

Interactive Listening Guide Template Instructions (including the AABA, I-vi-IV-V, and 12-bar blues templates)

Templates developed in Flash by Dr. Scott D. Lipscomb ©2005

To create your own interactive listening guide, simply follow the steps below:

- start Flash and open the appropriate template file:
 - AABA: "aaba_template fla"
 - I-vi-IV-V: "I-vi-IV-V_template fla"
 - 12-bar blues: "12barBlues_template fla"
- immediately, save the file with a new name, so the template file always remains unchanged
 - I recommend adopting a simple naming convention such as: "aaba_*SongTitle*.fla" or "12barBlues_*SongTitle*.fla," replacing SongTitle with the name of the musical example you will use
 - as a general rule, you should avoid using spaces and/or special characters in file names that will be accessed via the internet
- select an MP3 file that exemplifies the appropriate song structure and import it into the movie's library
 - File→Import→Import to Library...
 - then browse to the file, select it, and click on the "Open" button
- once the import process has completed ...
 - click on frame 1 of the "music" layer in the Timeline panel
 - open the movie's Library (Window→Library), select the MP3 file listed in the Library window, then drag-and-drop it anywhere on the Stage
 - you will know you have succeeded when you see a representation of the digital sound file in the "music" layer
 - in order for the Listening Guide to work properly, the sound Sync mode must be set to "Stream"; to check this ...
 - open the Properties window (Window→Properties) and check the setting; if you do not see the complete set of options in the image below, click on the downward pointing triangle in the lower right corner of the Properties window to expand the information area

Interactive Listening Guide:

"Birdland" Christian Kyle Erickson, 2003 The Development and Testing of an Interactive Listening Guide System for Instructors of Music Appreciation Derrill G. Bodley, 2000 Listen Joseph Kerman, Gary Tomlinson, Vivian Kerman, 2011-01-06 DVD contains 30 minutes of video excerpts and 16 audio tracks keyed to the text Excursions in World Music, Seventh Edition Bruno Nettl, 2016-08-05 Excursions in World Music is a comprehensive introductory textbook to world music creating a panoramic experience for students by engaging the many cultures around the globe and highlighting the sheer diversity to be experienced in the world of music. At the same time the text illustrates the often profound ways through which a deeper exploration of these many different communities can reveal overlaps, shared horizons and common concerns in spite of and because of this very diversity. The new seventh edition introduces five brand new chapters including chapters by three new contributors on the Middle East, South Asia and Korea as well as a new chapter on Latin America along with a new introduction written by Timothy Rommen. General updates have been made to other chapters replacing visuals and updating charts and statistics. Excursions in World Music remains a favorite among ethnomusicologists who want students to explore the in-depth knowledge and scholarship that animates regional studies of world music. A companion website is available at no additional charge. For instructors there is a new test bank and instructor's manual. Numerous student resources are posted including streamed audio tracks for most of the listening guides, interactive quizzes, flashcards and an interactive map with pinpoints of interest and activities. An ancillary package of a 3 CD set of audio tracks is available for separate purchase. Miller and Andrew Shahriari take students around the world to experience the diversity of musical expression. World Music: A Global Journey now in its third edition is known for its breadth in surveying the world's major cultures in a systematic study of world music within a strong pedagogical framework. As one prepares for any travel, each chapter starts with background preparation reviewing the historical, cultural and musical overview of the region. Visits to multiple sites within a region provide in-depth studies of varied musical traditions. Music analysis begins with an experiential first impression of the music followed by an aural analysis of the sound and prominent musical elements. Finally, students are invited to consider the cultural connections that give the music its meaning and life. Features of the Third Edition: Over 3 hours of diverse musical examples with a third audio CD of new musical examples. Listening Guides analyze the various pieces of music with some presented in an interactive format online. Biographical highlights of performers and ethnomusicologists updated and new ones added. Numerous pedagogical aids including On Your Own Time and Explore More sidebars and Questions to Consider. Popular music
