Internal Martial Arts Nei Gong Meditation Expert:

Internal Martial Arts Nei-gong Bill Bodri, John Newton, 2011 In many old martial arts films you often see a master capable of extraordinary supernormal feats such as being able to move with the speed of wind throw incredibly heavy objects destroy them with a strike stride over water or even fly through the air Are such things possible The Chinese Taoists say yes if the master practiced special exercises to cultivate their inner energy or yang chi qi These practices to cultivate inner power are called nei gong or the internal martial arts and are related to the mastery of the kundalini energies cited in Indian yogic and Buddhist literature which also explains the various superpowers that become possible with its cultivation Many people today want to be able to attain such supernormal skills or they simply want to understand why and how these skills were cultivated so they might be duplicated as best possible Some practitioners of Tai Chi Chuan Hsing Yi Ba Gua Zhang Five Animals Aikido Karate Judo Northern Shaolin and other Kung Fu Wushu traditions have alternatively damaged their bodies from their practice or have reached a training plateau and want some sure methods to break their current limits and bring their martial arts skills to the next level This book explains the major practices on how to properly cultivate nei gong safely to achieve all these objectives The information provided because of its advance nature was usually considered the high secrets of martial arts lineages made available only to the top students who also practiced breathing methods and meditation It explains how to cultivate the mythical martial arts through the initial practice of qi gong and then inner nei gong exercises involving anapana pranayama one pointed visualization kasina meditations and sexual cultivation It provides training information applicable to Iron Palm Iron Shirt or Dim Mak techniques which though incredible in themselves still fall far short of the special supernormal achievements possible after a martial arts student successfully opens up their chakras and chi channels in particular their sushumna central channel and the macrocosmic chi circulation within the body This is the only book in English offering detailed instructions on how to cultivate the Taoist concept of shen which is the stage of awareness attained after cultivating your chi to a high level For purposes of attaining inner gong fu kung fu it also teaches how to cultivate the Six Yogas of Naropa and the Tibetan tantric mantras for opening up the body's central chi channel In terms of specific long term nei gong methods it stresses visualization and anapana practices which are explained in conjunction with more advanced techniques for dissolving inner energy blockages Rather than just focusing on internal martial arts kung fu the authors go even a step further also bring forth many rarely discussed modern training principles for peak athletic performance that can be applied to martial arts and provide practical information on various vitamin mineral supplements detoxification routines and bodywork therapies that can help heal martial arts injuries and lead to improved skills even if the nei gong route of internal martial arts energies and gong fu is not mastered This is a truly unique book quite different than what's normally available for the martial arts tradition because it provides full materials on topics rarely covered elsewhere and reveals not one two or three but a plethora of inner training practices even for qi gong along with what are normally considered their secret training details

Ba Gua Nei Gong Vol. 3 Tom Bisio, 2013-11 Embedded within the martial art Ba Gua Zhang is a complete system of internal exercises that promote self healing and longevity and transform consciousness Ba Gua Nei Gong consists of nine powerful and profound methods of internal exercise and self cultivation This book is the third in a series of manuals on Ba Gua Nei Gong It can be used in conjunction with actual instruction in Ba Gua Zhang or employed as a stand alone instruction manual This book presents Ba Gua s unique 12 posture standing practice Ba Gua Twelve Posture Standing Nei Gong imparts Sinew Strength It is therefore an excellent exercise for strengthening the body and stabilizing the joints Unlike basic standing in which the body is evenly balanced on two legs Twelve Posture Standing presents a challenging mix of back weighted front weighted and even single leg postures that develop balance and refined strength and power Each stance engages with the energy and breath in a unique and different way Therefore regular practice of the 12 postures not only strengthens but also opens up the whole body These twelve postures or stances are in some sense frozen moments of movement from one position to another Holding such moments of transition in which the center of gravity has just moved and is about to move again allows one to sense the internal energetic configuration of a part of a movement In this way one can fully engage with the spiral power configurations wrapping twisting drilling and coiling that those stances impart An additional section of the book details Ba Gua Three Posture Standing a precursor to the Single Palm Change Ba Gua Zhang s signature maneuver Ba Gua Zhang is known for its circular walking fast footwork and rapidly changing postures and palms Twelve Posture Standing and Three Posture Standing provide balanced counterpoints to Ba Gua s moving postures and the eight basic palm changes The books in the Ba Gua Nei Gong Series are Ba

