Museum Membership Innovation Rosie Siemer, 2020-04-02 Cultural organizations are entering an era of significant challenges Rising operating costs unpredictable funding sources stagnant membership and an increasingly competitive landscape for leisure activities indicate that these institutions have reached a critical juncture what has worked for them in the past will not work going forward At the same time massive shifts in demographics and lifestyles are driving changes in consumer behavior that threaten the survival of the traditional membership business model Drawing from a wide range of research spanning the disciplines of behavioral economics philanthropy and social psychology author and museum consultant Rosie Siemer explores the trends shaping the future of cultural organizations and offers innovative strategies designed to help them survive and thrive in today's rapidly changing marketplace Using museums as the primary subject matter of her research Siemer analyzes the challenges and opportunities for membership as a means of engaging existing members cultivating new audiences and keeping museums on track for sustainable revenue Tapping into the principles of design thinking and the lean startup methodology Siemer provides a fresh perspective into how museum leaders can adapt systems roles and metrics to encourage experimentation collaboration and agility within their organizations Change is required for museums to keep ahead of the curve and remain competitive Siemer writes Thankfully the time for taking steps to evolve has never been better New research bold experiments and pioneering leaders have helped to usher in an era of fresh thinking that challenges the status quo of the traditional membership model Loaded with thought provoking insights innovative case studies and practical applications for audience development marketing and membership Museum Membership Innovation offers museum leaders a framework for reimagining membership with an empathy first approach that prioritizes the needs of audiences

Henry Ford and his Researchers - History of their Work with Soybeans, Soyfoods and Chemurgy (1928-2011) William Shurtleff, Akiko Aoyagi, 2011-06 Comprehensive Calendar of Bicentennial Events American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, 1976-02 Comprehensive Calendar of Bicentennial Events, Think Like a Curator Donna R. Braden, 2025-04-01 Most history museums large and small indoor and outdoor have a staff member with the title of curator or at minimum have tasks that can be classified as curator's work But understanding what is involved in doing this work is more complicated than it seems This book will help you to think like a curator Written by an author who has spent 45 years doing this type of work at one of the largest history museums in the country this book guides the reader through curatorial methodology in today's world with topics that include reading objects shaping collections engaging in rigorous research the curatorial role in exhibitions and historic site interpretation the basics of curatorial writing and curators as leaders It gives special focus to applying DEAI lenses as well as aligning with institutional mission and goals incorporating audience perspectives and using conceptual and systems thinking Both succinct and substantial this book includes easy explanations step by step process guides practical tips real life examples activities and source lists Persistence and Vigilance Yvette

J. Lazdowski,2020-11-02 This accounting history study follows the major chronological events in the first 50 years of the Ford Motor Company from the perspective of accounting procedures and financial reporting Several key business executives are profiled along with their contributions to the implementation and maintenance of financial structures and policies

Leadership Matters Anne W. Ackerson,Joan H. Baldwin,2019-08-21 First published in 2013 this revision of Leadership Matters features nine new profiles and a new chapter of emerging museum leader voices proving that leadership is as much about individuals as institutions Using personal insights from the history museum field s most engaging innovative and entrepreneurial leaders these profiles focus not only on museum directors and CEOs but also on the leaders within deputies department heads and team leaders and those demanding change from the community Baldwin and Ackerson weave together the voices of 21st century museum leadership at its best creating a resource for graduate students mid career professionals institutions and boards of trustees to move from the status quo to being agile and influential fostering leadership that will make a difference Too many museums and heritage organizations still consider leadership development a nice to have but not a necessary component for a successful executive director or department head The field struggles to address a new round of cultural warfare fueled by widespread societal division and the overwhelming lack of diversity and equity in museum leadership at all levels including boards of trustees Additionally the field continues to ignore the gender pay gap despite a workforce hovering at 50 percent female and with the potential to grow significantly over the next decade More than ever successful museum leadership isn t the result of longevity scholarship or curatorial achievement In fact today s successful museum leaders bring myriad skills to the table creating a style that works both personally and professionally This snapshot of museum leadership focuses on history and cultural heritage organizations to help readers understand the power of individual leadership and its relationship to organizational strength This book features 36 interviews nine of them brand new to this edition with leaders in the field from a range of positions and institutions 10 myths of museum leadership and why they re wrong 10 simple truths of museum leadership A leadership agenda with criteria and goals for individual and organizational development

Henry's Attic Ford Richardson Bryan,1995 Henry s Attic provides fascinating documentation of some of the one million artifacts in the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village The items represent both Henry Ford s passion for collecting Americana and the astonishing array of gifts some of great historic value and others of a distinctly homegrown variety that account for almost half of the museum s collections It was the quantity of these gifts and the unusual and even unique nature of many of them that provided the inspiration for this book Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village which Ford established in Dearborn Michigan in the late 1920s was intended to recreate the slow paced rural character of America before the advent of the automobile The purchases he made and the gifts he was given reflect his desire to document and preserve the lifeways of common people and to emphasize middle class rural history as represented by the tools of agriculture industry and transportation

Breaking the Banks in Motor City Darwyn H. Lumley, 2009-09-12 This history tells the relatively unknown story of how the Detroit automobile industry played a major role in the 1933 banking crisis and the subsequent New Deal reforms that drastically changed the financial industry Spurred by failed decision making and conflicts of interest by automobile industry leaders Detroit banks experienced a critical emergency precipitating the federal closure of banks on March 4 1933 the first in a series of actions by which the federal government acquired power over economics previously held by states and private industrial and financial interests
