

Exemplar response 1

Explore the theme of power in the novel.

Steinbeck explores the theme of power in many different ways. Of Mice and Men can be considered to portray weakness for most characters because the main characters are mostly migrant workers during the period of the Great Depression in America.

At the beginning of the novel Steinbeck already presents us with the idea of power. He explores it through his use of physical strength. One of the first impressions we are given from Lennie is that he is constantly described like an animal. He is mentioned to chug water like a horse when drinking out of a lake and is also described to have 'paws' like a bear. Both of these animals can be seen as very strong and fearful which is exactly what Lennie's first impression can be described to be by any other character in the book. However, Lennie cannot take control over his own strength, which is exactly the first exploration. Steinbeck shows in the book of powerlessness. Whenever Lennie pets his mice he always end with a dead mice being hidden from George.

Steinbeck also explores the theme of power through Lennie and George's relationship. Since the start of the novel Lennie and George's relationship can be compared to a father, son relationship. George is always seen to take care for Lennie such as the time when they were arriving to the ranch and Lennie realises he doesn't have his worker's card with him. George replies to him saying how stupid he is to think George would let him carry his own card. George is always seen to control Lennie. Steinbeck also plays with the theme of power when both Lennie and George arrive to the ranch. At this point George is seen to be the one with control over the situation as he forces Alan not to speak when they talk to the boss. However, as soon as they enter the boss's room, the change in the atmosphere and mood in George shows how powerless he is towards his boss. Steinbeck presents the boss to be very empowering as he speaks in a very harsh way. For example, when he thinks George is using Alan's money and says 'What's your stake in this guy?' as he doesn't believe George is caring for Alan, he thinks he is taking over Alan and gaining from him. Steinbeck presents the boss to remind us how powerless George actually is as he is just a migrant worker in a ranch.

Steinbeck also explores power through the use of disability. Candy is presented to have a missing hand that was due to his work in the ranch. Most things humans do is with their hands, and by taking one off of Candy, he is shown to not being able to control everything in his life, show in powerlessness. An example of Candy actually being powerless is when his dog is shot to death. Candy's later response is 'I ought to have shot that dog myself.'

Introduction: Uses key word in the introduction but doesn't really explore what power is, what it means to have power and doesn't identify examples of power that main body of the response would explore.

Main body:

Paragraph 1: Clear point established at the beginning of this paragraph. Use of relevant examples.

The candidate doesn't really explore the significance of the power with regard to Lennie – why is this an important point?

This point would be better in establishing a line of argument between physical power and mental / emotional power

No link to context.

Paragraph 2: Is this the most relevant example with regard to the theme of power?

Begins to slip into narrative rather than keeping the focus on power. The candidate needs to consider why their relationship might be seen as powerful. Might be an interesting argument to put forward that George and Lennie's friendship and the fact they travel around together make them a powerful combination, especially with Lennie's strength and George's mind.

Who is Alan?

Very limited reference to context.

Paragraph 3: Exploring the idea of powerlessness is interesting as many of the characters on the ranch do not have power.

Interesting point – because Candy hurt his hand on the ranch, his position is somewhat secure. However, it makes him less productive and Candy spends a lot of time worrying about being canned because of his age. Link to context available here.

Nice point about his dog which could then be linked to George and Lennie later. It is an undeveloped point though.

Level 2 response

This candidate was awarded 16/40 which is a level 2. Some elements of Level 3 but points are not always secure with regard to the question so only reasonable understanding is shown. The coverage of the relationship between text and context is undeveloped. Examples provided need to be elaborated on further and writing sometimes slips into a narrative retelling.
