THE Journal ,1999 Teach Math Like This, Not Like That Matthew L. Beyranevand,2017-05-24 Teaching mathematics is one of the most difficult and important jobs that anyone can do Mathematics is a critical part of education and an essential building block for problem solving skills that are needed in the real world However many students struggle to learn and understand mathematical concepts and educators need to do everything possible to help our students learn This book focuses on four areas necessary to be an impactful teacher of mathematics Planning Pedagogy Assessment and Relationships For each of the ideas presented in the book a brief introduction will be shared and then two different perspectives will be detailed with examples The first is Not like This which is often the traditional way of teaching mathematics or the less effective approach The second perspective is Teach Like This which is my recommended approach based upon research and my own experience as a teacher math coordinator and graduate instructor of math education School, Family, and Community Partnerships, Student Economy Edition Joyce Epstein,2018-10-03 This book encourages more professors of education sociology psychology and related fields to prepare the next generation of education professionals to understand and implement programs and practices of family and community involvement to increase student success in school Book Steven Berbeco,2011-08-19 Abstract In this study I propose a strong and innovative model of teaching that centers on the student and I report on the efficacy of this model using quantitative research procedures This model of teaching is systematized in the Marhaba curriculum a method of teaching first year high school Arabic that I designed tested and evaluated The Marhaba curriculum is founded on best practices and is a natural outgrowth of contemporary education theories including non linear curriculum design and multiple modality teaching materials that take into consideration students diverse learning styles Analysis of data indicates that use of the Marhaba curriculum positively influences student proficiency in Arabic In particular students become proficient regardless of a student s gender grade socioeconomic status or parent educational background Also student proficiency is not dependent on a student s attitude to learning or engagement in class or a student s attitude toward the curriculum
