Punch , 1898      Journal of Education , 1883      Opening the Mind's Eye Ian Robertson, 2007-04-01 Ian Robertson has always been fascinated by how the mind makes images for that awesome power directly and deeply affects our lives All of us visualize the world differently and how we do so dictates the way we feel remember and think and therefore our health memory and creativity In this lively accessible and fascinating book Robertson explains that most of us employ language as a basis for visualization In effect we think in words more than in images The result is an imbalance between the logical and the intuitive between imagery based thought and language based thought Opening the Mind's Eye is both an enlightening and stimulating explanation of how we see and a compelling argument for extending the mind's powers to improve the quality of our lives Like Daniel Goleman's Emotional Intelligence it combines insight and application      Wonder Strikes Steven E. Divas and Scholars Philip Gossett, 2008-05-30 Divas and Scholars is a dazzling and beguiling account of how opera comes to the stage filled with Philip Gossett's personal experiences of triumphant and even failed performances and suffused with his towering passion for music. Gossett, the world's leading authority on the performance of Italian opera, brings to life the problems and occasionally the scandals that attend the production of some of our favorite operas. Gossett begins by tracing the social history of nineteenth-century Italian theaters in order to explain the nature of the musical scores from which performers have long worked. He then illuminates the often hidden but crucial negotiations between what is written and how it is interpreted by opera conductors and performers.

Jack Robertson and Syd Brown: More Than Just The Warm-Up Act Chris Overson, 2013-05-01 North London cricket followers turned to their morning newspapers for eleven summers in 1939 and from 1946 to 1955 to see how Robertson J D and Brown S M had fared as the Middlesex opening batsmen. They were not often disappointed. The pair opened the batting 366 times and their partnerships put on 14 116 runs reaching 100 runs or more on 35 occasions. As memories of their endeavours fade, cricket enthusiasts nowadays have perhaps typecast them as the warm-up act to the prodigious talents of Bill Edrich and Denis Compton. But they were more than that. Even that curmudgeonly old critic E M Wellings thought Jack a beautifully fluent stroke maker and Syd a splendid county batsman. He thought selectors looked too hard for flaws in Jack's top-class batting technique, thus restricting him to 11 test matches, and he reckoned Syd to be among the finest fielders in the deep. Using material from a wide range of sources, Chris Overson here writes on their early influences, their almost simultaneous start at Lord's in 1934, their inevitable cricketing ups and downs often in those days before crowds of 10 000 or more, and their lives after they had left the field of play.
