

The Great Gatsby Study Guide

Directions: While reading The Great Gatsby, answer the following identifying facts questions for homework. You do NOT have to write your responses in complete sentences, but make sure that your answers are accurate and thorough. We will answer and discuss the interpreting meaning questions in class.

Every class you should be prepared to hand in your study guide for a surprise completion or accuracy check. Since I may ask you to hand in your study guide answers on any given day, write your answers on a separate sheet of paper. Not all chapters will be graded, but the study guide will help you prepare for reading quizzes and aid you in class discussion, as we analyze the text.

Chapter 1

Identifying Facts:

1. How does Nick describe himself at the beginning of the novel?
2. How does Nick describe Tom Buchanan?
3. Who is Jordan Baker? What does Nick find appealing about her?
4. What is Gatsby doing when Nick first sees him?

Interpreting Meaning:

5. Describe the ambiguity in Nick's initial descriptions of Gatsby.
6. How does the tone of Nick's description of Tom reveal Nick's feelings about Tom?
7. How would you describe Daisy's state of mind during dinner? What does she say and do that helps reveal her inner conflicts?
8. Nick thinks that, given the state of their marriage, Daisy should leave Tom, but it is clear to him that she has no intention of doing so. What indication is there that Tom and Daisy are closely linked despite their marital difficulties?
9. What indications are there that the green light will have a powerful emotional significance to Gatsby?

Chapter 2

Identifying Facts:

1. How does Nick meet Tom's mistress?
2. How does Myrtle react to Tom's arrival?
3. Describe George Wilson. How does he react to Tom's arrival?
4. How does Myrtle behave as the party progresses?

Interpreting Meanings:

5. Describe the setting of the valley of the ashes where George and Myrtle live. What aspects of the setting imply that it is intended to have symbolic meaning as well as a literal one?
6. How does Fitzgerald describe Myrtle Wilson? Does her physical appearance reflect her character in any way?
7. Compare the setting of the party in this chapter to the setting of the party in Chapter One.
8. Why does Tom attack Myrtle at the end of the party? How does this exemplify Fitzgerald's description of Tom in Chapter One?

based argument cite their sources and structure their work in a logical way A Manual for Writers of Research Papers Theses and Dissertations also known as Turabian remains one of the most popular books for writers because of its timeless focus on achieving these goals This new edition filters decades of expertise into modern standards While previous editions incorporated digital forms of research and writing this edition goes even further to build information literacy recognizing that most students will be doing their work largely or entirely online and on screens Chapters include updated advice on finding evaluating and citing a wide range of digital sources and also recognize the evolving use of software for citation management graphics and paper format and submission The ninth edition is fully aligned with the recently released Chicago Manual of Style 17th edition as well as with the latest edition of The Craft of Research Teachers and users of the previous editions will recognize the familiar three part structure Part 1 covers every step of the research and writing process including drafting and revising Part 2 offers a comprehensive guide to Chicago's two methods of source citation notes bibliography and author date Part 3 gets into matters of editorial style and the correct way to present quotations and visual material A Manual for Writers also covers an issue familiar to writers of all levels how to conquer the fear of tackling a major writing project Through eight decades and millions of copies A Manual for Writers has helped generations shape their ideas into compelling research papers This new edition will continue to be the gold standard for college and graduate students in virtually all academic disciplines Bestselling trusted and time tested advice for writing research papers The best interpretation of Chicago style for higher education students and researchers Definitive clear and easy to read with plenty of examples Shows how to compose a strong research question construct an evidence based argument cite sources and structure work in a logical way Essential for anyone interested in learning about research Everything any student or teacher needs to know concerning paper writing

The Censor's Hand Carl E. Schneider, 2015-04-10 An argument that the system of boards that license human subject research is so fundamentally misconceived that it inevitably does more harm than good Medical and social progress depend on research with human subjects When that research is done in institutions getting federal money it is regulated often minutely by federally required and supervised bureaucracies called institutional review boards IRBs Do can these IRBs do more harm than good In The Censor's Hand Schneider addresses this crucial but long unasked question Schneider answers the question by consulting a critical but ignored experience the law's learning about regulation and by amassing empirical evidence that is scattered around many literatures He concludes that IRBs were fundamentally misconceived Their usefulness to human subjects is doubtful but they clearly delay distort and deter research that can save people's lives soothe their suffering and enhance their welfare IRBs demonstrably make decisions poorly They cannot be expected to make decisions well for they lack the expertise ethical principles legal rules effective procedures and accountability essential to good regulation And IRBs are censors in the place censorship is most damaging universities In sum Schneider argues that IRBs are bad regulation that inescapably do more harm than good They were an irreparable mistake that should be abandoned so that research can be conducted properly and regulated sensibly
