Geography Task 2 Memo 2014:

The Geography of Injustice Barak Kushner, 2024-03-15 In The Geography of Injustice Barak Kushner argues that the war crimes tribunals in East Asia formed and cemented national divides that persist into the present day In 1946 the Allies convened the Tokyo Trial to prosecute Japanese wartime atrocities and Japan's empire At its conclusion one of the judges voiced dissent claiming that the justice found at Tokyo was only the sham employment of a legal process for the satisfaction of a thirst for revenge War crimes tribunals Kushner shows allow for the history of the defeated to be heard In contemporary East Asia a fierce battle between memory and history has consolidated political camps across this debate The Tokyo Trial courtroom as well as the thousands of other war crimes tribunals opened in about fifty venues across Asia were legal stages where prosecution and defense curated facts and evidence to craft their story about World War Two These narratives and counter narratives form the basis of postwar memory concerning Japan's imperial aims across the region The archival record and the interpretation of court testimony together shape a competing set of histories for public consumption The Geography of Injustice offers compelling evidence that despite the passage of seven decades since the end of the war East Asia is more divided than united by history

Life in the Age of Drone Warfare Lisa Parks, Caren Kaplan, 2017-10-19 This volume's contributors offer a new critical language through which to explore and assess the historical juridical geopolitical and cultural dimensions of drone technology and warfare They show how drones generate particular ways of visualizing the spaces and targets of war while acting as tools to exercise state power Essays include discussions of the legal justifications of extrajudicial killings and how US drone strikes in the Horn of Africa impact life on the ground as well as a personal narrative of a former drone operator The contributors also explore drone warfare in relation to sovereignty governance and social difference provide accounts of the relationships between drone technologies and modes of perception and mediation and theorize drones relation to biopolitics robotics automation and art Interdisciplinary and timely Life in the Age of Drone Warfare extends the critical study of drones while expanding the public discussion of one of our era's most ubiquitous instruments of war Contributors Peter Asaro Brandon Wayne Bryant Katherine Chandler Jordan Crandall Ricardo Dominguez Derek Gregory Inderpal Grewal Lisa Hajjar Caren Kaplan Andrea Miller Anjali Nath Jeremy Packer Lisa Parks Joshua Reeves Thomas Stubblefield Madiha Tahir

Defenders of Japan Garren Mulloy, 2021-12-01 Japan's post war armed forces are a paradox both embarrassing remnants of the past and valuable repositories of experience This book charts the development of the Japan Self Defense Forces JSDF from 1954 as both unorthodox military institutions and servants of a civil society that decries militarism Investigating JSDF contributions to Japanese and global security the evolution of such contributions during and after the Cold War and their possible reconfiguration for Japan's security needs ahead Garren Mulloy offers insight into the Forces past present and future He explores the characteristics and contradictions of Japanese policy including novel approaches in response to an increasingly assertive China the latent threat of North Korea and contributory pressure from the US Though the American alliance remains the core of Japanese security new partnerships and international overtures will also shape the Forces place in Prime Minister Abe s new vision of proactive contributions to peace Defenders of Japan deconstructs how the JSDF have adapted and will continue to adapt within domestic norms caught between unresolved legacies of Japan s imperial past and a dynamically shifting balance of future global power Regional Powers and Contested Leadership Hannes Ebert,Daniel Flesmes,2018-03-19 When do rising powers fail to establish legitimate regional leadership and instead face contestation by their regional challengers This book investigates how and why the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa project leadership in South America post Soviet Eurasia South and Southeast Asia and sub Saharan Africa respectively and in what ways their main regional challengers respond Based on a systematic conceptualization of the types and drivers of leadership and contestation the authors assess the impact of the rise of regional powers on weaker states security sovereignty and status as well as the consequences of contestation for regional economic development and stability and the regional powers bid for greater voice in global governance By illuminating the sources and effects of power politics in five regions that are increasingly pivotal for the emerging world order the volume offers a global comparative analysis of contemporary regional contested leadership that will interest scholars and students of international affairs foreign policy and area studies International Handbook on Transport and Development R. Hickman,D. Bonilla,M. Givoni,D. Banister,2015-08-28 In the last forty years or so the research field exploring the relationship and interaction between transport and development has developed rapidly While sophistication in analysis has increased understanding the effective integration of transport and development often remains poor in theory and in practice with sometimes devastating effects This Handbookprovides a comprehensive analysis of both the current and emerging thinking in this field drawing on multidisciplinary thinking in transport planning transport urban and spatial economics and the wider social sciences With 45 chapters from leading international authors the book is organised around three main themes urban structure and travel transport and spatial impacts wider dimensions in transport and development The chapters each present commentary on key issues within these themes presenting the debate on the impacts of urban structure on travel the impacts of transport investment on development and social and cultural change on travel A multitude of competing inter disciplinary perspectives are considered leaving the reader with an invaluable comprehensive and critical understanding of the field This major Handbookwill serve as a guide for undergraduates and graduate students researchers consultants and also practitioners and policy makers wishing to find a comprehensive and original reference to research on transport and development Contributors J A Annema F Avelino D Banister D Bonilla F Bruinsma C C Cantarelli X Jason Cao C L Chen G Cohen Blankshtain C Curtis G Dane J Dodson A Donald R Dowling M Echenique A El Geneidy R Ewing E Feitelson B Flyvbjerg N Garrick H Geerlings K Geurs M Givoni A R Goetz P Gordon A Grigolon D Halden P Hall I Hamiduddin S Handy P Headicar D A Hensher D Hidalgo R Hickman R Hjorthol M Hillman E Holden T Holvad H Holzapfel M Iacono O B Jensen P Jones J Kenworthy S Kenyon C A Kl

