Use this graphic organizer to collect your thoughts about characterization in Macbeth. As you read each scene record what you learn about the character. Add the line from the play that supports your idea. Lady Macbeth Observations Text Support Looks Lady Macbeth looks like a serious, ambitious woman who is not afraid to go after what she desires ; MACBETH: "not lose the dues of rejoicing, by being ignorant of what greatness is promised thee" Actions She says everything to convince Macbeth that he should kill King Duncan.

When Duncan is killed, she says that she will smear the servants with the kings blood so that they will look responsible. This displays Lady Macbeth's determination to carry out what she puts her mind to. "But screw your courage to the sticking-place, and we'll not fail..." "If he do bleed, I'll gild the faces of the grooms withal, For it must seem their guilt." Speech She is not affected by death. She quickly moved on. "A little water clears us of this deed: How easy is it then!" Thoughts I feel that Lady Macbeth does not regret any of her decisions.

She feels that Macbeth is kind of a coward Interactions She expects Macbeth to go through with the deed, and reacts with disappointment when Macbeth tells her that he cannot kill King Duncan. "Mass the hope drunk Merlin you dressed yourself? Hath it slept since? And wakes it now, to look so green and pale At what it did so freely?" Macbeth Characterization ; Macbeth seems ambitious like his wife, but he also seems like he wants to be of good moral and this conflicts with his plan to murder King Duncan. "He's here in bubble trust: First, as I am his kinsman and his subject, Strong both against the deed: then, as his host, moo should against his murderer shut the door, Not bear the knife myself." Actions He is convinced by his wife to kill Duncan. He speaks to an invisible dagger, which is the same as going mad. ; He goes through with the plan and successfully murders Duncan. ; "Mine eyes are made the fools o' the other senses, Or else worth all the rest: I see thee still; And on thy blade and dudgeon gout of blood, Which was not so before.

There's no such thing: 't is the bloody business which informs .Thus to mine eyes. " ; "I go, and it is done; the bell invites me. Hear it not, Duncan, for it is a knell .That summons thee to heaven or to hell." Speech ; He speaks like he is nervous; his action of killing Duncan makes him feel badly. ; "How sit with me, when every noise appall me? That hands are here? Ha, they pluck out mine eyes!" Thoughts He feels guilty because he killed Duncan. He thinks there is nothing in his power to erase that guilt within him. "Will all great Neptune ocean wash this blood . Clean from my hand? No; this my hand will rather .The multitudinous seas incarnadine, Making the green one red." Interactions He did not react the way his wife wanted him to. At first, h

Macbeth Character Development Essay:

The character development of Macbeth and of evil in Shakespeare's play Fabian Wähner, 2016-09-27 Essay from the year 2014 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of Potsdam Institut für Anglistik Amerikanistik course Shakespeare's Tragedies II language English abstract So foul and fair a day I have not seen Shakespeare Act I Scene 3 l 38 These words mentioned by Macbeth the main protagonist of the corresponding tragedy echo one of the main themes of the whole play nothing is as it seems to be This central topic also arises in other tragedies by William Shakespeare In Macbeth this motive appears in a much stronger way This tragedy tells the journey of a former loyal and shining hero who evolves into the center of evil Macbeth is considered as one of the most sinister tragedies of William Shakespeare From the beginning on the setting is depicted as a world full of nightmares darkness murder and treason The play is constituted in a barren landscape considered as a reference to hell Most of the events happen during the nighttime which supports this sinister impression Some of the attempts that were made to analyze Macbeth describe him as pure evil and a tyrant A psychopath who mercilessly defends his position as a king by killing every possible opponent who crosses his path Other interpretations draw him as a victim torn between the question of what is right and what is wrong and influenced by the evil that surrounds him How can a man who is firstly described as a hero and a loyal subject change in such a dramatic way Which path does he take to become such a criminal individual like he mostly is described What changes happen within his mind These questions about the character development or in other words the development of the evil within Macbeth are the core of this paper In this research the Reclam version of Shakespeare's Macbeth published 2011 in Ditzingen Germany is used William Shakespeare: an analysis of Macbeth's character Alessandro De Vivo, 2007-04-27 Seminar paper from the year 2002 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2 0 University of Education Ludwigsburg language English abstract I would like to base my essay on the protagonist Macbeth Probably composed in late 1606 or early 1607 Macbeth is the last of Shakespeare's tragedies the others being Hamlet King Lear and Othello If Hamlet is the grandest of Shakespeare's plays Macbeth is from a tragic standpoint the most sublime and the most impressive as an active play If we just consider the plot Macbeth is a relatively simple play In fact like Richard III and numerous pre-Shakespearean plays it deals with a traditional form the rise and fall of a great man In the first part of the play we read about Macbeth's rise to power then he manages to become king of Scotland From this moment on he begins with a period of tyranny that will end with Macbeth's death and the accession to the throne of the legitimate king For this reason he can be considered as the epitome of a tragic hero In the course of the play we notice a great development of Macbeth's character At the beginning he is a man much honoured by his countrymen for his leading and courageous part in defence of his good king and native land During many conflicts he showed his great courage and he continues showing this personal quality also when he becomes king and he has to take a lot of difficult decisions But this first description about Macbeth's character is not the definitive one in fact as soon as we meet him we find out also his negative qualities for example that he is both ambitious and murderous It happens when the two Scottish generals Macbeth and his friend Banquo returning victorious from the great battle against a rebel army assisted by the troops of Norway meet three witches in the middle of the road They begin to speak to Macbeth the first of them greets him with the title of Thane of Glaning so it is in the reality the second follows by giving him the title of Thane of Cawdor to which honour he has no pretensions the third predicts that Macbeth will be king of Scotland Then turning to Banquo they prophesy that his son will be king of Scotland So they turn into the air and vanish After a while Macbeth and his friend are stopped by some messengers of the king who are empowered by him to confer upon Macbeth the dignity of Thane of Cawdor an event so miraculously corresponding with the predictions of the witches astonishes Macbeth who begins to think about the other and more important prophecy

Matthew Woodcock provides a survey of the critical responses to this popular play as well as the key debates and developments from the seventeenth century to the present day Leading the reader through material chronologically the Guide summarises and assesses key interpretations setting them in their intellectual and historical context King Henry V

Joseph Candido,2022-02-10 With its depiction of the victorious English king Henry V has divided critical opinion and remains one of the more controversial of Shakespeare's histories This new volume in Shakespeare The Critical Tradition increases our knowledge of how Shakespeare's plays were received and understood by critics editors and general readers The volume offers in separate sections both critical opinions about the play across the centuries and an evaluation of their positions within and their impact on the reception of the play The chronological arrangement of the text excerpts engages the readers in a direct and unbiased dialogue whereas the introduction offers a critical evaluation from a current stance including modern theories and methods Thus the volume makes a major contribution to our understanding of the play and of the traditions of Shakespearean criticism surrounding it as they have developed from century to century
