Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford,2007-04-26 Children s books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children s Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children s literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures Saskatchewan Writers University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2004 The more than 175 biographies in this volume together tell the story of writing in Saskatchewan As David Carpenter notes in his Introduction to the volume The writers whose lives are told in these pages are part of an extraordinary cultural community that has touched and been touched by the people and landscape of this province
