MIMED Forum IV Beyhan Bolak Hisarligil, Gülsün Sağlamer, 2014-08-11 This book is the outcome of one of the Forum Series on Architectural Education organized by the Architectural Education Association of Turkey MIMED on the theme of Flexibility in Architecture At Forum IV the architectural education platform was cross examined new ideas and experiences were shared and the potentials of regeneration were discovered The notion of flexibility in architectural education is the subject of fresh and vital debate which is based on whether it is achieved by the inner dynamics of architecture or the external dynamics However this debate seems null and void since the dynamics of both sides seem to necessitate flexibility in architectural education at almost the same level Hence the attitude that the prerequisite for creating flexibility according to the inner dynamics of architecture depends on the protection of architectural education from the coercive effects of external dynamics is no longer a relevant issue Furthermore architectural education as a role model in such a debate becomes more important not only in a monotyping global context but also in the local social context as well Herein lies a fundamental dichotomy arising from the fact that because of globalization curricula may face the risk of becoming uniform Any effort to overcome this dichotomy in such a debate seems vital Then the question arises whether such a dichotomy which turns architectural education from an autonomous discipline into a quasi autonomous one transforms architectural education into a rather political issue If the autonomous nature of architectural education resists globalization the question of the manner in which this resistance occurs and what impact it will have on architectural education seems of the utmost importance The volume begins with a preface by Gulsun Saglamer President of MIMED Contributors include Juhani Pallasmaa Kim Dovey Kojin Karatani Herman Neuckermans Conall Cath in Mark Olweny Ugur Tanyeli Ferhan Yurekli Gulsun Saglamer Fatma Erkok Rengin Unver Cigdem Polatoglu S Mujdem Vural Iris Aravot Acalya Allmer Sigrun Prahli Aslihan Senel Sevgi Turkkan Burcin Kurtuncu Sait Ali Koknar Ozlem Berber Funda Uz Sonmez Akin Sevinc Danelle Briscoe Kurt Gouwy Aydan Balamir Mine Ozkar Basak Ucar Semra Arslan Selcuk Arzu Gonenc Sorguc Sema Alacam Esra Gurbuz Urs Hirschberg and Ahu Sokmenoglu Project Work Second Edition - Resource Books for Teachers Diana L. I Am a Pencil Sam Swope, 2025-08-22 A teacher discovers how reading writing and imagining can help children grow change and even sometimes survive A few years back children s book writer Sam Swope gave a workshop to a third grade class in Queens So enchanted was he with his twenty eight students that he adopted the class for three years teaching them to write stories and poems Almost all were new Americans his class included students from twenty one countries and Swope was drawn deep into their real and imaginary lives their problems hopes and fears I Am a Pencil is the story of his years with this very special group of students It is as funny warm heartbreaking and hopeful as the children themselves Swope follows his colorful troop of resilient writers from grades three to five coaxing out their stories watching talents blossom explode and sometimes fizzle holding his breath as the kids families brave new lives in a strange big city We meet Susie whose mom was a Taoist priestess Alex who cannot seem to tell the truth and Noelia a wacky Dominican chatterbox All of the children have big dreams Some have big problems Salvador an Ecuadorian boy must cope with a strict Pentecostal father Soo Jung mystifies Swope with sudden silences until he discovers that her mother has left the family Preparing his students for a world of adult dangers Swope is astonished by their courage humanity but most of all by their strength Integrating the Visual Arts

Across the Curriculum Julia Marshall,2019-09-13 With lots of examples and color images this resource is both a foundational text and a practical guidebook for bringing contemporary art into elementary and middle school classrooms as a way to make learning joyful and meaningful for all learners The authors show how asking questions and posing problems spark curiosity and encourage learners to think deeply and make meaningful connections across the curriculum At the center of their approach is creativity with contemporary visual art as its inspiration The text covers methods of creative inquiry based learning art and how it connects to the big ideas addressed by academic domains flexible structures teachers can use for curriculum development creative teaching strategies using contemporary art and models of art based inquiry curriculum Book Features Provides research based project ideas and curriculum models for arts integration Shows how Project Zero s flexible structures and frameworks can be used to develop creative inquiry and an arts integration curriculum Explains how contemporary visual art connects to the four major disciplines science mathematics social studies and language arts Includes full color images of contemporary art that are appropriate for elementary and middle school learners Demonstrates how arts integration can and should be substantive multi dimensional and creative If you long for an arts classroom that connects students to the astonishingly interesting world they live in and want some helpful guidance on how to do it this is the book for you From the Foreword by Connie Stewart University of Northern Colorado Caldecott Connections to Social Studies

