

which is not warm enough and continent
To hide the stain! O, from this time forth,
My thoughts be bloody, or be nothing worth!

9. Hamlet's witnessing of the army led "a delicate and tender prince" to fight a battle over a small piece of land leads him to this lengthy soliloquy because:
- a. He feels honored to have seen such brave soldiers going off to war and speaks in praise of them.
 - b. He feels the pang of conscience at his own inability to act given the gravity of the circumstances that he has been facing and yet failing to deal with.
 - c. He thinks that the prince (Fortinbras) is foolishly leading men into a deadly battle for a small piece of land.
 - d. He is stirred up and considers leading an expedition such as this in his own country.
 - e. He considers the possibility of raising an army against Claudius because he doesn't think he can exact his revenge alone.

10. Hamlet's reference to "an egghead" underscores:
- a. the delicate nature of the issue he is dealing with between Claudius, Gertrude and himself.
 - b. the insufficiency of the crime that Claudius has committed and the desperate need for Hamlet to exact revenge.
 - c. the seeming insignificance of the land that Fortinbras is attempting to conquer yet his determination to seek it out.
 - d. the tenderness of Fortinbras' feelings towards his deceased father and his determination to honor him no matter what the cost.
 - e. the importance of defending honor no matter how great the cost.

11. The "tender prince," Fortinbras, constitutes what many scholars have argued to be a foil for Hamlet. The following lines provide evidence for this argument:

- a. "O, from this time forth! My thoughts be bloody, or be nothing worth!"
- b. "What is a man? If his chief good and market of his time/be but to sleep and feed? A beast, no more."
- c. "A thought which, quarter'd, hach but one part wisdom! And even three parts coward, I do not know! Why yet I live to say 'This thing's too do!'"
- d. "Frightly to be great! I do not stir without great argument, But greatly to find quarrel in a straw! When honour's at the stake. How stand I then, That have a father kill'd, a mother stain'd... Which is not warm enough and continent to hide the stain!"
- e. "Sure he that made us with such large discourse... no less in us unused."

12. In line 12, Hamlet's mention of men who "go to their graves like beds" represents the use of:

- a. simile
- b. metaphor
- c. allusion
- d. symbolic personification
