Narratives from the Classroom Paul Chamness Miller, 2005 Narratives from the Classroom: An Introduction to Teaching introduces the reader to many of the important classroom issues surrounding the field of teaching. This book is unique in that it is a collection of personal accounts and ideas written by the teachers and teacher educators who lived those experiences. Because this is an introduction to teaching, each chapter addresses a different topic ranging from the purpose of schools and teachers' issues about policies and programs in the school and various practices found within the classroom walls. There is also a section that addresses preparation for the job market and what the first year of teaching is like. This book deliberately avoids being prescriptive and encourages the reader to form his or her own conclusions about the presented issues.

The Jane Addams Children's Book Award Susan C. Griffith, 2013-09-05 Jane Addams 1860-1935 was an inspired activist who struck at the roots of social injustice through persistent and thoughtful action advocating for reforms in sanitation, housing, and work conditions, and child labor. In 1915 Addams founded the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) and in 1931 she became the first American female recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize. Eighteen years after Addams's death, members of the WILPF created the Jane Addams Children's Book Award. Presented annually, the award honors children's books that invite readers to think deeply about peace, social justice, world community, and equality for all races and genders. The Jane Addams Children's Book Award Honoring Children's Literature for Peace and Social Justice, since 1953 is the first book to examine the award as well as its winners and honor books. In this volume Susan C. Griffith reviews and synthesizes Addams's ideas and legacy so that her life and accomplishments can be used as a focal point for exploring issues of social justice through children's literature. In addition to a history and overview of the award, this work contains annotated bibliographies with thematically arranged winners and honor books bestowed in Addams's name. Supporting literature study in classrooms and integrating points of reflection drawn from the activist's life, The Jane Addams Children's Book Award is an invaluable resource for educators, students, and librarians.

Immigration and Children's Literature Wilma

Robles-Melendez, Audrey Henry, 2023-06-29 This book explores the issues faced by immigrant children through the lens of children's literature The authors employ the UN convention of the Rights of the Child the lens of equity and Freire's principles of critical consciousness as a framework for analysing children's literature and immigration They focus on circumstances and experiences of immigration from the perspective of young children who are leaving their homelands and growing up as immigrants The book focuses primarily on children from birth to 8 years old but with crossover and implications for older children The chapters reveal the social economic and political issues faced by child immigrants refugees and asylees throughout the global context viewed through and alongside children's literature The book provides suggestions for the implementation of children's literature in the curriculum and provides tools for educators and researchers working with immigrant and refugee children showing how they can better understand their students and families A variety of children's literature is covered including analysis of works by Jairo Buitrago Yanksook Choi Sandra leGuen Rosemary McCartney Bao Phi and Jeanette Winter

Fire and Ink Frances Payne Adler, Debra Busman, Diana Garc'a, 2009 Fire and Ink is a powerful and impassioned anthology of stories poems interviews and essays that confront some of the most pressing social issues of our day Designed to inspire and inform this collection embodies the concepts of breaking silence bearing witness resistance and resilience Beyond students and teachers the book will appeal to all readers with a commitment to social justice Fire and Ink brings together for the first time in one volume politically engaged writing by poets fiction writers and essayists Including many of our finest writers Mart n Espada Adrienne Rich June Jordan Patricia Smith

Gloria Anzaldúa, Sharon Olds, Arundhati Roy, Sonia Sanchez, Carolyn Forché, Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni, Alice Walker, Linda Hogan, Gary Soto, Kim Blaese, Minnie Bruce Pratt, Li Young Lee, and Jimmy Santiago Baca among others; this is an indispensable collection. This groundbreaking anthology marks the emergence of social action writing as a distinct field within creative writing and literature. Featuring never before published pieces as well as reprinted material, Fire and Ink is divided into ten sections focused on significant social issues including identity, sexuality, and gender, the environment, social justice, work, war, and peace. The pieces can often be gripping, such as Frame in which Adrienne Rich confronts government and police brutality, or Chris Abani's Ode to Joy which documents great courage in the face of mortal danger. Fire and Ink serves as a wonderful reader for a wide range of courses from composition and rhetoric classes to courses in ethnic studies, gender studies, American studies, and even political science by facing a past that was often accompanied by injustice and suffering. But beyond that, this collection teaches us that we all have the power to create a more equitable and just future.

How to Get Your Child to Love Reading Esmé Raji Codell, 2003-01-01 Offers advice and guidelines on how to expand a child's world through books and reading, introducing three thousand teacher recommended book titles, craft ideas, projects, recipes, and reading club tips.

Teaching Global Literature in Elementary Classrooms Kelly K. Wissman, Maggie Naughton Burns, Krista Jampetti, Heather O'Leary, Simeen Tabatabai, 2016-07-15 Demonstrating the power of teaching global literature from a critical literacy perspective, this book explores the ways that K-6 educators can infuse diverse texts into their classrooms and find support for their endeavours in teacher inquiry communities. Through carefully analyzed ethnographically informed portraits of classroom life, alternating with teachers' own accounts of their teaching and learning experiences, it demonstrates how students are moved to question, debate, and take action in response to global texts. This multi-vocal work both emerges from and responds to tensions and debates related to the purpose and practice of literature education in a time of Common Core State Standards.