Shan Glandon,2000-09-15 Take advantage of the appeal and power of Caldecott award literature to extend and promote learning across the curriculum In these two volumes the author demonstrates how to use award winning books as springboards to science and social studies learning in the library and classroom and to expand student awareness and appreciation of illustration techniques For each Caldecott title there is background information on the illustrations curriculum connections lesson plans and support materials for teaching Glandon also integrates Gardner s multiple intelligences with curriculum content With a flexible discovery approach these activity units focus on student centered experiential holistic and authentic learning and they are ready for instant implementation Targeted to primary grade objectives and abilities the books include an array of individual projects and collaborative ones They also foster collaborations between library media specialists and classroom teachers Speculative Everything Anthony Dunne,Fiona Raby,2013-12-06 How to use design as a tool to create not only things but ideas to speculate about possible futures Today designers often focus on making technology easy to use sexy and consumable In Speculative Everything Anthony Dunne and

Fiona Raby propose a kind of design that is used as a tool to create not only things but ideas For them design is a means of speculating about how things could be to imagine possible futures This is not the usual sort of predicting or forecasting spotting trends and extrapolating these kinds of predictions have been proven wrong again and again Instead Dunne and Raby pose what if questions that are intended to open debate and discussion about the kind of future people want and do not want Speculative Everything offers a tour through an emerging cultural landscape of design ideas ideals and approaches Dunne and Raby cite examples from their own design and teaching and from other projects from fine art design architecture cinema and photography They also draw on futurology political theory the philosophy of technology and literary fiction They show us for example ideas for a solar kitchen restaurant a flypaper robotic clock a menstruation machine a cloud seeding truck a phantom limb sensation recorder and devices for food foraging that use the tools of synthetic biology Dunne and Raby contend that if we speculate more about everything reality will become more malleable The ideas freed by speculative design increase the odds of achieving desirable futures

The Worlding Project Christopher Leigh Connery, Rob Wilson, 2007-10-30 Globalization discourse now presumes that the world space is entirely at the mercy of market norms and forms promulgated by reactionary U S policies An academic but accessible set of studies this wide range of essays by noted scholars challenges this paradigm with diverse and strong arguments Taking on topics that range from the medieval Mediterranean to contemporary Jamaican music from Hong Kong martial arts cinema to Taiwanese politics writers such as David Palumbo Liu Meaghan Morris James Clifford and others use innovative cultural studies to challenge the globalization narrative with a new and trenchant tactic called worlding The book posits that world literature cultural studies and disciplinary practices must be worlded into expressions from disparate critical angles of vision multiple frameworks and field practices as yet emerging or unidentified This opens up a major rethinking of historical givens from Rob Wilson s reinvention of The White Surfer Dude to Sharon Kinoshita s Deprovincializing the Middle Ages Building on the work of cultural critics like Edward Said Gayatri Spivak and Kenneth Burke The Worlding Project is an important manifesto that aims to redefine the aesthetics and politics of postcolonial globalization with alternative forms and frames of global becoming

Golden Ticket Kate Egan, 2022-06-21 A middle grade novel by Kate Egan Golden Ticket explores friendship academic anxiety and what it means to be special It s practically like a private school Mrs Silver said bitterly The best teacher for such a tiny group of students Who wouldn t succeed in a class like that She took off her sunglasses to glare at the dad Those kids get picked out when they re seven years old and they get handed a golden ticket Of course they become stars Eleven year old Ash McNulty is one of the gifted and talented kids at her school spending most of her day in a special class with a few other advanced students As the end of fifth grade rolls around she should be on top of the world According to everyone she s going to rock junior high But Ash has a secret She can t keep up with her advanced classmates anymore The minute she asks for help though everyone will know she's not who they think she is. She's not so smart. She might not even be that special. And her parents will be crushed to discover the truth. If Ash can win the Quiz Bowl though that will show everyone that she is still on top. If she gets a lucky break ahead of time all the better. Except that lucky break backfires. And Ash is left to question everything she thought she knew about school friends and success.