Cornett, Tina Wallin, 2018-02-23 As a consequence of globalization news ideas and knowledge are moving quickly across national borders and generating international spillovers So too however are economic and financial crises Combining a variety of methods concepts and interdisciplinary approaches this book provides an in depth examination of these structural changes and their impact Assessing the implications of globalization for businesses and sectors chapters focus on the interdependencies between different economic and political layers and explore topics such as human capital creativity innovation networks and collaboration Borderless Worlds for Whom? Anssi Paasi, Eeva-Kaisa Prokkola, Jarkko Saarinen, Kaj Zimmerbauer, 2018-10-25 The optimism heralded by the end of the Cold War and the idea of an emerging borderless world was soon shadowed by conflicts wars terrorism and new border walls Migrants asylum seekers and refugees have simultaneously become key political figures Border and mobility studies are now two sides of the same coin The chapters of this volume reflect the changing relations between borders bordering practices and mobilities They provide both theoretical insights and contextual knowledge on how borders bordering practices and ethical issues come together in mobilities The chapters scrutinize how bounded territorial and open networked relational spaces manifest in various contexts The first section Borders in a borderless world raises theoretical questions The second Politics of inclusion and exclusion looks at bordering practices in the context of migration The third section Contested mobilities and encounters focuses on tourism which has been an accepted form of mobility but which has recently become an object of critique because of overtourism Section four Borders security politics examines bordering practices and security in the EU and beyond highlighting how the migration border politics nexus has become a national and supra national political challenge The chapters of this interdisciplinary volume contribute both conceptually and empirically to understanding contemporary bordering practices and mobilities It is essential reading for geographers political scientists sociologists and international relations scholars interested in the contemporary meanings of borders and mobilities Food Utopias Paul V. Stock, Michael Carolan, Christopher Rosin, 2015-01-09 Food is a contentious and emotive issue subject to critiques from multiple perspectives Alternative food movements including the different articulations of local food miles seasonality food justice food knowledge and food sovereignty consistently invoke themes around autonomy sufficiency cooperation mutual aid freedom and responsibility In this stimulating and provocative book the authors link these issues to utopias and intentional communities Using a food utopias framework presented in the introduction they examine food stories in three interrelated and complementary ways utopias as critique of existing systems utopias as engagement with experimentation of the novel the forgotten and the hopeful in the future of the food system and utopias as process that recognizes the time and difficulty inherent in changing the status quo The chapters address theoretical aspects of food utopias and also present case studies from a range of contexts and regions including Argentina Italy Switzerland and USA These focus on key issues in contemporary food studies including equity locality the sacred citizenship community and food sovereignty Food utopias offers ways forward to imagine a creative and convivial food system Modern Sufis and the State Katherine Pratt Ewing, Rosemary R. Corbett, 2020-08-25 Sufism is typically thought of as the mystical side of Islam In recent years it has been held up as a supposedly peaceful alternative to the spread of forms of Islam associated with violence an embodiment of democratic ideals of tolerance and pluralism Are Sufis in fact as otherworldly and apolitical as this stereotype suggests Modern Sufis and the State brings together a range of scholars including anthropologists historians and religious studies specialists to challenge common assumptions that are made about Sufism today Focusing on India and Pakistan within a broader global context this book provides locally grounded accounts of how Sufis in South Asia have engaged in politics from the colonial period to the present Contributors foreground the effects and unintended consequences of efforts to link Sufism with the spread of democracy and consider what roles scholars and governments have played in the making of twenty first century Sufism They critique the belief that Salafism and Sufism are antithetical offering nuanced analyses of the diversity multivalence and local embeddedness of Sufi political engagements and self representations in Pakistan and India Essays question the portrayal of Sufi shrines as sites of toleration peace and harmony exploring cases of tension and conflict A wide ranging interdisciplinary collection Modern Sufis and the State is a timely call to think critically about the role of public discourse in shaping perceptions of Sufism New Perspectives on Transboundary Water Governance Luis Paulo Batista da Silva, Wagner Costa Ribeiro, Isabella Battistello Espíndola, 2023-12-18 This book presents a novel examination of transboundary water governance drawing on global case studies and applying new theoretical approaches Excessive consumption and degradation of natural resources can either heighten the risks of conflicts or encourage cooperation within and among countries and this is particularly pertinent to the governance of water This book fills a lacuna by providing an interdisciplinary examination of transboundary water governance presenting a range of novel and emerging theoretical approaches Acknowledging that issues vary across different regions the book provides a global view from South and Central America Africa Asia and the Middle East with the case studies offering civil society and public managers concrete situations that indicate difficulties and successes in water sharing between bordering countries The volume highlights the links between natural resources political geography international politics and development with chapters delving into the role of paradiplomacy the challenges of climate change adaptation and the interconnections between aquifers and international development With rising demand for water in the face of climate change this book aims to stimulate further theoretical conceptual and methodological debate in the field of transboundary water governance to ensure peaceful and fair access to shared water resources This book will be of interest to students and scholars of water resource governance from a wide variety of disciplines including geography international relations global development and law It will also be of interest to professionals and policymakers working on natural resource governance and international cooperation

