Live Pre Budget Report:

The 2005 Pre-budget Report Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Treasury Committee,2006-01-25 The Committee's report examines the Government's Pre Budget Report 2005 Cm 6701 ISBN 0101670125 published in December 2005 Issues discussed include the state of the economy including the UK Presidency of the G8 UK economic growth estimates for 2006 and beyond and consumer spending and public finance matters as well as issues relating to taxation and pensions Recommendations made include that the Treasury should give at least four weeks notice of the date of the Pre Budget Report in order to enable sufficient parliamentary scrutiny and if this target is not met the Treasury should give an account of the reasons why Pre-budget Report 2008 Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Treasury Committee,2009 The Treasury Committee's report on the Pre Budget Report 2008 Cm 7484 ISBN 9780101748421 considers that the balance of risks to the Treasury's forecast for a swift recovery in economic growth for 2010 after a significant decline in output in 2009 is on the downside The report highlights the lack of bank lending as the single most critical problem for the economy in the near term The overall effect of the fiscal stimulus remains uncertain the cost of the reduction in VAT is considerable and in the view of the majority of commentators the Treasury's analysis of its impact is an optimistic one The report notes that the risk of a self reinforcing deflationary cycle exists in the UK economy at present and recommends that the Treasury prepare and publish the actions it may consider taking should a period of quantitative easing be needed While the need for lower interest rates to maintain economic growth is crucial at the present time the needs of savers must not be forgotten and the Treasury should consider measures that will also support savers at this difficult time The report notes with concern that the Pre Budget Report contains no policy measures which will significantly advance meeting the 2010 child poverty target The 2006 pre-budget report Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Treasury Committee,2007-01-25 This report from the Treasury Committee examines the recent economic analysis and assessment of the UK economy as outlined in the 2006 pre budget report and sets out a number of conclusions and recommendations including the Committee welcomes the recent rise in the growth rate of business investment but with the caveat that the downside risk as highlighted in a previous weakness for business investment remains unexplained that several risks exist around the consumption growth forecast including the potential of house prices to fall and the increase of personal insolvency the employment rate rise is commended but a lack of migration statistics in relation to the labour market means an overall assessment is not possible although an improved forecast for economic growth in 2006 the Treasury has not forecast an improvement in the fiscal position the Government appears to be on track to meet the golden rule in the current economic cycle but will start the next economic cycle with its current budget in deficit the Committee recommends also that the Treasury in future Budgets and Pre Budget reports provide a fuller explanation of its current forecast of the start and end dates of the current economic cycle also future Budget and Pre Budget reports should provide a breakdown of reported efficiency gains by department and further to enhance transparency and enable effective scrutiny the Treasury should require departments in their departmental annual reports and Autumn Performance reports in 2007 and in later years to provide consistent and comprehensive information on progress against efficiency targets the Committee expressed dissatisfaction at the lateness and vagueness of information in relation to expenditure on education but approved the early announcement of capital spending plans for education up to 2010 11 the Committee though does welcome the Government's decision to commission and publish a range of reviews informing future economic policy including tax policy the Pre Budget report is seen as an effective instrument of fiscal consultation but this could be enhanced if Parliament and the public were given greater notice of the date of the report perhaps 4 weeks before the statement is due to be made where tax changes carry significant risk of forestalling activity or distorting market behaviour such as the unusual timing and implementation of the increases in Air Passenger Duty the Committee feels as a general rule that those increases should not come into force until the House of Commons has had an opportunity to come to a formal decision on such an increase Pre-budget