Investigating Classroom Interaction, 2009-01-01
This book adds a new perspective to existing research methodology literature on analyzing social interactions in the classroom. Not only does this book introduce multiple research methodologies for analyzing classroom interactions but it also demonstrates these methodologies at work in different empirical research studies. The authors of this book are all internationally well recognized for their research work on the social life of classrooms and now for the first time they provide concrete accounts of the ways in which the theories and methodologies they have chosen to guide their research work function in action. These black boxes or tacit knowledge of conducting different types of analyses on classroom interaction have seldom been opened up in such a concrete way in the existing research literature. This book is an edited collection of papers introducing strands of research on classroom interaction whose logic of inquiry illuminate different approaches, analyses and interpretations of social interactions and discourses in contemporary classroom settings. The methodological approaches discussed draw on studies of language and discourse ethnography as well as on sociological, psychological and domain specific analyses. In recognizing the complexity and challenges in mapping out the complex research territory focusing on classroom interactions, the prime goal of the book is to build a complimentary context for discussion of the ways in which different approaches to classroom interaction are realized and how they produce different analyses because of their purpose, conceptual framework and methodological choice. The illumination of diverse approaches to classroom interaction and discourse is believed to demonstrate the potential and challenges each strand of research is likely to bring towards understanding the psychological, social and cultural life of the classroom and how these mediate the situated practice of teaching and learning in today's schooling. This book is targeted towards researchers and graduate students working within the field of social sciences, education and psychology. It also makes an excellent text for courses in research methodology, education and related fields.

Climate Change Adaptation in Pacific Countries, Walter Leal Filho, 2017-02-07
This book showcases vital lessons learned from research field projects and best practice examples with regard to climate change adaptation in countries throughout the Pacific region, a part of the planet that is particularly vulnerable to and affected by climate change. The book's primary goals are to document the wealth of experiences in the region available today to encourage cross sector interactions among the various stakeholders in the region and to help transfer results to other countries and regions. Accordingly, it gathers a set of papers presented at a symposium on climate change adaptation held in Fiji in July 2016 focusing on Fostering Resilience and Improving the Quality of Life. In these contributions, local and international experts present a variety of initiatives showing how Pacific countries are coping with the many problems associated with climate change including initiatives in education and awareness work taking place across the region operational aspects and their implications for policy making and challenges in urban and rural areas From the City as a Project to the City Project Fernando Carrión Mena, Sebastián Rodríguez Alvarez, 2025-09-26 The city has historically been conceived as a project with a sense of duty to be it is the prefiguration of a reality that emerges from the negation of the pre existing city The city anticipates a desired future from an ideal perspective that tends to overcome the existing structural or particular challenges of the present It can be argued that this proposition represents the historical trajectory of urban thought on a planetary scale Therefore the prospective dimension of the city constituted a central dynamic in urban theory throughout history leading to the emergence of planning as a key approach The history of the city as a project is the core of the first volume in this two part contribution It presents an overview of diverse city projects that have been pursued throughout history providing a framework for exploring new perspectives of urban development The cities profiled and analyzed here reflect a living catalog of initiatives that can inform promising directions More than a compilation this volume compares and critically assesses these historical projects to provide a grounding for the contemporary advances presented in the second volume Speculative Everything, With a new preface by the authors Anthony Dunne, Fiona

The Indies of the Setting Sun Ricardo Padrón, 2020-07-29 Padrón reveals the evolution of Spain's imagining of the New World as a space in continuity with Asia Narratives of Europe's westward expansion often tell of how the Americas came to be known as a distinct landmass separate from Asia and uniquely positioned as new ground ripe for transatlantic colonialism But this geographic vision of the Americas was not shared by all Europeans While some imperialists imagined North and Central America as undiscovered land the Spanish pushed to define the New World as part of a larger and eminently flexible geography that they called las Indias and that by right belonged to the Crown of Castile and León Las Indias included all of the New World as well as East and Southeast Asia although Spain's understanding of the relationship between the two areas changed as the realities of the Pacific Rim came into sharper focus. At first the Spanish insisted that North and Central America were an extension of the continent of Asia. Eventually they came to understand East and Southeast Asia as a transpacific extension of their empire in America called las Indias del poniente or the Indies of the Setting Sun. The Indies of the Setting Sun charts the Spanish vision of a transpacific imperial expanse beginning with Balboa's discovery of the South Sea and ending almost a hundred years later with Spain's final push for control of the Pacific. Padrón traces a series of attempts both cartographic and discursive to map the space from Mexico to Malacca, revealing the geopolitical imaginations at play in the quest for control of the New World and Asia. Watershed
