

A person wearing a black graduation cap and gown is shown from the back, with their right arm raised in a fist. The background is a warm, golden sunset sky. The text is overlaid on the lower half of the image.

So proud of you, my dear nephew. You are such a great person, and I know that you will go far in life. You will make us all so proud. Congratulations on your graduation!

Anthony, 2017-10-16 This book by Carl C Anthony offers a new story about race and place intended to bridge long standing racial divides The long ignored history of African American contributions to American infrastructure and the modern economic system is placed in the larger context of the birth of the universe and the evolution of humanity in Africa The author interweaves personal experiences as an architect planner environmentalist and black American with urban history racial justice cosmology and the challenge of healing the environmental and social damage that threatens the future of humankind Thoughtful writing about race urban planning and environmental and social equity is sparked by stories of life as an African American child in post World War II Philadelphia a student and civil rights activist in 1960s Harlem a traveling student of West African architecture and culture and a pioneering environmental justice advocate in Berkeley and New York This book will appeal to everyone troubled by racism and searching for solutions including individuals exploring their identity and activists eager to democratize power and advance equitable policies in historically marginalized communities This is a rich insightful encounter with an American urbanist with a uniquely expansive perspective on human origins who sets forth what he calls an inclusive vision for a shared planetary future Yank ,1943 A Letter to My Grandchildren Maria Sharp, 2017-01-01 Maria Sharp was born Maria Zdenka Besan in Croatia in 1941 just after the Nazis had invaded her country and as a young child she witnessed events that imprinted themselves upon her soul forever Many years later having married an American and settled in the USA she has written this book for her two grandchildren to explain her origins and tell her family's story. It paints a warm and moving picture of life in Croatia in the first half of the 20th century and describes the terrible effects on Maria's people of the German occupation, the subsequent period of communist control and the resulting second wave of destruction of Croatian homes, jobs and lives. The Jewelers' Circular, 1922 Building a new New World Jean-Louis

Cohen, 2021-01-12 An essential exploration of how Russian ideas about the United States shaped architecture and urban design from the czarist era to the fall of the U.S.S.R. Idealized representations of America as both an aspiration and a menace played an important role in shaping Russian architecture and urban design from the American Revolution until the fall of the Soviet Union. Jean-Louis Cohen traces the powerful concept of Amerikanizm and its impact on Russia's built environment from early czarist interest in Revolutionary America through the spectacular World's Fairs of the 19th century to department stores, skyscrapers and factories built in Russia using American methods during the 20th century. Visions of America also captivated the Russian avant-garde from El Lissitzky to Moisei Ginzburg and Cohen explores the ongoing artistic dialogue maintained between the two countries at the mid-century and in the late Soviet era following a period of strategic competition. This first major study of Amerikanizm in the architecture of Russia makes a timely contribution to our understanding of modern architecture and its broader geopolitics. Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1934 Vanity Fair

, 1920 Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization), 1995 Early Years in Machine Translation W. John Hutchins, 2000-01-01 This title details the history of the field of machine translation (MT) from its earliest years. It glimpses major figures through biographical accounts recounting the origin and development of research programmes as well as personal details and anecdotes on the impact of political and social events on MT developments.
