Tourism, Conflict and Contested Heritage in Former Yugoslavia Josef Ploner, Patrick Naef, 2018-12-07 Described as cultural crossroads or mosaic powder keg border bridge or Europe's Other the region comprising former Yugoslavia has over time conjured up ambiguous imaginaries associated with political unrest national contest and ethnic divide Since the disintegration of Yugoslavia and the succeeding Yugoslav Wars of the 1990s both the geography and historiography of the region have been thoroughly reconfigured which has impacted the ways in which heritage is interpreted and used at local regional and national levels In this ongoing process of heritage re interpretation tourism is more than just a dark spectacle While it can be seen as a catalyst through which to filter or normalise dissonant memories it can also be utilised as a powerful ideological tool which enables the narrative reinvention of contested traditions and divisive myths Drawing on case studies from Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Kosovo this volume generates new and fascinating insights into the contested terrain of heritage tourism in former Yugoslavia It explores the manifold ways in which tourism stakeholders engage with capitalise on and make sense of sites and events marked by conflict and trauma Unlike many previous studies this book features contributions by emerging early career scholars emanating from within the region and working across disciplines such as anthropology art history geography and political studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Tourism and Cultural Change

Women of the Wall Yuval Jobani, Nahshon Perez, 2017-06-01 In October of 2014 12 year old Sasha Lutt read from a tiny Torah scroll as a part of her bat mitzvah in the Women's section of the plaza at the Western Wall Judaism's holiest prayer site Surrounded by members of the multi denominational organization the Women of the Wall one of whom had smuggled the scroll into the plaza Sasha became the first woman to read from the Torah at the site For more than twenty five years the Women of the Wall have been waging a campaign to gain the Israeli government's permission to pray at the Western Wall Despite widespread media coverage this is the first comprehensive study of their struggle Yuval Jobani and Nahshon Perez offer an in depth analysis of the Women of the Wall's attempts to modify Jewish orthodox mainstream religious practice from within and invest it with a new egalitarian content They present a comprehensive survey of the numerous legal rulings about the case and consider the broader political and social significance of the Women of the Wall's activism In this way Jobani and Perez are able to address broader issues of religion state relations How should governments manage religious plurality within their borders How should governments

respond to the requests of minorities that conflict with ostensibly mainstream interpretations of a given tradition How should governments manage disputed sacred sites and spaces located in the public sphere Women of the Wall Navigating Religion in Sacred Sites offers a critical new look at theories of religion state relations and a fresh examination of religious conflicts over sacred sites and public spaces Strategic Environmental Assessment and Urban Planning Giovanni Campeol,2020-07-06

This volume gathers a selection of research contributions on Strategic Environmental Assessment SEA including theoretical and methodological studies and real world case studies It sheds new light on the respective steps in the procedure defined in the SEA Directive from theoretical and operational standpoints intended to enhance the sustainability of plans and programmes adopted by local regional and national authorities Improving the legitimacy and transparency of decision making in the field of environmental management was one of the goals that led the European Commission EU to adopt Directive 2001 42 EC on the assessment of environmental programmes effects This book provides a multidisciplinary approach to SEA and addresses the demand for policies and strategies to strengthen resilience through concrete measures to reduce energy consumption mitigate pollution promote social inclusion and create urban identity Positive Tourism in Africa Mucha Mkono,2019-03-20 Positive Tourism in Africa provides a crucial counter narrative to the prevailing colonial and reductionist perspective on Africa s tourism trajectory and future It offers a uniquely optimistic outlook for tourism in Africa whilst acknowledging the many challenges that African countries continue to grapple with By examining broad and localized empirical studies conceptual frameworks culturally centered paradigms and innovative methodological approaches for African contexts this book showcases the many facets of tourism in Africa that illustrate hope resilience growth and survival This volume explores themes such as community based tourism wildlife tourism tourism governance and leadership crisis recovery regional integration the role of indigenous knowledge event tourism and the impact of smart technologies It acknowledges the challenges and opportunities for growth that exist in these various contexts and explores how tourism creates value for the spectrum of its participants Including a wide selection of contributions from diverse authors many of them African this book offers an Afro centric interpretation of tourism phenomena It will be of great interest to students researchers and academics in the field of Tourism and African Studies as well as Development Studies and Geography

Thanatourism and Cinematic Representations of Risk Rodanthi Tzanelli,2016-04-14 In today s world the need to eliminate natural and human made disasters has been at the forefront of national and international socio political agendas The management of risks such as terrorism labour strikes protests and environmental degradation has become pivotal for countries that depend on their economy s tourist sector Indeed there is fear that that the end of tourism might be nigh due to inadequate institutional foresight Yet in designing relevant policies to tackle this arts such as that of filmmaking have yet to receive due consideration This book adopts an unorthodox approach to debates about the end of tourism Through twenty first century cinematic narratives of symbolically interconnected risks it considers how art envisages the future of humanity s well being These risks include migration as an infectious disease alien incursions as racialized labour mobilities cyborg rebellion as the fear of post colonial otherness and zombie anthropophagy as the replacement of rooted identities by nomadic lifestyles Such filmic scenarios articulate the futuristic survival of community as the triumph of the technological human over otherness and provide a means to debate societal risks that weave identity politics into unequal mobilities This book will appeal to researchers and students interested in mobilities theory tourism and travel theory film studies and aesthetics globalisation studies race labour and migration

Yearning to Belong Patrick Pillai, 2015-10-14 Malaysia is among the most ethnically diverse and culturally rich nations on earth Yet much of its cultural wealth lies buried beneath the rubric of its main Malay Chinese and Indian race categories the dazzling diversity within and outside these groups remains largely unexplored This book uncovers some of this fascinating diversity through the stories of five little known acculturated ethnic groups in Peninsula Malaysia The author a Malaysian sociologist delivers an insightful and lucid study of these groups with some surprising findings These communities illustrate how much more cross cultural mingling sharing and co dependence there is within Malaysian society than we care to recognize admit or celebrate This raises various questions Is a similar process of spontaneous inter ethnic interaction possible between larger ethnic groups today How can we foster such acculturation and can it by itself contribute to ethnic harmony The author also discovers that despite their long settlement and deep acculturation segments of these groups are anxious about their future and pine for an indigenous identity What are the implications of this trend for ethnic relations and how can it be resolved This book traces the acculturation journey of these communities and draws lessons for ethnic relations in one of the most complex multi ethnic nations in the world It will appeal to scholars students laymen and visitors interested in migration history culture ethnicity and heritage in Malaysia and the region

The Draw of the Alps Richard McClelland,2023-10-24

The Alps have exerted a hold over the German cultural imagination throughout the modern period enthralling writers artists philosophers scientists and tourists alike The Draw of the Alps interrogates the dynamics of this fascination Though philosophical and aesthetic responses to Alpine space have shifted over time the Alps continue to captivate at an individual and collective level This has resulted in myriad cultural engagements with Alpine space as this interdisciplinary volume attests Literature photography and philosophy continue to engage with the Alps as a place in which humans pursue their cognitive and aesthetic limits At the same time individuals engage physically with the alpine environment whether as visitors through the well established leisure industry as enthusiasts of extreme sports or as residents who feel the acute end of social and environmental change Taking a transnational view of Alpine space the volume demonstrates that the Alps are not geographically peripheral to the nation state but are a vibrant locus of modern cultural production As The Draw of the Alps attests the Alps are nothing less than a crucible in which understandings of what it means to be human have been forged
