Islamic Republic of Iran International Monetary Fund. Middle East and Central Asia Dept., 2015-12-21 This Selected Issues paper discusses some options to strengthen Iran s fiscal framework and highlights the need for a medium term framework Fiscal policy design in Iran faces numerous challenges Some are current such as managing volatile oil revenue while addressing development needs Other challenges are related to demographic pressures from new entrants to the labor market as the country needs to prepare from aging pressures in the decades to come With medium term planning macroeconomic stability and adequate spending fiscal policy could play a critical role in fostering growth Ultimately addressing these issues would help Iran achieve its objective of becoming one of the fastest growing emerging economies

Responses to the 'Arabellions' Tanja Börzel, Assem Dandashly, Thomas Risse, 2017-10-02 This book studies the reactions by external actors including the European Union to the events unfolding in the Arab world beginning in December 2010 In particular contributors look at external actors attempts to balance their desire for stability with their normative principles toward human rights and democracy The book compares the action and inaction of the EU with other international and regional players including the United States Russia Turkey and Israel and assesses the response of these actors to the Arabellions events analysing changes in their approaches to the Arab region The contributions to this book answer three questions 1 How have external actors assessed the Arabellions and what role did they see for themselves in this context 2 Which goals and instruments did external actors pursue toward the MENA region In particular how did they deal with conflicting goals such as support for human rights and democracy on the one hand and concerns about security and stability on the other 3 How can we explain the varying responses of external actors to the Arabellions This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Integration Liberia International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2016-01-08 This paper discusses Liberia s Fourth Review Under the Extended Credit Facility ECF Arrangement and Requests for Waivers of Nonobservance of Performance Criteria PC Modification of PC and Rephasing and Extension of the Arrangement The end June 2014 quantitative PC on government revenues and central bank net foreign exchange position and one indicative target on net domestic assets were not met Only three out of seven structural benchmarks for the fourth review were met Based on the authorities corrective actions the IMF staff supports completion of the delayed fourth ECF review and the authorities request for an extension and re phasing of the program to end December 2016 Background Papers on The IMF and the Crises in Greece, Ireland, and Portugal Moisés J. Schwartz,Shinji Takagi,2017-06-30 This volume book brings together nine background papers prepared for an evaluation by the IMF Independent Evaluation Office of the IMF and the crises in Greece Ireland and Portugal It presents an authoritative work on the evolving relationship between the IMF and the euro area a common currency area founded in 1999 consisting of advanced highly integrated economies in Europe The euro area or any common currency area for that matter has posed challenges to the IMF s operational activities as its Articles of Agreement contain no provision for joint membership The challenges became intense when a series of crises erupted in Greece Ireland and Portugal from 2009 to 2011 and the Fund was called upon to help intervene by offering its financing and crisis management expertise The IMF found itself in uncharted territory where there was no precedent or established procedure The chapters many of which are prepared by prominent academics and former senior IMF officials who are thoroughly familiar with internal procedures discuss various aspects of the IMF s engagement with the euro area including precrisis surveillance how key decisions were made how the IMF collaborated with European institutions and how it designed and implemented its lending programs with the three crisis countries The book gives prominence to governance related issues given the large voting share of more than 20 percent within the IMF of euro area members and the subsequent public perception that the IMF treated the euro area more favorably than it does developing and emerging market members The approaches are both cross cutting and country based Some chapters deal with issues related to the euro area as a whole while others focus on how the Fund engaged with individual euro area countries The book contains a statement on the IEO evaluation by the IMF Managing Director and a Summing Up of the Executive Board discussion held in July 2016 European Yearbook / Annuaire Européen, Volume 71 (2023) Council of Europe,2024-11-18 The European Yearbook promotes the scientific study of nineteen European supranational organisations and the OECD Each volume contains a detailed survey of the history structure and yearly activities of each organisation and an up to date chart providing a clear overview of the member states of each organisation

HC 601 - Universal Credit: Progress Update Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Committee of Public

Accounts,2016 We acknowledge that Universal Credit has stabilised and made progress since the previous Committee of Public Accounts first reported on the programme in 2013 However there remains a long way to go Implementation of Universal Credit so far has focussed mainly on the simplest cases and the Department for Work Pensions has again delayed the programme The completion date for the roll out of its new digital service is six months later compared to when we looked at the programme only a year ago and the Department now expects that Universal Credit will be fully operational in March 2021 The Office for Budget Responsibility forecasts that there will be a further six month delay beyond the Department s latest planned end date We remain disappointed by the persistent lack of clarity and evasive responses by the Department to our inquiries particularly about the extent and impact of delays The Department s response to the previous Committee s recommendations in the February 2015 report Universal Credit progress update do not convince us that it is committed to improving transparency about the programme s progress

Tajikistan Asian Development Bank,2016-08-01 Building on robust economic growth since the end of a civil war in 1997 Tajikistan has transformed itself into a service economy driven by consumer spending fueled by strong remittance inflow Yet the transfer of resources to high value added sectors has been restrained and structural change has generated few new jobs Without sufficient employment opportunities in the services and industrial sectors agriculture became the fallback for most of the labor force To continue its economic growth Tajikistan requires new drivers from a diversified industry sector and a modernized economy through structural transformation and export diversification

A Thousand Cuts Alexandros Kentikelenis,Thomas Stubbs,2023 The dominant policy response to economic crises over the past four decades has been the introduction of austerity a mix of budget cuts and reforms to downsize the role of the state In A Thousand Cuts Alexandros Kentikelenis and Thomas Stubbs examine the activities of the world s leading advocate of austerity the International Monetary Fund As one of the first systematic assessments of the impact of austerity on people s lives around the world A Thousand Cuts makes an important contribution to the continuing debate on how to foster social protection in light of economic crises and IMF mandated policy reforms