Report 2008 Great Britain. Treasury, 2008 The 2008 Pre Budget Report presents updated assessments and forecasts of the economy and public finances and reports on how in the face of major global economic shocks the Government intends to support the economy businesses and households through these uncertain times while delivering its long term goals Measures announced include temporarily reducing the Value Added Tax VAT rate to 15 per cent from 1 December 2008 to 31 December 2009 bringing forward 3 billion of capital spending from 2010 11 including introducing a green stimulus supporting low carbon growth and jobs introducing a new additional higher rate of income tax of 45 per cent for those with incomes above 150 000 from April 2011 increasing national insurance contributions by 0.5 per cent from April 2011 increasing alcohol and tobacco duties a two pence per litre increase in fuel duty from 1 December Immediate action to help those individuals and businesses most affected by the economic downturn include increases in the income tax personal allowance bringing forward the increase in Child Benefit increases of the Child Tax Credit and a payment of 60 to all pensioners help through mortgage rescue and Support for Mortgage Interest schemes for eligible homeowners in difficulty and a commitment from major mortgage lenders not to initiate repossession action within at least three months of an owner occupier going into arrears an additional 1.3 billion to support for the unemployed to find a new job measures to help small and medium sized enterprises facing credit constraints a new HMRC Business Payment Support Service to allow businesses in temporary financial difficulty to pay their HMRC tax bills on a timetable they can afford and more generous tax relief for businesses now making losses and the modification of a number of planned tax reforms including vehicle excise duty air passenger duty and the deferral of the increase in the small companies rate of corporation tax Pre-budget Report 2008 Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Environmental Audit Committee, 2009 This report examines firstly the Treasury's response to recession The fiscal stimulus measures intended to pull the economy out of recession represent an invaluable opportunity to transform the UK

into a low carbon economy But meeting climate change and renewable energy targets will require a step change in environmental investment This year's Pre Budget Report announced a 535m package of green fiscal stimulus measures designed to tackle economic and environmental problems simultaneously This investment is welcome but the scale too small most of this funding was already committed and will be offset by reduced spending in 2010 11 Extra funding announced for the Warm Front programme will not deliver the scale and speed of change that is needed Programmes aimed at improving the energy efficiency of existing buildings should be the number one priority for green fiscal stimulus It is disappointing that the wider fiscal stimulus package contains hundreds of millions of pounds for road building and widening The Treasury should publish an assessment of the net impacts of its fiscal stimulus package on the environment The second part of the report looks at green taxation In real terms revenue from green taxes has gone down slightly since 1998 while revenue from all taxation has increased by around 30 per cent On aviation taxes the Committee criticise the Treasury's backtracking on replacing Air Passenger Duty with a per plane charge and exhorts the Government to seek reform of the Chicago Convention so as to allow taxation of international aviation fuel On motoring taxes it calls for re examination of the merits and practicalities of a car scrappage scheme to pay people to trade in their existing older cars for newer more efficient models

The 2007 pre-budget report Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Treasury Committee,2007-11-26 Incorporating HCP 1031 i iii session 2006 07 The Pre Budget Report 2007 published in October 2007 Cm 7227 ISBN 9780101722728 The 2007 comprehensive spending review Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Treasury Committee,2007-12-03 This report is in five main sections overall spending issues efficiency and value for money the new performance management framework child poverty and individual spending settlements The planned rate of growth of public spending is set to be considerably slower than the rate of growth of recent years This could lead to cost pressures on departmental spending as there will be a greater proportional growth in the Annual Managed Expenditure There will also be cost pressures from public sector wage settlements population growth and needs in particular sectors The efficiency programmes are highly ambitious but the Committee recommends that savings should only be recorded if it could be shown that service standards have been maintained There is a welcome for the decision not to impose explicit targets for reduction in Civil Service numbers On child poverty the Committee note a possible tension between the target to halve child poverty by 2010 11 and that of eliminating child poverty by 2020 There is a concern that the Government has drawn back from a whole hearted commitment to meet the 2010 target They want the Government to either initiate a debate on the trade off between the two targets or rededicate itself to the 2010 11 target making it clear that the resources are available within the Comprehensive Spending Review Pre-budget Report 2009 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Treasury Committee,2010 This report acknowledges that deciding the right time for fiscal consolidation requires making a fine judgement about the resilience of the recovery It emphasises that a plan to restore the health of the public finances must deal with the structural deficit While the Treasury aims to cut the deficit from 9% of GDP to 3.6% of GDP in four years the expert witnesses who examined it all criticised the document for not providing enough information about how this will be achieved Future Budgets and PBRs should attempt to quantify the downside risks around the structural deficit forecast There will be uncertainty in these figures but they are produced as part of the Spending Review process so there appears to be no argument against their publication Similarly the Bank of England publishes forecasts showing the possible range of inflation rates and publishing information about debt interest on a similar basis would be useful The recession appears to have had substantially less impact on the labour market than might have been feared though concern remains about the level of youth unemployment Repossessions have been far lower than expected however it is recommended that the Treasury proceeds cautiously over the timing of removal of Government support in this area We do not want to see a return to the times of easy credit but the Government needs to remain aware of the risk that lending will not support renewed private sector growth as the public sector retrenches The purpose of the tax on bank bonuses is to change behaviour so that banks increase their capital rather than providing large discretionary payments to employees The next Parliament needs to examine the effectiveness of any regime introduced by the Financial Services Bill in terms both of its success in altering bank behaviour and of its effect on the competitiveness of the UK financial sector

