Geographical Data Science and Spatial Data Analysis Lex Comber, Chris Brunsdon, 2020-12-02 We are in an age of big data where all of our everyday interactions and transactions generate data Much of this data is spatial it is collected somewhere and identifying analytical insight from trends and patterns in these increasing rich digital footprints presents a number of challenges Whilst other books describe different flavours of Data Analytics in R and other programming languages there are none that consider Spatial Data i.e. the location attached to data or that consider issues of inference linking Big Data Geography GIS Mapping and Spatial Analytics This is a learning by doing textbook building on the previous book by the same authors An Introduction to R for Spatial Analysis and Mapping It details the theoretical issues in analyses of Big Spatial Data and developing practical skills in the reader for addressing these with confidence Intergenerational Mobilities Lesley Murray, Susan Robertson, 2016-10-04 Drawing from work on mobilities and geographies of the lifecourse this collection is concerned with the ways in which age as a relational concept is constructed and played out in mobile urban space With studies of ageing and mobility often focusing on discrete age groups most notably children and older people this study seeks to fill a gap in existing literature by exploring mobility in relation to the lifecourse and generation looking not only at the margins Whilst some generations are increasingly mobile others are less so and this disparity in mobility opportunity is relational as age is relational This book addresses gaps in knowledge in relational geographies of ageing whilst contributing to literature on mobility and transport in particular the burgeoning field of mobility in justice Here mobility is considered in its broadest sense for example in relation to the movement or lack of movement of bodies and to computer mediated intergenerational communications Through focusing on urban mobile spaces from very local spaces of medical care to global spaces of migration that are the context for intergenerational mobilities this collection explores these interdependencies and considers ways in which intergenerational mobilities are conceptualised and researched

Articulations of Capital John Pickles, Adrian Smith, 2016-01-19 Articulations of Capital offers an accessible grounded yet theoretically sophisticated account of the geographies of global production networks value chains and regional development in post socialist Eastern and Central Europe Proposes a new theorization of global value chains as part of a conjunctural economic geography Develops a set of conceptual and theoretical arguments concerning the regional embeddedness of global production Draws on longitudinal empirical research from over 20 years in the Bulgarian and Slovakian apparel industries Makes a major intervention into the debate over the economic geographies of European integration and EU enlargement Reconciling Cultural and Political Identities in a Globalized World Michális Michael, 2016-04-29 Though geographically far apart Turkey and Australia are much closer than many would think This collection provides a relevant comparative and comprehensive study of two countries seeking to reconcile their history with their geography Climate Consciousness and Environmental Activism in Composition Joseph R. Lease, 2020-02-18 Now more than ever in a time when Americans still do not believe that humans are the primary cause of Earth's climate change crisis the burden on educators to inform challenge and motivate students about sustainability is greater than it ever has been On college campuses writing intensive courses often located within First Year or General Education curricula are an ideal place to take up this charge because of the flexibility of their content and the high volume of students that they reach In this volume a varied group of composition instructors with wide ranges and types of experiences provides best practices for bringing issues surrounding climate change into the writing classroom From literature based composition and creative writing courses to design thinking workshops to seminars against sustainability the authors in this volume lay out a multitude of possibilities for blending writing and environmental concerns that fellow practitioners can easily adopt or modify for their own use Palestinian Refugees in International Law Francesca Albanese, Lex Takkenberg, 2020 The Palestinian conflict has produced one of the most tragic refugee crises since World War II with the number of refugees caused by the violence associated with the creation of the State of Israel numbering around 11 million in 2011 The much lauded first edition in 1998 of The Status of Palestinian Refugees in International Law was the first book to comprehensively analyse the legal aspects of the Palestinian refugee crisis yet the last two decades have seen multiple developments New waves of conflict and displacement have affected Palestinian refugees in the Middle East and there has been Israeli encroachment on Palestinian territory Hamas has grown and a schism has formed within the first Palestinian government The so called Arab Spring has impacted the life fate and legal status of thousands of Palestinian refugees In international legal jurisprudence change has been similarly rapid In 2004 the International Court of Justice delivered a crucial advisory opinion on the Separation Wall authoritatively elucidating the international legal framework applicable to the Israeli occupation Numerous international human rights bodies and UN fact finding missions have added their analysis to the mix The possibility of the State of Palestine joining the International Criminal Court has spurred discussion relating to the applicability of international criminal law to Palestinian refugees Clear compelling and authoritative Lex Takkenberg and Francesca Albanese discuss the status quo both on the ground and in the courts and pose future scenarios to come Development Challenges and Solutions After the Arab Spring Ali Kadri,2016-01-26 Since the events of 2011 most Arab countries have slipped into a state of war and living conditions for the majority of the working population have not changed for the better This edited collection examines the socioeconomic conditions and contests the received policy framework to demonstrate that workable alternatives do exist
