Corcoran, 2002 Ireland's Burning Paul Cunningham, 2016-05-17 How Will Climate Change Affect You Climate change is the biggest threat to the world today Rising temperatures and shifting weather patterns are already creating havoc in parts of the world The issue has been hotly debated by experts and policy makers it is now widely accepted that human activity has played a crucial part in climate change Nobody now denies the urgency of the situation But how will climate change affect Ireland What do we know about climate change What is happening now What will happen in the future and what can we do about it RT's Environment Correspondent Paul Cunningham takes us on a tour of Ireland meeting people whose lives and livelihoods have already been affected or will be affected in the future farmers whose lands have been flooded and who find their crops threatened by unseasonal weather coastal residents whose homes are in danger of collapsing into the sea and ordinary parents whose children will bear the cost of our actions today He also speaks to Ireland's leading weather and climate experts and campaigners who paint a realistic picture of what lies in store for us over the coming decades businesses whose responsibility for leading change is as big as their carbon imprints and Environment Ministers former and current Noel Dempsey and John Gormley Cunningham looks at the proven facts and the various scenarios that may be played out Finally the author sums up what we can do to prevent disaster on a local and global scale Ireland's Burning is a highly readable accessible book that addresses an issue that is not going to go away Under the Bridge and Over the Moon Kevin Ireland, 2014-10-03 A prize winning memoir lovingly evoking New Zealand and the coming of age of a much loved poet Kevin Ireland leads the reader out the back through the mangroves under the bridge and over the moon in this delightful memoir We meet the characters for characters they are who preceded him give birth to him laugh with him fight over him love and desert him We explore with him the landscape of his childhood in Takapuna and Cambridge we are his intrepid companions on fishing expeditions we share his outrage at the indignities of the education system and we linger with him over the books that finally become his life Winner of the history and biography section of the Montana New Zealand Book Awards Our Own Kind Siobhan Harvey, 2009 From Baxter to Hunt Frame to Glover Curnow to Edmond animals are widely found in New Zealand verse and are the subject of some of our most famous and endearing poems In Our Own Kind Siobhan Harvey brings them together in an intelligently and affectionately chosen anthology that's beautifully enhanced by outstanding animal photographs by Mark Smith The sections of the collection are headed as follows and indeed provide something for everyone Bow Wow Miaow A Box of Birds Other Pets Creepy crawly Moana Zoo Farm The Irish Digest, 1961 Theological Ethics in a Neoliberal Age Kevin Hargaden, 2018-10-31 Throughout his ministry Jesus spoke frequently and unabashedly on the now taboo subject of money With nothing good to say to the rich the New Testament indeed the entire Bible is far from positive towards the topic of personal wealth And yet we all seek material prosperity and comfort How are Christians to square the words of their savior with the balances of their bank accounts or more accurately with their unquenchable desire for financial security While the church has developed diverse responses to the problems of poverty it is often silent on what seems almost as straightforward a biblical principle that wealth too is a problem By considering the particular context of the recent economic history of Ireland this book explores how the parables of Jesus can be the key to unlocking what it might mean to follow Christ as wealthy people without diluting our dilemma or denying the tension Through an engagement with contemporary economic and political thought aided by the work of Karl Barth and William T Cavanaugh this book represents a unique and innovative intervention to a discussion that applies to every Christian in the Western world Educating the Body Kevin Ireland, 1968 Ireland's Animals Niall Mac Coitir, 2015-09-28 Niall Mac Coitir provides a comprehensive look at the folklore legends and history of animals in Ireland and describes their relations with people being hunted for food fur sport or as vermin and their position today A final section inspired by stories of animal transformation looks at twelve animals and how we can enrich our lives by visualising ourselves with their special qualities This fascinating and beautifully illustrated compilation of folklore legends and natural history will delight all with an interest in Ireland s animals A hand book for travellers in Ireland James Fraser (of Dublin.),1854 The Constant Economy Zac Goldsmith,2010-09-01

STRONGA timely inspiring manifesto combining the power of markets with the will of people to effect change for the ultimate survival of the planet Since the industrial revolution the economies of developed nations have grown at the expense of the natural world but the earth s resources are finite climate change threatens to dramatically transform how and where people live and the global economic system is in disarray Offering an urgently needed alternative model this book argues for the creation of a constant economy in which resources are valued not wasted food is grown sustainably and goods are built to last The constant economy operates at the human scale and above all it recognizes nature s limits This book explains that almost every action needed to support the environment is already being carried out somewhere in the world by companies communities and governments determined to blaze a trail Where they have done the right thing their customers and voters have rewarded them Practical solutions exist and they are brought together and set out in this groundbreaking book
