Instructional Period 1

Topic: Literary Elements - Narrative

Strand 2: Literary Text Comprehension

Comprehending Literary Text identifies the comprehension strategies that are specific in the study of a variety of literature.

Concept 1: Literary Elements

Students need to identify, analyze, and apply knowledge of the structure and elements of literature.

Essential Questions: What are the elements of a story? Do elements change in different stories?

Big Idea: Literary elements are the basic building blocks of a story.

Performance Objective	Process Integration (skills to use)	Explanations and Examples	Resources	Assessment
ISCIPO2: Describe characters (e.g., traits, roles, similarities) within a literary selection.	R-SIC6PO6: Connect information and events in text to experience and to related text and sources. R-SIC6GESD PC1: Use graphic organizers (i.e., flow map, circle map, Venn diagram, double bubble, and cause and effect) to organize narrative and expository text structure.	Explanation: The students will explain a character by collecting textual evidence in the following categories: what the character says and does, what others think of the character, how the character looks and feels, and how the reader feels about the character to draw conclusions about the characters traits. Then the students will explain the characters connection to the action throughout the story (beginning, middle and end) and how the character changed. Content Knowledge: - The major character usually changes throughout the action of the story. - The character might learn a lesson or change the way they act. - The major characters learn something important about themselves and their lives. - The role the character plays in the action is connected to the theme or author's message.	Introduction Lessons: - See Study Island 3rd Grade Reading Strand Describing Characters example lesson. Supplemental Resources: - Reader's Handbook pp.	Question Items: From this story, the reader can tell that _____. Which of the following words best describes _____? How does _____ feel at the end of the story?
