Intellivision Tom Boellstorff, Braxton Soderman, 2024-11-05 The engaging story of Intellivision an overlooked videogame system from the late 1970s and early 1980s whose fate was shaped by Mattel Atari and countless others who invented the gaming industry Astromash Snafu Star Strike Utopia do these names sound familiar to you No Maybe They were all videogames created for the Intellivision videogame system sold by Mattel Electronics between 1979 and 1984 This system was Atari's main rival during a key period when videogames were moving from the arcades into the home In Intellivision Tom Boellstorff and Braxton Soderman tell the fascinating inside story of this overlooked gaming system Along the way they also analyze Intellivision's chips and code games marketing and business strategies organizational and social history and the cultural and economic context of the early US games industry from the mid 1970s to the great videogame industry crash of 1983 While many remember Atari Intellivision has largely been forgotten As such Intellivision fills a crucial gap in videogame scholarship telling the story of a console that sold millions and competed aggressively against Atari Drawing on a wealth of data from both institutional and personal archives and over 150 interviews with programmers engineers executives marketers and designers Boellstorff and Soderman examine the relationship between videogames and toys an under analyzed aspect of videogame history and discuss the impact of home computing on the rise of videogames the gendered implications of play and videogame design at Mattel and the blurring of work and play in the early games industry

Help-Our-Planet-Earth (HOPE) Paul Watterworth, 2015-09-01 Robert walked towards the hospital emergency entrance The smell of death was overpowering Many of the cars blocking the ambulance entrance had their lifeless occupants slumped over the steering wheels or their heads propped against the car windows The sliding doors were propped open by more bodies of virus casualties Robert looked deeper into the dark hospital and turned around The hospital was not receiving more patients Jillian stared over the city of Hong Kong from the eighteenth floor of the luxury hotel Although it was the middle of the day the entire city was dead Not a car boat or person was moving The hotel had no water phone or electricity Despair washed over her as she thought of her children She prayed that her two boys survived the virus The problem was that they were a very large ocean away Adapting to the new world was difficult Finding and protecting your family was an even greater challenge

Planet Alicia Alexis Sixela, 2008-10-20 Traveling to another planet is also a trip inside It makes you pay a visit to some corners of your brain that are not always in working order At home everything has a length a width and a depth This is our cubist environment The stars above don't seem to have any use for our straight lines right angles and flat surfaces You don't have to go far to see that our so called normal way of thinking is only a first approximation Len our photographer fell in love on Planet Alicia That was more than he expected He went there with the idea that love is something that he produces and gives away Now he sees lovers as those double stars going through the universe dancing around each other united by their distance The transition was not easy He nearly died We went there convinced that we are the master of our ship I came back thinking that I am trying to master the wind blowing in my sails Enjoy the trip

Big Book of Self-Reliant Living Walter Szytkitka, 2009-10-14 Rural homesteaders and urban apartment dwellers alike will find a mother lode of practical information packed into this completely revised and updated edition of the ultimate how to handbook for all generations A selective compendium of public domain documents it brings together in one volume a wealth of knowledge and useful instruction on just about every imaginable aspect of self sufficiency from building a dwelling and growing food to raising children using tools of all kinds and yes getting more mileage out of your car Readers will learn how to build a greenhouse administer first aid stock an emergency shelter survive in the wilderness at sea and in the city plant buy farmland grow plants indoors and out read architect's drawings care for household pets repair clothing hunt trap and fish repair a screen or leaking faucet butcher and store big game kill relieve allergy symptoms control insects stay safe during storms and floods can and freeze fruits and vegetables take your own blood pressure and much much more Praise for a previous edition How we have survived this long without this book I don't know The concept is brilliant and simple If we had lived in a rural community a century ago much of the knowledge gathered here would have been in our bones Harper's
