Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders, Peter Limb, 2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa

The Handbook of Civil Society in Africa Ebenezer Obadare, 2013-09-21 This volume brings together the most up to date analyses of civil society in Africa from the best scholars and researchers working on the subject Being the first of its kind it casts a panoramic look at the African continent drawing out persisting if often under communicated variations in regional discourses In a majority of notionally global studies Africa has received marginal attention a marginality often highlighted by the usual token chapter Filling a critical hiatus the Handbook of Civil Society in Africa takes Africa African developments and African perspectives very seriously and worthy of academic interrogation in their own right It offers a critical clear sighted perspective on civil society in Africa and positions African discourses within the framework of important regional and global debates It promises to be an invaluable reference work for researchers and practitioners working in the fields of civil society nonprofit studies development studies volunteerism civic service and African studies Endorsements This volume signposts a critical turning point in the renewed engagement with the theory and practice of civil society in Africa Moving from traditional concerns with disquisitions on the appropriateness and possibility of the existence and vibrancy of the idea of civil society on the continent the volume approaches the forms contents and features of the actually existing civil society in Africa from thematic regional and national angles It demonstrates clearly the extent to which core intellectual work on civil society in Africa has largely moved from concerns with cultural reductionism to a nuanced examination of the complexities of formal non formal organizational non organizational traditional newer usual unusual engagements detailing the extent to which over time civil society as a concept has been indigenized appropriated and adapted in the terrains of politics society economy culture and new technologies on the continent In all this the book accomplishes the near impossible Without sacrificing the vigour rigor and freshness of the often unpredictable fruits of up to date research into regional and national differences that crop up in the documentation of Africa's multiple realities and discourses the volume weaves together a rich tapestry of the historical theoretical and practical dimensions of an expanding civil society sector and accompanying growth in popular discourse advocacy and academic literature in such a diverse continent as Africa into a meaningful whole of insightful themes Written and edited by a very distinguished cross continental and multi disciplinary collection of researchers research students practitioners and activists the volume provides cutting edge evidence and makes a definitive case for a new lease of life for civil society research in Africa Adigun Agbaje Professor of Political Science University of Ibadan Nigeria Throughout Africa forms of civic engagement and political participation have seen dynamic change in recent decades yet conceptions of civil society have rarely accounted for this evolution This volume is an essential source of new thinking about political association and collective action in Africa The authors offer a wealth of analysis on changing organizations and social movements new forms of interaction and communication emerging strategies and issues diverse social foundations and the theoretical implications of a shifting associational landscape The contributors provide an invaluable addition to the comparative literature on political change democratic development and social movements in Africa Peter Lewis Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced international Studies Facing An Unequal World Raquel Sosa Elizaga, 2018-02-26 Raquel Sosa El zaga has assembled an incredibly complete set of analyses of inequality written by a range of scholars about a wide range of issues Incomparable essential reading Immanuel Wallerstein Senior Research Scientist Sociology Yale University Over recent decades living conditions in poorer countries have deteriorated leaving us faced with the present phenomenon of global inequality Arguably the biggest challenge of the 21st Century is the confrontation and eventual elimination of the processes of structural inequality that affect these millions of human beings today Facing an Unequal World tackles and critically examines key issues and challenges for global sociology across these interrelated themes The dimensions of inequality and the configurations of structural inequalities and structures of power Conceptions of justice in different historical and cultural traditions Conflicts on environmental justice and sustainable futures The social injuries of inequality and overcoming inequalities Written by a selection of international key sociologists and academics this is a valuable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers in sociology alike

The Anthropology of White Supremacy Aisha M. Beliso-De Jesús, Jemima Pierre, Junaid Rana, 2025-01-28 White supremacy has shaped cultural anthropology from its inception yet the discipline also offers powerful tools for understanding how this corrosive force structures societies around the world The Anthropology of White Supremacy explores how this phenomenon works around the globe and within anthropology itself Gathering original essays from a diverse international group of anthropologists this collection illustrates that white supremacy far from being only a fringe belief of white nationalists and fascists is a core mainstream ideology The book includes essays about many countries including Brazil Mexico Nigeria Norway Senegal South Africa and the United States and takes up such topics as American advertising the

 Industrial and Economic Sociology Regulation and Social Policy Murder at Small Koppie Greg Marinovich, 2016-02-03
 The killing of thirty four miners by police at Marikana in August 2012 was the largest massacre of civilians in South Africa since Sharpeville The events have been covered in newspaper articles on TV news and in a commission of inquiry but there is still confusion about what happened on that fateful day In Murder at Small Koppie renowned photojournalist Greg Marinovich explores the truth behind the Marikana massacre He investigates the shootings near Wonderkop hill which happened in view of the media as well as the killings that happened beyond the view of cameras at a nondescript collection of boulders known as Small Koppie some 300 metres away Many of the men killed here were shot in cold blood at close range Drawing on his own meticulous research eyewitness accounts and the findings of the Marikana Commission of Inquiry Marinovich accurately reconstructs that fateful day as well as the events leading up to the strike and looks at the subsequent denials obfuscation and buck passing by Lonmin the SAPS and the government This is the definitive account of the Marikana massacre from the journalist whose award winning investigation into the tragedy has been called the most important piece of South African journalism since apartheid The Spirit of Marikana Luke Sinwell, Siphiwe Mbatha, 2016-07-20 On 16th August 2012 thirty four black mineworkers were gunned down by the police under the auspices of South Africa s African

National Congress ANC in what has become known as the Marikana massacre This attempt to drown independent working class power in blood backfired and is now recognised as a turning point in the country s history The Spirit of Marikana tells the story of the uncelebrated leaders at the world s three largest platinum mining companies who survived the barrage of state violence intimidation torture and murder which was being perpetrated during this tumultuous period What began as a discussion about wage increases between two workers in the changing rooms at one mine became a rallying cry for economic freedom and basic dignity This gripping ethnographic account is the first comprehensive study of this movement revealing how seemingly ordinary people became heroic figures who transformed their workplace and their country