Land Abandoned to the Sea Stuart Oliver, 2021-04-08 Significant changes are affecting coastlines around the world due to economic pressures and climate change This book addresses the social cultural and political context of the process of managed coastal realignment the strategic abandonment of the coast as a means of coping with these changes With a specific focus on the Blackwater Estuary in Essex Stuart Oliver analyses the cultural and social implications of managed retreat and proposes managed realignment as a practical way in which society can rethink itself addressing the new realities of the environment and a move towards developing a more sustainable relationship with it

Small Island Developing States Stefano Moncada, Lino Briguglio, Hilary Bambrick, Ilan Kelman, Catherine Iorns, Leonard Nurse, 2021-10-19 This book explores how vulnerable and resilient communities from SIDS are affected by climate change proposes and where possible evaluates adaptation activities identifies factors capable of enhancing or inhibiting SIDS people's long term ability to deal with climate change and critiques the discourses vocabularies and constructions around SIDS dealing with climate change The contributions written by well established scholars as well as emerging authors and practitioners in the field include conceptual papers coherent methodological approaches and case studies from the communities based in the Caribbean Sea and the Indian Atlantic and Pacific Oceans In their introduction the editors contextualise the book within the current literature They emphasise the importance of stronger links between climate change science and policy in SIDS both to increase effectiveness of policy and also boost scholarly enquiry in the context of whose communities are often excluded by mainstream research This book is timely and appropriate given the recent commission by the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC of a Special Report that aims at addressing vulnerabilities especially in islands and coastal areas as well as the adaptation and policy development opportunities following the Paris Agreement Coupled with this there is also the need to support the policy community with further scientific evidence on climate change related issues in SIDS

The Ukrainian Crisis Tracey German,Emmanuel Karagiannis,2018-12-07 The conflict in eastern Ukraine continues with little sign of a negotiated resolution Crimea has been absorbed into the Russian Federation and celebrates the third anniversary of its integration in March 2017 The ongoing nature of the conflict contrasts with a lack of academic exploration of the issues surrounding it To date most analyses have focused on the geopolitical implications of the Ukrainian crisis such as the impact on NATO Russia relations and foreign policy responses to the crisis from a variety of state and supranational actors including the EU and Russia The role of sub state and non state actors and implications for them has been largely overlooked This volume seeks to rectify this by examining a wide array of non state and sub state actors that have both played a role in the conflict in Ukraine and been indirectly impacted by it
