development

The Palgrave Handbook of Disciplinary and Regional Approaches to Peace Oliver Richmond, Sandra Pogodda, Jasmin Ramovic, 2016-03-15 In this handbook a diverse range of leading scholars consider the social cultural economic political and developmental underpinnings of peace This handbook is a much needed response to the failures of contemporary peacebuilding missions and narrow disciplinary debates both of which have outlined the need for more interdisciplinary work in International Relations and Peace and Conflict studies Scholars students and policymakers are often disillusioned with universalist and northern dominated approaches and a better understanding of the variations of peace and its building blocks across different regions is required Collectively these chapters promote a more differentiated notion of peace employing comparative analysis to explain how peace is debated and contested

The Reproach of Hunger David Rieff, 2015-10-06 In 2000 the world's leaders and experts agreed that the eradication of hunger was the essential task for the new millennium Yet in the last decade the price of wheat soya and rice have spiraled seen by many as the cause of widening poverty gap and political unrest from the Arab Spring to Latin America This food crisis has condemned the bottom billion of the world's population who live on less than 1 a day to a state of constant hunger In The Reproach of Hunger leading expert on humanitarian aid and development David Rieff goes in search of the causes of this food security crisis as well as the failures to respond to the disaster In addition to the failures to address climate change poor governance and misguided optimism Rieff cautions against the increased privatization of aid with such organization as the Gates Foundation spending more than the WHO on food relief The invention of the celebrity campaigner from Bono to Jeffrey Sachs whose business led solutions have robbed development of its political urgency The hope that the crisis of food scarcity of food production can be solved by a technological innovation In response Rieff demands that we rethink the fundamental causes of the world's grotesque inequalities and see the issue as a political challenge we are all failing to confront

Industrial Development Greg Clydesdale, 2021-11-10 Governments are regularly judged by their ability to deliver economic prosperity however many policies fail to deliver their desired outcomes Industrial Development examines historical examples of how governments have attempted to build productive capabilities and promote industrial learning Each chapter shows a different way in which this is done whether it is imitating existing production technologies building new advanced technologies tapping into existing global chains or building their own value chains The book looks at a wide spectrum of countries and industries from Silicon Valley to the early Asian model of building domestic industries The book also reveals that academics and policy makers can be a major source of policy failure This book makes an important contribution to our understanding of capability building industrial development and economic growth and will be an essential reading for economists policy makers and government