Super Neigong of Ancient Monks David Teng, 2021-02-16 Drastically Upgrade Your Internal Body More Effective Than Yoga Exercise QiGong Taichi Weights Meditation Hypnosis A Monk s Quest for Enlightenment There was a Monk hoping to reach enlightenment he was already close who also heard about the Walking Meditation and is ready to start He set up a pole that span across a temple and hooked his hair onto the pole He would then walk back and forth within the temple and would not be able to lie down or sit down When he got sleepy he would nap only a little by resting against the walls of the temple A Devotion Beyond Measure He did this for 30 continuous days During the process his legs and feet swelled beyond imagination Pus and blood started to come out from lumps on the swollen feet and legs No doubt it was painful But people from the ancient times had a simple mind and their drive to achieve enlightenment was none like others So it is really us that have deteriorated in the modern times He didn t really think much about the pain and just pushed on If it were someone in modern times a little pus would send him her into a frenzy of fear and into the hospital to ask for treatment The Ancient Wisdom Unveiled Eventually the puss and blood stopped and the swelling went away The legs and feet returned to normal But the legs are now like never before The skins are like those of new born babies And not just the feet The rest of the body too His hair and face have also rejuvenated It turns out the body was just casting out the toxins long stored within his body even the toxins he was born with The Moment of Enlightenment After a month of walk he thought to himself I think I ve done enough and I really do need a good sleep So he untied his hair and start to lay down on a pillow Just as he head touched the pillow he did it He attained enlightenment So he attained enlightenment and got a much better looking physical body Pretty good deal right The Core Inner Energy Method When you practice the core inner energy method of Neigong the inner energy generated is hard and hammer like It breaks down the major energy physical blockages in your body This is because Neigong is at the center of Qi cultivation The Order of Qi Cultivation The important order of your Qi cultivation The order is Wu Gong Qi Gong Nei Gong Tao Gong Zen Gong The latter two Tao and Zen Gong are more geared toward spiritual enlightenment which comes naturally after Neigong Everyone is trying to do Zen Gong before all of those previous 4 steps The reversal of this order dramatically slows their cultivation development Nei Gong The Gateway to True Health Once the Neigong step is complete one will progress into the four Levels of Zen meditative states easily The hammer like practices no it s not intense exercise are the basis of Nei Gong or Internal Kung Fu This will give back a truly healthy body This cannot be done with Wu Gong sports exercises or muscle workouts that strengthens your physique and Qi but not focused on clearing the internal blockages Only after all the blockages in your body are cleared can you be called a truly healthy person book is the first in a series of manuals on Ba Gua Nei Gong It can be used in conjunction with actual instruction in Ba Gua Zhang or employed as a stand alone instruction manual Yin Yang Patting Nei Gong is often the starting point for learning Ba Gua Zhang and for the practice of Nei Gong and other Yang Sheng Nourishing Life Exercises The primary function of the Patting Nei Gong is to begin to open the meridians by patting and slapping along their trajectories Unblocking opening and coursing the meridians in this manner is an important precursor to advanced energetic practices Dao Yin Nei Gong is often performed in conjunction with the Patting Nei Gong because the two practices have different yet complimentary actions While the Patting Nei Gong focuses on dispersing energy blockages and their accompanying muscular tension Dao Yin Nei Gong emphasizes regulating the internal energetics of the body The mechanism that promotes and harmonizes the functioning of the internal organs and their organic interconnections is known as the Qi Dynamic The Dao Yin exercises work directly to regulate the Qi Dynamic thereby stimulating one's natural healing powers and preventing disease from taking root This in turn promotes health and proper functioning of the body These two Nei Gong methods are relatively simple to perform yet profound in their effect Patting and Dao Yin work together in a harmonious yin yang balance In order to properly train the Qi Dynamic the pathways of the qi the meridians must be relatively open and unrestricted As these energetic pathways are opened the qi must be regulated so that its movements and actions are smooth and harmonious These fundamental methods of simul

has existed Tight hard and knotted muscles are erringly seen as being fit It can be difficult to accept and understand that training is definitively not about exhausting oneself in order to achieve good healthy results Especially as we have been indoctrinated by phrases like no pain no gain Reality is rather different Systems of movement like Tai Chi and Qi Gong which strongly encourage the balancing of bones and joints and where the movements are aimed at being liquid with a release of the joints while letting go of all unnecessary muscle tension are a far better bid at an appropriate form of exercise This way the muscles are being exercised without fatigue The physical balance is developed while flexibility and mobility are preserved Added to this is a strengthening of the bones and the integration of body and mind as well as one's own experience of peace and wellbeing A well balanced skeleton is the foundation for relaxed muscles and free movement of the joints The book is based on the author's experience of more than 30 years and contains a wealth of training tips instructive photos and links to video clips of key exercises It also includes excerpts from his dairies and anecdotes from his personal experiences with some of his teachers teachers who are among the very best when it comes to Internal Martial Arts as well as Qi Gong Standing meditation Zhan Zhuang will be a cornerstone and common thread throughout the book In this you will experience time and again how the author returns to standings and describes new angles and new takes on the subject Torben Bremann the author was born in 1960 He started learning Taiji and Qigong in 1987 from Master Chu King Hung disciple of Master Yang Shou Shung In 1989 he came in contact with Master Chen Guan Ming and in 1994 he became a student and disciple of the latter's Master He Gong De and amongst other things learned Chen style Zhan Zhuang standing and Emei Qigong from him until his death in 1999 From 1991-1998 he also received teaching from Patrick Kelly a long time student of Master Huang Xingxian In 1998 he was introduced to Master Yek Sing Ong and Master Wee Kee Jin from whom he has learned Taiji and Zhan Zhuang From 1999 to 2007 he was a private student and close friend of Wee Kee Jin In 2005 he was accepted as a private student by Master Sam Tam in Taiji Zhan Zhuang Qigong etc Apart from these he has had several other teachers as mentioned in the book He has amongst other things an education in traditional Chinese Medicine psychomotor therapy psychotherapy is a specialist in anatomy motion analysis and physical training and has a background in both western and eastern medicine
