MacArthur, 2009-08-30 MacArthur Old Testament Study Guide Series Volume 7 A Study in 2 Samuel David is known as Israel's greatest king and he was renowned for his courage But David was not a super hero He had to fight many difficult battles in order to establish his throne he committed murder and adultery and he brought disaster upon his family Far from perfect David was a man with sin who depended on the same grace of God that is available to us as well Despite his all too human failings the Lord declared that David was a man after God's own heart The Restoration of a Sinner takes an in depth look at the historical period beginning with David's struggle to establish his throne continuing through his sin and repentance and concluding with the tragic rebellion of his son Absalom Studies include close ups of Joab Amnon and Tamar and others as well as careful considerations of doctrinal themes such as Keeping God First and The Man After God's Own Heart This twelve volume MacArthur Old Testament Study Guide series provides intriguing twelve week examinations of the Old Testament Each guide looks at a portion of Scripture from three perspectives historical studies character studies and thematic studies and incorporates extensive commentary detailed observations on overriding themes and probing questions to help you study the Old Testament with guidance from John MacArthur History and Precedent in Environmental Design Anatol

Rapoport, 2013-06-29 This book is about a new and different way of approaching and studying the history of the built environment and the use of historical precedents in design However although what I am proposing is new for what is currently called architectural history both my approach and even my conclusions are not that new in other fields as I discovered when I attempted to find supporting evidence In fact of all the disciplines dealing with various aspects of the study of the past architectural history seems to have changed least in the ways I am advocating There is currently a revival of interest in the history of architecture and urban form a similar interest applies to theory vernacular design and culture environment relations After years of neglect the study of history and the use of historical precedent are again becoming important However that interest has not led to new approaches to the subject nor have its bases been examined This I try to do In so doing I discuss a more rigorous and I would argue a more valid way of looking at historical data and hence of using such data in a theory of the built environment and as precedent in environmental design Underlying this is my view of Environment Behavior Studies CEBS as an emerging theory rather than as data to help design based on current theory Although this will be the subject of another book a summary statement of this position may be useful