The 2007 pre-Budget report and comprehensive spending review Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee, 2008-03-05 Environmental taxes as a proportion of all taxation peaked at 9.7 per cent in 1999 and have declined ever since falling to 7.3 per cent in 2006 This report sets out a number of conclusions and recommendations covering different areas of environmental policy 1 Aviation the reform of Air Passenger Duty into a levy per flight rather than per passenger is welcome but tax on aviation must be significantly increased so as to stabilise demand and resulting emissions 2 Motoring road transport emissions in England increased by 12 per cent between 1997 and 2006 and are forecast to increase so it is important for the Budget to put in place rises in fuel duty 3 Carbon capture and storage the Treasury must provide more assistance for the development of this technology in the UK 4 Shadow price of carbon this should be increased to discourage the approval of carbon intensive policies and projects and so improve the prospects of achieving the reduction in global emission targets 5 Environmental transformation fund the Pre Budget report Cm 7227 ISBN 9780101722728 announced funding for such a fund with 370 million to be spent over three years but only 170 million was new money 6 Emissions trading it must be clear when reported emissions figures incorporate the purchase of carbon credits otherwise they will give a false picture of the decarbonisation progress within the UK 7 Public service agreements the new PSA is too diffuse with no clear departmental targets for reducing emissions the Government should consider setting emissions reduction targets for specific sectors of the economy The Treasury has not responded on the scale or with the urgency recommended by the Stern Review ISBN 9780102944204 and the 2008 Pre Budget report needs to establish a coherent set of measures to help deliver the UK's 2020 domestic and EU targets on emissions and renewable energy Lives in the Balance Charles C. Griffin, David Ferranti, Courtney Tolmie, 2010-08-01 Because of its potential impact and in some cases the harm it has brought foreign aid is under the microscope Donor countries who don't want simply to give money away recipient nations who need to make the most of what they have and get and analysts policymakers and writers are all scrutinizing how much is spent and where it goes Perhaps more important aid is only a small part of what developing country governments spend Their own resources finance 80 percent or more of health and education spending except in the most aid dependent countries Lives in the Balance investigates a vital aspect of this landscape how best to ensure that public spending including aid money gets to the right destination The development of democratic institutions and the spread of cheap communications technology in developing countries make it possible for the demand side citizens and civil society institutions to advocate for improved transparency stronger accountability better priorities reduced corruption and more emphasis on helping the poor Securing real reform will depend not only on knowledge of how the recipient government operates but also how to work with partner entities the media the private sector other organizations and legislators to raise awareness and compel change Report of the President's Committee on the Cost of Living United States. Administration and expenditure of the Chancellor's departments, 2008-09 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Treasury Committee, 2010-03-09 The Chancellor's departments faced extraordinary challenges during 2008-09 mainly arising from the need to respond to the emerging financial crisis and associated economic downturn The report concludes that it is very difficult to draw final conclusions regarding their level of success too much remains unfinished business It draws attention in particular to the new relationship between the Treasury and UKFI and recommends that the Government considers whether the formal terms of the relationship need some re-definition in the light of experience The report is particularly concerned by the dire results for HM Revenue Customs HMRC of a cross Government staff survey pilot study The Report calls for HMRC management to publish a clear and detailed plan to provide focus and direction to their efforts to re-engage with their workforce Noting a rise in customer complaints and that on average only 57 per cent of calls to HMRC contact centres were answered during 2008-09 HMRC should publish more data to enable effective scrutiny of its performance against its targets data which is essential for tax gaps to be closed and for the take up of the working tax credit to be assessed and improved The Report is critical of the failure of most departments to provide accurate and timely monthly in-year figures to the Treasury Other sections of the report cover National Savings Investment the revaluation of UK statutory ports and the performance of the Royal Mint Budget 2007 Great Britain.
